La Please Jim Errigo, 2012-08-21 LA PLEASE is about two 18 year old boys from Queens New York who hitchhiked to California in the year 1972 These are some of the people places and escapades they encountered along the way Some of the characters they met were real characters The Diary of a Drifter Steven Roof, 2021-08-03 This book is about my life I crossed county sixteen times on foot on most of it and lived on the road for fifteen years eating wild edible plants and always leaving home with no money This book is more than just a book This book can save lives Say you have no family and no friends and you're homeless The knowledge in this book can save your life Of course you will have to be extremely careful if anyone ever tries to do this I urge anyone who reads my book to use this knowledge only if they are in trouble The reason for this book is to save people and open people's eyes to the drifter world a world most people only briefly hear about I'm letting the world know what these homeless world travelers go through in great detail It took me fifteen years to write this book because I kept getting rained on and my book kept getting ruined I'm proud to finally give the world The Diary of a Drifter

Driver, 1970 Ergonomics and Safety of Intelligent Driver Interfaces Y. Ian Noy, 2020-11-25 Even to the casual observer of the automotive industry it is clear that driving in the 21st century will be radically different from driving as we know it today Significant advances in diverse technologies such as digital maps communication links processors image processing chipcards traffic management and vehicle positioning and tracking are enabling extensive development of intelligent transport systems ITS Proponents of ITS view these technologies as freeing designers to re-define the role and function of transport in society and to address the urgent problems of congestion pollution and safety Critics on the other hand worry that ITS may prove too complex too demanding and too distracting for users leading to loss of skill increased incidence of human error and greater risk of accidents The role of human factors is widely acknowledged to be critical to the successful implementation of such technologies However too little research is directed toward advancing the science of human ITS interaction and too little is published which is useful to system designers This book is an attempt to fill this critical gap It focuses on the intelligent driver interface IDI because the ergonomics of IDI design will influence safety and usability perhaps more than the technologies which underlie it The chapters cover a broad range of topics from cognitive considerations in the design of navigation and route guidance to issues associated with collision warning systems to monitoring driver fatigue The chapters also differ in intent some provide design recommendations while others describe research findings or new approaches for IDI research and development Based in part on papers presented at a symposium on the ergonomics of in-vehicle human systems held under the auspices of the 12th Congress of the International Ergonomics Association the book provides an international perspective on related topics through inclusion of important contributions from Europe North America and Japan Many of the chapters discuss issues associated with navigation and route guidance because such systems are the most salient and arguably the most complex examples of IDI However the findings and research methodologies are relevant to other systems as well making this book of interest to a wide audience of researchers design engineers transportation authorities and academicians involved with the development or implementation of ITS

Paranormal Drivers Stephen Keck, 2018-04-17 A J O Conner and J J O Conner just graduated from Ohio University Intrigued by the hauntings at Ohio University they go on a round country trip in search of the most haunted road in each of the 48 contiguous states Not convinced that they will find much of anything they find out that they bit off more than they can chew when they realize that the stories myths and legends behind each of these roads are anything but mythical Their objective is to venture down the most haunted road in each state Their goal is simple survive 101 Projects for Your Porsche 911 996 and 997 1998-2008 Wayne R. Surf, Sex, and Psychedelics Alan Brown,2013-12-17 In early 1966 Alex finds himself out of school and a prime candidate to be drafted Like many people his age he is in the process of finding out who he is and what he wants from life Disillusioned by conventional social mores he adopts a fatalistic attitude and towards the draft as well as towards the accepted definitions of success and what constitutes a life well lived He goes surfing His journey takes him first to Mexico the Army Korea and back to California where the doors of perception continue to open Once out of the Army he sets out to hitchhike across the country in the middle of winter only to change his mind and head to Hawaii Silver Diaspora Christopher T. Rand,2014-09-26 At the outset the members of author Christopher T Rands family lived in a world of great wealth They were among the richest people in the United States But they then faced a dilemma compelled to choose between staying on in their ancestral world or keeping up with the times in the nation around them and integrating themselves into the American mainstream With each generation the pressure on these individuals to choose between escape or immersion into the society became more and more intense In Silver Diaspora Rand examines his familys roots in the northeastern United States and chronicles his journey through these times against the backdrop of the family history Embarking on a search of a better new world Rands parents leave the East Coast and land in California From here this memoir follows Rand through college at Berkeley travels abroad work in the petroleum industry and his experiences as a writer Describing the people places and experiences that impacted Rands life Silver Diaspora provides one mans insight into the world in the latter two thirds of the last century

Back to the Land in Silicon Valley Marlene Anne Bumgarner,2020-07-01 We all worked together Ate together Sang together Learned together We had a good life After living close to the natural cycles of the earth year after year good and not good we grew stronger and more resilient learned to manage our occasional conflicts with tolerance and love When Marlene Bumgarner and her husband moved to a rural plot of land in 1973 she thought of herself as simply a young mother seeking an affordable and safe place in which to raise her child By the time she left the land nearly a decade later she had written two books and a weekly newspaper column served as contributing editor to a national magazine a college instructor and a sought after public speaker Her natural food store The Morgan Hill Trading Post was the first one in her community Follow Marlene and her friends as they live on the land coping with the challenges of rural life as Silicon Valley evolves into the high tech center it is today and the world in which they live transforms itself culturally economically and politically Poets on the Road Maureen Owen, Barbara Henning, 2023-06-06

Calling to mind Basho's late life journeys through the backcountry of Japan two women poets in a well worn Honda hit the road for a legendary pilgrimage in a far flung pre pandemic landscape of American poetry Although a road trip across North American calls to mind Jack Kerouac's youthful meanderings of self discovery this reading tour was more in the manner of Basho's late life journeys through the backcountry of Japan The road trip was in a sense a pilgrimage of reengagement with their calling as poets and a chance to reacquaint with like minded friends old and new in a far flung landscape of American poetry Venues would include upscale bookstores coffee houses museums legendary used bookstores botanical gardens university classrooms art centers and artist coops in short a unique sampling of poetry environments tracing an arc across the Southern States the Southwest and up the West Coast before hooking back to the Rockies Framed as a personal challenge the poets hit the road much in the manner of itinerant preachers and musicians lodging at discount motels funky hostels Airbnbs and with friends along the way Adding a social media touch Maureen and Barbara created a blog of their tour so that friends family hosts and fellow poets might also share in their adventure from the Introduction by Pat Nolan

Home Is Where the Heart Is Even in a Chicken House Margaret Hoff, 2020-10-22 God Bless America My Home Sweet Home The Lord put on my heart to write Home Is Where the Heart Is Even in a Chicken House It goes back to the day I was born and my childhood days growing up days with my parents and living in a chicken house while my dad built a small three room house for us to live in Also the book talks about me being bullied in school I lived with my grandparents and my aunt on their farm in California for a while when I was a teenager My aunt is one year and nine months older than me and this also tells of the fun we had and the mischievous things that we did This is telling the way things were growing up in my time now called the old fashioned days houses cars games and how kids made their own fun I got married and had my own family and time went on to be happy times There were also heartaches that the Lord helped me through and healing different places where the Lord intervened and spoke to me in many ways I moved to Texas for eleven years and later on a ranch in South Dakota then later back to Ohio I needed to support myself and I started hauling Amish people and I had different experiences with them That was another fun time in my day The best is yet to come In the pages of this book I think you will laugh cry and most of all be blessed Weird New York: 101+ Offbeat Places Pasquale De Marco, 2025-05-08 Weird New
