Gods and Mountains Kesar Lall,1991 Nepal Tourism eBook GURMEET SINGH DANG, Nepal Hans Johannes Hoefer,1984 Bibliography of Nepalese Art Jagdish Chandra,1980 International Labor Migration and Livelihood Security in Nepal Knerr, Beatrice,2017-07-11 As measured by its per capita income Nepal is one of the poorest countries in the world with large parts of its population trapped in poverty within a stunning but difficult to control natural environment Under these conditions since the wake of the 21st century international labour migration and the associated remittances of large amounts of foreign exchange have rapidly gained influence on the country s economic and social development triggered by internal disturbances in particular economic downturn and political upheavals as well as external dynamics which boosted an uprising international demand for unskilled labour While there is hardly any basic dissent about the short to mid term

Positive growth effect for Nepal's economy surprisingly little is known about the consequences of this form of livelihood security at the individual household level apart from some anecdotal evidence although neither policy makers nor NGOs may effectively craft their strategies without considering this phenomenon This book was developed from an Alumni Workshop held in Kathmandu in 2015 where focusing on this knowledge gap wide ranging original research about the consequences of family members absence and the receipt of remittances was presented Moving on from this starting point the authors further elaborated their work to make it accessible to a broader public and exploitable as a resource for policy making and follow up research In addition this volume includes detailed facts and figures about outmigration from and inflow of remittances to Nepal With a view to long term development implications of international migration it also considers the gain of knowledge and access to international academic networks brought into the country by returned scholars The editor of the volume B atrice Knerr is a professor of development economics affiliated to the University of Kassel Germany where until 2015 she was heading the Department of Development Economics Migration and Agricultural Policy DEMAP Afterwards she has served as guest professor at the Universidad Autonoma de Yucatan UADY in Merida Mexico and at the College of Economics of Hue University Vietnam Presently she is on contract with the Brawijaya University of Malang Indonesia where she is joining research projects on rural development and teaching various modules in the Economics Faculty As an expert in the implications of labour migration on the development of low to middle income countries she has published and edited around 30 books and 100 journal articles and book chapters

International Journal of Afro-Asian Studies, 2011-02-11 Great Himalaya Trail Gerda Pauler, 2013-11-07 The Great Himalaya Trail is one of the longest and highest trails in the world It is a trail that winds for 1700 kilometres through Nepal across the roof of the world over ice covered passes crossing high mountain deserts and through some of the most remote areas on earth This path is perhaps the ultimate walk In 2012 Himalaya veteran Gerda Pauler set out to walk the length of the trail to raise awareness of autism in Nepal Travelling across the country with open eyes and ears ascending high passes visiting isolated villages and drinking tea with the locals allowed her to see and hear things many of us might never hear never experience and never know Beautifully written like many great travel books and with a foreword by Sir Chris Bonington this is so much more than a travel diary it is a collection of stories from the very heart of Nepal and its people From Tibetan tea and local beer to corrupt politicians and child marriage cold nights and monsoon rain to incredible views and searing heat and from angry yaks and giant spiders to Mr Bean and Jack Nicholson Her book is not about her but about this trip across the roof of the world done both for her own pleasure and for those who suffer from autism Sir Chris Bonington South Asian Studies ,1979 South Asian Studies : a Biannual Journal on South Asian Affairs ,1979
