Dancing the Tao Sandra J.

Lindow,2012-11-15 Dancing the Tao Le Guin and Moral Development takes an original approach to Ursula K Le Guin's work speculative fiction poetry and children's literature by considering her Taoist upbringing and then looking through the lens of moral development theorists such as Carol Gilligan and Mary Field Belenky and psychologists such as Lenore Terr and Jennifer J Freyd It is the most comprehensive approach to Le Guin's moral thinking to date A particular emphasis is put on Le Guin's depiction of physical and sexual child abuse and its long term aftereffects such as post traumatic stress disorder The focus throughout the book is on how morality develops through self awareness and voice how moral decisions are made and how Le Guin challenges readers to reconsider their own moral thinking This book covers all of Le Guin's major works such as

The Left Hand of Darkness The Dispossessed the Earthsea Series Always Coming Home The Telling and Lavinia and it also looks in depth at work that is rarely discussed such as Le Guin's early work her poetry and her picture books Fantasy Richard Mathews, 2016-01-29 Using a broad definition of fantasy to include myth folklore legend and fairy tale this survey of the genre will entice as well as inform any student interested in the mysterious mystical or magical Beloved authors like J R R Tolkien Ursula K Le Guin William Morris and Robert E Howard are examined closely Writing Fantasy and Science Fiction Brian Stableford, 2012-01-24 Although the problems of writing fantasy and science fiction include all those pertaining to the writing of any kind of fiction particular problems arise in stories in which unprecedented things can and do happen as well as stories that often involve unhuman characters of various sorts and that might require the elaborate design of entire imaginary worlds This book provides an elementary introduction to problems of those kinds and the ways in which they modify the general problems of writing fiction It also suggests strategies that might enable the problems to be handled constructively and productively The author has published more than seventy novels in the field more than twenty short story collections and more than twenty related works of non fiction he has as the saying goes been there done that and chewed his t shirt in relevant frustration Robert Reginald says An absolutely first rate guide to writing fantastic literature Stableford has much to say that potential writers of ALL fiction might find valuable interesting and highly illuminating His reasonable discussion and dissection of the basic issues facing authors of creative fiction and the solutions to be found to each problem are dollops of solid gold advice in this editor's humble opinion Every would be author should read this book and more than once Cold Warriors Suzanne Clark, 2000 Cold Warriors Manliness on Trial in the Rhetoric of the West returns to familiar cultural forces the West anticommunism and manliness to show how they combined to suppress dissent and dominate the unruliness of literature in the name of a national identity after World War II Few realize how much the domination of a white male American literary canon was a product not of long history but of the Cold War Suzanne Clark describes here how the Cold War excluded women writers on several levels together with others African American Native American poor men as well as women who were ignored in the struggle over white male identity Clark first shows how defining national individual American identity in the Cold War involved a brand new configuration of cultural history At the same time it called upon the nostalgia for the old discourses of the West the national manliness asserted by Theodore Roosevelt to claim that there was and always had been only one real American identity By subverting the claims of a national identity Clark finds many male writers risked falling outside the boundaries not only of public rhetoric but also of the literary world men as different from one another as the determinedly masculine Ernest Hemingway and the antiheroic storyteller of the everyday Bernard Malamud Equally vocal and contentious Cold War women writers were unwilling to be silenced as Clark demonstrates in her discussion of the work of Mari Sandoz and Ursula Le Guin The book concludes with a discussion of how the silencing of gender race and class in Cold War writing maintained its discipline until the eruptions of the sixties By questioning the identity politics of manliness in the Cold War context of persecution and trial Clark finds that the involvement of men in identity politics set the stage for our subsequent cultural history
