American Musical Theatre Gerald Martin Bordman, Richard Norton, 2010 Hailed as absolutely the best reference book on its subject by Newsweek American Musical Theatre A Chronicle covers more than 250 years of musical theatre in the United States from a 1735 South Carolina production of Flora or Hob in the Well to The Addams Family in 2010. Authors Gerald Bordman and Richard Norton write an engaging narrative blending history, critical analysis and lively description to illustrate the transformation of American musical theatre through such incarnations as the ballad opera, revue, Golden Age musical, rock musical, Disney musical and with 2010's American Idiot even the punk musical. The Chronicle is arranged chronologically and is fully indexed according to names of shows, songs and people involved for easy searching and browsing. Chapters range from the Prologue which traces the origins of American musical theater to 1866 through several intermissions for instance Broadway's Response to the Swing Era 1937-1942 and up to Act Seven the theatre of the twenty first century. This last chapter covers the dramatic changes in musical theatre since the last edition published whereas Fosse a choreography heavy revue won the 1999 Tony for Best Musical the 2008 award went to In the Heights which combines hip hop, rap, meringue and salsa unlike any musical before it. Other groundbreaking and/or box office breaking shows covered for the first time include Avenue Q, The Producers, Billy Elliot, Jersey Boys, Monty Python's Spamalot, Wicked, Hairspray, Urinetown the Musical and Spring Awakening. Discussion of these shows incorporates plot synopses, names of principal players, descriptions of scenery and costumes and critical reactions. In addition, short biographies interspersed throughout the text colorfully depict the creative minds that shaped the most influential musicals. Collectively these elements create the most comprehensive authoritative history of musical theatre in this country and make this an essential resource for students, scholars, performers, dramaturges and musical enthusiasts.
