Creating Tomorrows Philanthropists New Directions For Philanthropic Fundraising:

Creating Tomorrow's Philanthropists: Curriculum Development for Youth Patricia O. Bjorhovde, 2003-01-10 This issue focuses on the current state of teaching of philanthropy to youth and the curricula being written to accomplish that goal Fostering lifelong skills in fundraising donor skills volunteerism and civic participation in today's youth is the key to creating tomorrow's philanthropists With an overview of ongoing research and key philanthropic concepts in existing curricula chapter authors explore future implications of current trends They examine the Council of Michigan's effort to incorporate philanthropic practice into their state mandated public school core curriculum the partnership between professional fundraisers and the educational system approved by the New Jersey Department of Education and Indianapolis's Habits of the Heart project Other crucial topics addressed include faith based organizations and their role in the transmission of philanthropic values ethical fundraising and the fundraising experience for youth and the dual role of philanthropic studies programs in higher education With a mission to promote the development and implementation of philanthropy teaching programs at every level in every community this issue is an invaluable resource for educators and philanthropic organizations alike

Philanthropy and Fundraising in American Higher Education, Volume 37, Number 2 Noah D. Drezner, 2011-05-17 From gifts of blankets chickens and candles to multimillion dollar gifts and billion dollar campaigns voluntary support of American higher education has been part of the American ethos since the founding of the colonial colleges Peter Dobkin Hall in 1992 noted that no single force is more responsible for the emergence of the modern university in America than giving by individuals and foundations Institutions are turning to private giving to meet budgetary demands This book provides a review of the philanthropy and fundraising literature and addresses the impact of philanthropy on American higher education the theoretical underpinnings and motivations for voluntary support and a comprehensive look at the mechanics of fundraising

Leading Up Lilya Wagner, 2005-10-13 Fundraisers at all levels discover the art of leading up Fundraisers know that in order to be successful in their demanding profession they have to get things done And to get things done they need to exercise leadership from whatever rank or position they hold often from the middle This concept is called leading up Recognizing that all fundraisers must be leaders Leading Up teaches professionals the skills and traits they need to be successful in their philanthropic roles Leading Up centers around author Lilya Wagner's unique model which exemplifies the concept of leading up Here fundraisers will discover how to get things done when they're not in charge how to motivate others when they don't have formal authority how to convince or persuade their colleagues and superiors about their need for action and involvement and how to lead when they're not recognized leaders by virtue of power or position Focusing on problem solving concepts Leading Up is packed with thought provoking questions exercises and practical application steps that allow professionals to practice and implement the principles they've just learned The book also includes inspirational quotes on leadership from recognized and successful professionals and leaders Leadership qualities have to be learned and practiced by all who wish to achieve success in fundraising whether boss or not Leading Up provides readers with the groundwork they need to not only build up their causes and organizations but also influence a professional field that is still developing

Fundraising Management Adrian Sargeant, Elaine Jay, 2010-01-21 This comprehensive introduction to fundraising management provides a thorough grounding in the principles underpinning professional practice Much more than a how to guide the book critically examines the key issues in fundraising policy planning and implementation and introduces the most important management tools available to the modern fundraiser Fully revised and updated this new edition of Fundraising Management is packed with examples and case studies from around the world It covers every important aspect of the fundraising process including Planning Donor recruitment and development Community fundraising Corporate fundraising Legacy fundraising Trust and foundation fundraising Legal and ethical frameworks for fundraising This groundbreaking text has been designed primarily to support students studying for the Certificate in Fundraising Management offered by the Institute of Fundraising but is a useful text for all fundraising students and professionals

Engaging Youth in Philanthropy Bill Stanczykiewicz, 2003-05-21 Explores ways nonprofits can foster lifelong philanthropic habit in today's youth Editor Bill Stanczykiewicz president and CEO of the Indiana Youth Institute and contributors examine successful youth engagement programs that illustrate that philanthropy is a habit that can be demonstrated taught and inculcated at a very young age Programs discussed include a YMCA program encouraging civic activity among children with backgrounds in lower income communities and lower academic achievement which demonstrates that the instruction of philanthropic values and behaviors can transcend traditional qualifiers of income and education Contributors also present results of a four year study on college undergraduates who earn college scholarships that require recipients to participate in community service and show how they reveal increased philanthropic values these students in addition to other personal skills that benefit civic engagement and service to others Other aspects of youth philanthropy examined include the significant legal issues surrounding adolescents raising money for organizations youth serving on nonprofit boards and youth casting deciding votes on board matters The issue also includes an informative primer on youth and philanthropy that demonstrates how young people learn philanthropic behavior from several sectors within civil society including community foundations nonprofit organizations schools and government With insight from professionals in the field as well as the passionate voices of philanthropic youth themselves this issue illustrates how we must be actively engaged in the lives of children and youth in our families and in our communities not just to develop healthy habits of philanthropy but for their overall healthy development

Fundraising in Diverse Cultural and Giving Environments Robert E. Fogal, 2003-04-02 Bringing diverse cultural traditions into philanthropic fundraising can be rewarding for all parties involved Accomplishing that daunting task successfully is the theme of this issue Opening a constructive dialogue between theory and practice in philanthropic fundraising in diverse cultural and giving environments editor Robert E Fogal executive director of St Mary's Duluth Clinic Foundation is joined by contributing authors from the 2002 Think Tank on Fundraising at St Mary's College Notre Dame Indiana Exploring the topic from a variety of perspectives editor and authors seek a set of normative recommendations and findings that will promote a stronger philanthropic community and extend professional academic and public conversations about philanthropic issues Chapters examine trends in giving in African American Asian American Latino and Native American communities Pier C Rogers presents the results of structured interviews with African American philanthropic professional managers volunteer leaders and fundraisers for nonprofits and provides insight into values attitudes and practices in this community Janice Gow Petty addresses the theme of remittances in nonmajority immigrant families and explores ways that the majority culture can understand and engage this tradition to create new models of giving that successfully blend various and distinct methods of giving and sharing Mike Cortes examines common assumptions about the Hispanic community and illustrates the more specific geographical identities in that diverse Latino community that supersedes the term Similarly Kay C Peck reminds fundraising professionals that there is no single American Indian culture and stresses the importance of recognizing the history of cultural destruction as a prerequisite to understanding philanthropic traditions within the American Indian community Effects of race and gender on giving and volunteering are explored Presenting the results of a survey of 885 Indiana households a research team at the School of Public and Environmental Affairs Indiana University Purdue University Indianapolis examines these effects and tracks them across different survey methodologies used in eight past studies Findings from this study bring to light significant and surprising trends in giving and volunteering behaviors by race and gender Philanthropic fundraisers must also recognize emerging cultures Working at the Community Foundation Silicon Valley Barbara Larson explores the new philanthropy in the dot com world and reveals the breakdown of donor market categories in the face of the variety of options and vehicles for giving in this volatile constantly changing donor community Unexpected trends emerging in the wake of the Bush administrations initiatives to foster faith based engagement in social welfare through government funding must be recognized as well Director of Development for Catholic Near East Welfare Association Margaret Guellich examines some of the potential risks to mission integrity stewardship and donor erosion Thomas H Jeavons visiting fellow at the Yale University Program on Nonprofit Organizations at Yale Divinity School cautions against perceive faith based organizations as monolith social entities and demonstrates that the impact of the proposed government program is likely to be small What does the fundraising professional need to face these and other emerging challenges Roger C Hedgepeth principal consultant for CWC Hedgepeth Group asserts that fundraising and fundraising professionals are not prepared to deal with the cultural and social changes they face Instead they need to become boundary spanners characterized by uncommon professional skills that are supported by keen self awareness and multicultural literacy This volume is a crucial tool for philanthropic fundraisers committed to achieving that goal Hank Rosso's Achieving Excellence in Fund Raising Eugene R. Tempel, 2010-08-31 This thoroughly revised and updated edition of the classic book in the field provides a conceptual foundation for the fund raising profession Hank Rosso's Achieving Excellence in Fund Raising examines the profession's principles, strategies, and methods and is filled with practical examples Guided by the enduring philosophy of fund raising master Henry A. Rosso, contributors explain the reasoning behind the planning and selection of strategies for all fund raising activities including building your case for support, approaching donors, managing campaigns, and demonstrating stewardship Read a Charity Channel review <http://charitychannel.com> publish templates a 293 z 25

The Transformative Power of Women's Philanthropy Martha A. Taylor, 2006-05-05 Written for any development officer or woman looking to be more effective in her philanthropy and volunteer leadership, this issue explores how women's philanthropy has shaped the world The contributors, all experts in the field of women's philanthropy, examine leaders in the modern women's philanthropic movement and predict where the movement is headed The volume closes with five new initiatives and a call to action for women's philanthropy in this generation This is the 50th issue of New Directions for Philanthropic Fundraising, a journal published quarterly by Jossey-Bass, a Wiley imprint

ARNOVA Abstracts, 2001 Exploring the Relationship Between Volunteers and Fundraisers Rebecca E. Hunter, 2003-07-31 Are volunteers still relevant to the fundraiser's work If so for what reasons If not why not This issue looks atypically at volunteers and fundraising Contributing authors examine fewer of the how-tos of working with volunteers and more of the psychological and psychosocial aspects of volunteers and development professionals personalities The assessment extends to organizational characteristics evolutionary stage and size and the reasons that certain types of volunteers and fundraisers may be drawn to work with a particular nonprofit group Moving from broad concept to microcosm articles in this issue examine all aspects of volunteerism and the rise in professionalism in fundraising in recent years Bruce Bonnicksen addresses the new roles of volunteers in development highlighting both the changing reasons for working with volunteers and volunteer's shifting expectations of fundraising professionals Donald Zeilstra discusses a new paradigm for considering how professionals can work with and relate to volunteer fundraisers by implementing reciprocal learning in teams Contributors draw from research in the field for their analysis of volunteering and its relationship to fundraising Linda Lysakowski presents the volunteer's perspective with primary research drawn from 104 nonprofit fundraisers Another survey of 140 development officers provides issue editor Rebecca E Hunter the opportunity to analyze relationship building between volunteers and fundraising professionals Kenneth Knox examines volunteer recruitment training and management process in smaller organizations and presents a case study on the Medical Society Fundraising Network With a targeted survey of the top 25 small liberal arts colleges Jody Abzug and Rikki Abzug explore the specific roles of volunteers in fundraising efforts at that type of institution A final case study of Everybody Wins Foundation summarizes the issue s primary themes and presents views from both sides of the table with some volunteers actively engaged and others content to let the staff lead the charge

Fundraising and Institutional Advancement Noah D. Drezner, Frances Huehls, 2014-09-04 In this timely textbook authors Drezner and Huehls take the interdisciplinary complex nature of the study of philanthropy and fundraising and apply it to the field of higher education Covering issues of increasing importance to institutions including donor cultivation growth of fundraising at community colleges and minority institutions engagement of young alumni volunteerism and the competing roles of stakeholders this book helps readers apply theory to the practice of advancement in post secondary education Special Features Coverage of historical and theoretical underpinnings and insights from related literature and research Discussion of new donor populations including women communities of color the LGBTQ population students and young alumni On the ground case studies bring theories into focus by creating a bridge to experience and action Practical implications for the design of fundraising campaigns and strategies Guiding questions that encourage students to think beyond the current literature and practice This textbook bridges research theory and practice to help higher education administrators and institutions effectively negotiate the fundraising terrain and advance their institution Books In Print

2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Jewish Giving Jack Wertheimer, 2025-07-22 Evaluating Jewish donors over time The American Jewish philanthropic enterprise is unparalleled in scope dynamism and the diversity of funders and the causes they support Yet even as Jewish giving has been largely successful in responding with alacrity to emergencies it has been subjected to severe criticism What once was regarded as a point of pride has become the object of scorn and dismissal with skepticism if not harsh criticism about its work rife both within and outside Jewish communal circles Based on 320 interviews with professionals at Jewish not for profits across the United States principals of foundations and their top staff personnel and also tax filings of major foundations Jewish Giving provides readers with fresh perspectives to evaluate the efforts of Jewish donors large and small The book traces the evolution of Jewish giving from the colonial era to the present charting the changing profile of those who give to Jewish causes and what funders have aimed to achieve through their largesse It makes the case that philanthropy serves as a prism through which broader themes in communal life are illuminated As society or politics change the priorities of charitable giving adjust in response These changes in targeted funding can help to sharpen our understanding of demographic and social patterns Devoting much attention to twenty first century developments in contemporary Jewish giving the book pays special attention to the changing landscape of donors who are remaking Jewish philanthropy including women Orthodox Jews Sephardi givers and young funders Strategic Fund Development Simone P. Joyaux, 2001 This groundbreaking book now in its second edition offers important insights critical strategies and useful tools to enhance your organization's performance and raise more charitable contributions Joyaux challenges the fundraising profession to focus on organizational development rather than merely promoting fundraising technicians Joyaux integrates staff work with that of volunteers and demands a basic change in the way we do business Effectively Managing and Leading Human Service Organizations Ralph Brody, Murali Nair, 2013-11-21 Now in its Fourth Edition Effectively Managing and Leading Human Service Organizations continues to provide invaluable creative ideas for achieving managerial success Authors Ralph Brody and Murali Nair dissect and diagnose common workplace dilemmas offering current and future managers the skills to implement positive changes in organizations large and small Easy to read this book connects a conceptual framework and essential managerial practices with hundreds of real life examples and case studies of applied managerial skills in organizational settings Advancing Philanthropy , 2008
