Once each summer a morning breaks that tastes of fall Despite a vault of unrelieved blue that promises equally unrelieved heat by late afternoon some patch of Canadian tundra has airmailed southward a precursor of the coming season full of sensory contradictions like a good red wine Tomorrow the Gulf will reassert itself drowning the message from the cooling North but for one morning the promise hangs there summoning ragged maddening memory snippets and the bewilderment appropriate to falsely anticipating what is irretrievably past Something about the harkening wind stitches a loop in time calling forth a history hindsight annually edits as the forces that inform the authorship of memories work their disclosures and distortions When fall really arrives it will bring to our semitropical savannah if not a genuine chill at least welcome relief from summer s stunning heat and the ordinary experiences of three months time school clothes to buy schedules to keep leaves to rake all burdened with the wet colorless stretches National Geographic never features It will bring too the evidence that local heroes and sweethearts belong to a new generation and that what once seemed unforgettable has been forgotten For these young people Stanley Roger Simmons is a plaque on the wall at the high school Jefferson Sands Mc Callister a face on a football trading card Charles Pendleton Drennan Jr a young trial lawyer just beginning to make a name for himself Few of them ever heard of Mark Jansen or Candy Atchison If they are unusually curious they may be able to attach faces to these names by poring over old newspaper clippings and some of the memorabilia in the school library but they can do no more The faces and the names lie on the pages and the story they tell is strange and sad but sooner or later the young readers say to themselves that it was a long time ago when things were really weird and they go about the human business of cropping their own memories from the profusion of detail that is everyday life Someday perhaps even now some few who by inclination or training tune themselves to the contrapuntal melody of the world will recognize a summer morning as a false autumn and taste its once and future character But that is all Only for me and for a few others whose victories and triumphs whose clumsy acts and blind omissions appear on or just behind those pages does that bright annual harbinger make the dead walk and fists clench helpless again as if that fall lived in time as truly as the crisp taste of its revenant rests a while in the backs of our throats before the rest of summer bums it gone again One such day arrived in August 1970 when I was sitting at my desk in the room I was to occupy my senior year in college I had returned to school early by special permission to get a head start on my honors thesis Before that day was done I had put away forever my notes for that project and begun another on which I wrote steadily for most of the year The result of those labors was the document that follows In the end my thesis advisor accepted it in lieu of my original project a gesture for which I was deeply grateful as it enabled me to graduate with my class He seemed to understand my need to write it and write it then not later In a sense he said I had delivered what I promised a work of history written from original sources And he invited me to consider the writer s dilemma shared by all who try to capture the truth when the sources are fresh so are the passions that warp judgment when time brings perspective the materials have frozen into shapes that like photographs show only one side and hoard their secrets always Another such day arrived today and as I have done so many times before I took the document from my drawer again and began to read The Freedom We Crave William Linters,1985 Hatch, Match, and Dispatch William Billow,2018-09-01 Being a priest is likened to being a shepherd People do from time to time need a poke here or a prod there But mostly they need to know someone is watching out for them Rev William Billow has been that gentle guiding hand for multiple communities across the nation but he is best known for his services in Washington DC from St Albans School to Washington Cathedral He practices the ministry of presence witnessing and overseeing the baptisms weddings and funerals of the members of his flocks As he moves from community to community his story does not fail to enlighten and inspire My Lord God Jesus Christ William Furr,2011-07-20 This book should shed new insight toward and beyond the dawning of ones life Questions should be answered and as many are answered others shall spark anew Nothing is as important as Jesus Christ our Lord The author pens his thoughts throughout the night and has been doing so for 40 years He asks Why me a thought that has compelled him throughout his days on this soil we call Planet Earth Drugstore Jesus Bert Copple,2004-10 drugstore jesus is a collection of Bert Copple s journal entries over a fourteen month period in which he quit his job rededicated his life to Christ lost sixty pounds and enlisted in the United States Army to serve both God and country as a chaplain s assistant Rediscover your child like faith and how a relationship with God can change your life A Passion for Christ Douglas D. Webster,2001 In this excellent work on Christology Douglas Webster demonstrates what can be done when one takes evangelical theology from a purely defensive stance to a creative honest and forward looking criticism of modern theologies His biblical seriousness and his pastoral concern make the book readable stimulating and edifying Change Your Habits, Change Your Life Danna Demetre,2009 Acting as a personal lifestyle coach Danna Demetre offers helps readers replace negative thoughts with healthier messages that move them toward being the person God designed them to be The Ecstasy of Loving God John Crowder,2018-12-01 Ecstasy or extasis is the Greek term for trance and is linked with a pleasurable God given state of out of body experience recorded throughout the New Testament and the church age Starting with the apostles ecstatic experiences on Pentecost the Book of Acts further records trances in the lives of Peter and Paul From the early church Hooked: Drug War Films in Britain, Canada, and the U.S. Susan C. Boyd,2010-09-13 Drug prohibition emerged at the same time as the discovery of film and their histories intersect in interesting ways This book examines the ideological assumptions embedded in the narrative and imagery of one hundred fictional drug films produced in Britain Canada and the U S from 1912 to 2006 including Broken Blossoms Reefer Madness The Trip Superfly Withnail and I Traffik Traffic Layer Cake Harold and Kumar Go to White Castle Trailer Park Boys and more Boyd focuses on past and contemporary illegal drug discourse about users traffickers drug treatment and the intersection of criminal justice with counterculture alternative and stoner flicks She provides a socio historical and cultural criminological perspective and an analysis of race class and gender representations in illegal drug films This illuminating work will be an essential text for a wide range of students and scholars in the fields of criminology sociology media gender and women s studies drug studies and cultural studies The Man who Wasn't There Roderick MacLeish, 1976 What We've Forgotten Amy Miranda, 2025-03-10 What We've Forgotten is an ancient text for modern times that promises to undermine systems of oppression through the power of wonder and magic available to us all Meeting at the intersection of social justice technology and witchery it's magic book for the tech world that takes readers on an active quest through the cosmos of consciousness Shining new light on the old ways What We've Forgotten is a choose your own adventure book of real magic Amy Miranda leads readers through a Temple of Wonder in an active meditation where each chapter is a different room Amy takes us through portals in the cosmos of consciousness most of us have forgotten to reconnect us all into the deep magic of life Unlike most books on magic What We've Forgotten recreates the mystery and adventure of deep journey work leading readers to their deepest memories and hidden truths Amy Miranda is not your usual witch unless your witch quotes Public Enemy while communing with ascended masters Amy always knew she was a magician just not the kind that pulled rabbits out of hats rather the kind that invited people down the rabbit hole In What We've Forgotten that invite is extended to us all creating a literary VR experience where readers will remember their very own magic In this heartbreaking and hilarious work Amy shares the historical scientific she will definitely take readers to Nerdtown and cultural traditions which ground the work of cosmic consciousness and its interdimensional exploration Through this experience readers will not only have the opportunity to engage with their own cosmic consciousness but begin to see that our world can achieve collective liberation not only through the disengagement with systems of oppression but through the re engagement of wonder and enchantment that lives within us all Amy Miranda is relentless in her revealing of the power of art written word and fact freeing people from the chains of The Uninvited This book connects us Chuck D Public Enemy In her brilliant book What We've Forgotten Amy Miranda invites you to join her into a temple of remembering The book takes us back into the adventure and ceremonies that hold the promise of how we can bring in magic and the goodness of life What a beautiful way to work Amy Miranda will inspire you to engage in spiritual practices so you can see the illusion we have been living in and with the assistance of spiritual practices we achieve collective liberation a deep connection with nature and a renewed love for life What We've Forgotten will change readers lives and is such an important book for the times we live in as we learn how to heal ourselves enliven our connection with Nature and connect with Source This book is like a guided tour leading readers to their deepest wonders and hidden treasures And it is also beautifully written Amy's challenging beginnings ended up polishing her soul and spirit so she could be a leader for these times Sandra Ingerman MA Counseling Psychology international shamanic teacher and an award winning author of 12 books including Medicine for the Earth and The Book of Ceremony What We've Forgotten is a deeply personal and dare I say it truly fun exploration of magic and mysticism Amy s sparkling wit and down to earth explanations provide an optimistic friendly engaging DIY guide to working with the magical realities both outside and within each of us Michael M Hughes author of Magic for the Resistance Rituals and Spells for Change Reading Amy Miranda s book is like having a deep talk over tea on a rainy afternoon with a dear friend Her wisdom and experience shine through on the page An absolute must read Heather Matarazzo Actress Writer Human Being Official Gazette Philippines,1980 I'm Glad I'm a Mom Hearts at Home,2008 Moms who have chosen to invest their time at home are often asked What do you do all day Hearts at Home offers 50 answers to that very question through real life stories by Liz Curtis Higgs Jill Briscoe Julie Barnhill and 47 others These stories showcase the triumphs and trials of everyday moms Sometimes hysterical and sometimes heartwarming these personal vignettes will connect the hearts of mothers and give them a sense of community with one another Day after day stay at home moms work to make their house a haven for those they love and husbands and children may depend on mom more than they realize These stories will encourage inspire and delight mothers as they see again in these pages the special importance of their role in their home Amazing Grace, John 1:17 Grace Ramsey,2012-06-05 This is a true story about the salvation found through accepting Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior the glory of God and learning the meaning of the Holy Word of God It is about how I was saved by the Grace of God through His revelation and that the path to eternal salvation is through Jesus God does not look at our imperfections but through the perfection of what Jesus has done on Calvary in love faith and hope This message is to all who are struggling with the events of their lives We all face unpleasant events in our lives from financial problems marital issues and children gone astray and so on Jesus teaches us our battles are not flesh and blood but are spiritual Through prayer hope and accepting Jesus into our lives each one of us will experience our own victories The divine love God has for us will lead us and guide our hearts and souls into the arms of Jesus Christ Satan will attempt to confuse us He will try to divide and conquer us By accepting Jesus Christ you will always have an ally in the battle and in the end Satan will lose I pray through my faith in Jesus Christ that you will find the answers to all your struggles I hope and pray that by sharing my personal experiences the struggles and battles that I have faced and I am facing to this day that it will give comfort to know that there is no depth no height and no darkness that can keep you from the destiny of Gods call in your life Christ-Centered Leadership David L. McKenna,2013-05-09 If a leader is a Christian what difference does it make Giant strides have been made in secular leadership theory toward a Christian viewpoint Priority is now given to character as well as competence accountability as well as power transformation as well as transaction and servanthood as well as success But these qualities apply to secular as well as to Christian leadership So the question remains What difference does it make David McKenna finds the answer in the Incarnation of Jesus Christ a divine act for him and a defining attitude for us Philippians 2 11 15 sets the standard and gives the details Your attitude should be the same as Jesus Christ means following his call to the cross where we die to self and sacrifice all self interest in position power and prestige in order to serve obediently faithfully and humbly for the good of others and the glory of God Christ centered leadership is not an extension of the highest and best of human leadership Radical obedience to the call of Christ and utter dependence upon the Holy Spirit make a substantive difference In the most practical terms Incarnation continues in us when we live fully lead freely and go where he wants us to go All are Witnesses Delores Friesen,1996
