Hofkritik im Licht humanistischer Lebens- und Bildungsideale Klaus Schreiner, Ernst Wenzel, 2011-10-14 Royal and princely courts in the late Middle Ages and Early Modern period did not only fill the roles of centers of government The striving for a synthesis between power and the mind made courts into sites of art and literature of instruction and education Sons of nobles learned at court not only the use of weapons but also reading writing and arithmetic Jousting gave young knights the opportunity to test their weapons skills and horsemanship Moreover festivities were a part of court life and feasts were celebrated extravagantly Those nobles who lived as knights as well as the academically educated bourgeois used royal and princely courts as opportunities for assuring their professional careers and for social advancement The reality of the social and ruling fabric of the court included in the late Middle Ages and Early Modern period some rough criticism from those eloquent contemporaries who branded the court as a morally corrupt place of vices Church reformers brought the courtly lifestyle and the Christian ethic into irreconcilable contrast How Enea Silvio Piccolomini the humanist occupying the seat of St Peter in Rome and Ulrich von Hutten the knightly poet perceived criticized and justified courtly life is the subject of this book

Christliche Ethik bei Schleiermacher - Christian Ethics according to Schleiermacher Hermann Peiter, 2010-04-09 No one is so intimately acquainted with Schleiermacher's Christian Ethics material or with the 1821 1822 first edition of his companion volume Christian Faith than Hermann Peiter The present volume is a collection of Peiter's nineteen essays and thirty reviews Extensive English summaries are offered for all this material and an English version for four of the essays Professor Peiter's summary of this volume reads as follows This book treats of praxis in the Christian life and of Christian responsibility for the world we have in common The following however forms a background for these considerations Schleiermacher reminds his Christian brethren who often deck themselves out with alien borrowed plumes from morals and metaphysics of their actual theme that of religion which he also designates as a kind or mode of faith Like Luther he also turns against both the practical misconception that considers faith itself to be a good work and the theoretical misconception that faith is a product of thinking a theory Whether a practitioner thinks to give thanks for one's own work or whether a theoretician hopes to find final fulfillment and justification in one's range of metaphysical ideas amounts to the same thing Faith is the courage to be Paul Tillich For Schleiermacher to want to have speculation thus metaphysics and praxis without religion is the nonsalutary intention of Prometheus who faintheartedly stole what he could have expected to possess in restful security If taken seriously the gods to use that pagan expression for once are that nature to which a human being belongs Each human being is their possession When one steals what the gods have one steals oneself can thank oneself for a robbery For a gift that is stolen one cannot possibly be thankful Only a pure gift awakens true joy A human being has the chance to receive the gift that one is or is not in case it is stolen not from a thief but from religion Thanks to one's birth both physical and spiritual one gains oneself and has oneself To steal means to take away to depreciate In contrast whoever has oneself from elsewhere is no longer extracted from oneself or from the one to whom one belongs Deutsche Rundschau Rudolf Pechel,1886 Ἡ Καινὴ Διαθήκη.
