Science Fiction, Fantasy & Horror ,1991 A comprehensive bibliography of books and short fiction published in the English language Dervall Hampton, A Story of the Sea, Volume 1 and Vol 2 Complete James Grant,2021-07-31 Excerpt There was an air of great refinement in both husband and wife an air that contrasted strongly and strangely with their plain attire and circumscribed dwelling Greville Hampton s face was dark in complexion aquiline in feature a very handsome face one quite warranted to claim the unmistakable admiration his wife had for it and yet it was not a pleasing one His brow was indicative of intellect and courage his lip shaded by a black moustache was indicative of a resolute will and firm purpose and his dark hazel eyes if stern and even gloomy in their normal expression could soften with a depth of affection when they dwelt on the face of Mary on the child that was playing at their feet or at the approach of a friend and showed that he had a warm heart under the crust in which he was wont to hide it Early disappointment great monetary losses and a wrong more real than fancied the loss of a title and patrimony had much to do with the latter and hence came the bitter expression that at times stole over his well formed mouth and the shadow that clouded a really handsome face
