Through the Arts Robert Baird Shuman,Denny T. Wolfe,1990 Maintaining that the arts are composing activities and like talking and writing powerful ways of making meaning this book discusses teaching English through the arts The book provides a brief theoretical and historical basis for its fundamental approach and presents 29 instructional strategies that classroom teachers who do not have special equipment materials or preparation in the arts can incorporate into their teaching The book is intended as a compact supplement a starter kit to be creatively adapted to specific classrooms to help students make stimulating connections between English and some of the arts they know best popular music film photography design drawing and painting and drama Following a brief discussion of the theoretical and research based support for their ideas the book presents 15 activities that focus on language dialects usage and structure semantics and etymology nine that focus on literature and five that focus on writing A 50 item bibliography concludes the book SR Research in Basic

Writing Martin Jacobi,Michael G. Moran,1990-02-15 This reference handbook surveys research on the central issue associated with the teaching of unprepared writers Though basic writing has only been recognized as a distinct area of teaching and research since 1975 the existing bibliographic texts already seem limited due to their age or lack of annotation This volume provides current and extensive bibliographic essays and will help to define this new field of study for teachers and researchers Following an introduction that summarizes the origins and significant texts in basic writing the book is divided into three sections Social Science Perspectives Linguistic Perspectives and Pedagogical Perspectives The first section which contains three essays views the field through the lens of social psychological and political issues The second section also containing three essays examines contributions made from studies of grammar dialects and second language acquisition The third section in its four essays focuses on the design development administration and evaluation of basic writing courses the use of computers in basic writing classrooms the role of the writing lab and the preparation of basic writing teachers An appendix that reviews current textbooks for basic writing courses is also included as well as an index This book will be a valuable resource for teachers of basic writing in education courses and workshops that train teachers and tutors and in fields such as linguistics technical writing and Teaching English as a Second Language It will also be an important addition to public and university libraries and many education programs
