Drugs And Prison:

Women, Drugs and Custody Margaret Malloch,2001-06-30 One of the UK s leading works on the problems faced by women drug users in prison in the UK and the tensions that this creates for the prison authorities and criminal justice system as a whole In constant demand ever since it was published and a key text for criminology courses The Use of Drugs in UK Prisons. A Policy Report Difrine Madara,2019-12-06 Essay from the year 2019 in the subject Law Criminal process Criminology Law Enforcement grade A Kenyatta University language English abstract This essay is concerned with the question of how the current drug problem in UK prisons can be understood in the light of the current effectiveness of the existing policies and punishments This report therefore focuses on three main aspects of the issue Firstly the author looks at the theoretical background of the existing punishments for criminal offenses such as drug smuggling or trade Secondly the author explores the extent of the current situation in the UK prison That is the author examines what makes it easier for prisoners in England and Wales to purchase funds where do they get funds and existence of policy failures Finally the author suggests effective ways of addressing the issue of drug use in UK prisons Drugs in Prison Steve Gravett,2000 This guide incorporating case studies provides information on drugs themselves as well as the methods prisons use to tackle drug misuse including reducing the supply and demand for drugs treatment programmes and Throughcare Prisons, Drugs and Society Co-operation Group to Combat Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking in Drugs (Pompidou Group),World Health Organization. Health in Prisons Project,Council of Europe,2002-01-01 The Conference on Prisons Drugs and Society was held in Bern from 20 to 22 September 200 The conference proceedings include 8 papers presented to the conference by delegates from different countries including Vivian Stern from the UK and Alexander Gunchenko from the Ukraine The report concludes with a consensus statement agreed by the conference on principles policy and practice Drugs in Prison Steve Gravett,2000 Drugs in Prison is an essential handbook for all those who work with prisoners as well as students of penal drugs policy Comprehensive and easy to use it provides up to date information on drugs drug misuse and drugs legislation outlines government and prison strategies for tackling drug misuse describes the various methods being used to combat drugs in prison reviews the effectiveness of these approaches and the performance of different establishments discusses future strategy and practice Also featured are extensive index a glossary and useful appendices case studies and checklists which serve to reinforce key learning points Tackling Drugs in Prison ,1998 Characterizing the HIV/AIDS Epidemic in the Middle East and North Africa Francisca Ayodeji Akala,Iris Semini,2010 Despite global progress in understanding the epidemiology of the human immunodeficiency virus HIV knowledge about the epidemic in the Middle East and North Africa MENA remains limited and subject to much controversy In the more than 25 years since the discovery of HIV no scientific study has provided a comprehensive data driven synthesis of the spread of HIV AIDS acquired immunodeficiency syndrome in the region Consequently the effectiveness of policies programs and resources intended to address the spread of HIV AIDS has been compromised This report aims to fill the knowledge gap by providing the first ever comprehensive scientific assessment and data driven epidemiological synthesis of HIV s spread in MENA It is based on a literature review and analysis of thousands of largely unrecognized publications reports and data sources extracted from scientific literature or collected from sources at the local national and regional levels The resulting collection of data provides a solid foundation on which efforts to stem the spread of HIV AIDS can be based Characterizing the HIV AIDS Epidemic in the Middle East and North Africa will be of particular interest to policy makers researchers development practitioners and specialists in public health and epidemiology

Drugs in Prison Steve Gravett,2000 Drugs in Prison is an essential handbook for all those who work with prisoners as well as students of penal drugs policy Comprehensive and easy to use it provides up to date information on drugs drug misuse and drugs legislation outlines government and prison strategies for tackling drug misuse describes the various methods being used to combat drugs in prison reviews the effectiveness of these approaches and the performance of different establishments discusses future strategy and practice Also featured are extensive index a glossary and useful appendices case studies and checklists which service to reinforce key learning points

Emerging Issues in Prison Health Bernice S. Elger,Catherine Ritter,Heino Stöver,2016-08-05 This volume recognizes and addresses the health care issues of prisoners to establish best practices and to learn about approaches to these challenges from around the world It presents new evidence on several emerging and classical prison health issues The first goal of this volume is to address emerging issues related to health in prison Second it presents the most recent research based evidence and translates it to the practice The third goal is that it allows for sufficient diversity while also incorporating updates of some important already recognized prison health The volume discusses prisons and the life and well being of prisoners and staff after growing problems as drug misuse incl tobacco smoking infectious diseases HIV AIDS hepatitis STIs and TB psychiatric problems inadequate and unhealthy living conditions incl nutrition overcrowding of prisons These are addressed adequately in order to meet the international requirements of equivalence of health care The scope of this volume is at the same type specific and diverse enough to cover the interests of a large audience that includes many types of practitioners involved in health related issues in the field of prison health care such as psychologists nurses and prison administration officers responsible for health care legal professionals and social workers

Life on Drugs in Iran Nahid Rahimpour Anaraki,2022-08-22 When they initiated a war on drugs in 1979 Iran developed a reputation as having some of the world s harshest drug penalties and as an opponent of efforts to reform global drug policy As mass incarceration failed to stem the growth of drug use Iran shifted its policies in 1990 to introduce treatment regimens that focus on rehabilitation While most Muslim countries and some Western states still do not espouse welfare oriented measures Iran has established several harm reduction centers nationwide through the welfare system for those who use substances In doing so Iran moved from labeling drug users as criminals to patients In Life on Drugs in Iran Anaraki moves beyond these labels to explore the lived experience of those who use and have used illicit substances and the challenges they face as a result of the state s shifting policies Gaining remarkable access to a community that has largely been ignored by researchers Anaraki chronicles the lives of current and former substance users in prisons treatment centers and NGOs In each setting individuals are criminalized medicalized and marginalized as the system attempts to normalize them without addressing the root cause of the problem Drawing upon first hand accounts Anaraki s groundbreaking study takes an essential step in humanizing people with substance abuse issues in Iran Drugs and Crime Facts ,1989 HIV/AIDS in Prisons DIANE Publishing Company,1995-09 As part of its work The Expert Committee on Aids in Prisons ECAP prepared this Final Report in which it addresses issues that HIV AIDS drug use raise in federal correctional institutions contains recommendations Analyses issues such as testing housing activities educational programs preventive measures for inmates protective measures for staff health care women inmates etc Drugs in Institutions United States. Gatherer,World Health Organization. Regional Office for Europe,2007 Based on the experience of many countries in the WHO European Region and the advice of experts this guide outlines some of the steps prison systems should take to reduce the public health risks from compulsory detention in often unhealthy situations to care for prisoners in need and to promote the health of prisoners and prison staff This requires that everyone working in prisons understand how imprisonment affects health what prisoners health needs are and how evidence based health services can be provided for everyone needing treatment care and prevention in prison Other essential elements are being aware of and accepting internationally recommended standards for prison health providing professional care with the same adherence to professional ethics as in other health services and while seeing individual needs as the central feature of the care provided promoting a whole prison approach to care and promoting the health and well being of people in custody Prison Violence Kate Gooch, 2025-07-02 This book analyses the nature causes logic and culture of prison victimisation in an English young offender institution for young men aged 18 21 years old Drawing on ethnographic and qualitative research this book offers a comprehensive analysis of the gendered situational individual and moral components of prison victimisation It explores how wider technological economic policy political and cultural changes have altered the texture and structure of prison life and prison violence and with what consequences Ultimately the book argues that high levels of prison violence are not inevitable Rather the prevention of prison violence requires a just lawful humane and hopeful environment and failing to create such is tragically life changing for young prisoners
