The Ocean's Daughter Madison Wade, 2020-04-09 Fifteen year old Carter Ellen Key has lived her entire life on the waves traveling across oceans on the merchant ship known as the Adventurer a ship that she calls home Orphaned at age seven she held tight to the memories of her father and stories of her mother turning to them for advice even after their deaths The Adventurer's crew became Carter's family and Captain Rosten made it his personal duty to keep her safe This protection kept Carter from ever exploring the land or even sinking her feet into the sand that surrounded the ports The discoveries and mysteries that awaited her there remained in her daydreams As her position aboard the Adventurer climbed and her relationships with the crew began to strengthen her dream of discovering life on the land came within her grasp But this dream comes at a great cost It may even cost Carter her life or worse the lives of the ones she loves The fantasies in her books were just that fantasies The real world beyond her small merchant ship is crueler than anything she could imagine
