Outrageous Fortune Joe Cleary,2007 Did Ireland produce a more radical and ambitious literature in the straitened circumstances of the first half of the twentieth century than it has managed to do since it began to modernize and become more affluent from the 1960s onwards Has Irish modernism ceded place to a prevailing naturalism that seems gritty and tough minded but that is aesthetically conservative and politically self thwarted Does the fixation with de Valera's Ireland in recent narrative represent a necessary settling of accounts with a dark abusive history or is it indicative of a worrying inability on the part of Irish artists and intellectuals to respond to the very different predicaments of the post Cold War world These are some of the questions addressed in Outrageous Fortune Scanning literature theatre film and music Joe Cleary probes the connections between capital culture and criticism in modern Ireland He includes readings of James Joyce and the Irish modernists the naturalists Patrick Kavanagh John McGahern and Edna O'Brien and comments too on what he terms the neo naturalism of Marina Carr Patrick McCabe and Martin McDonagh He concludes with a provocative analysis of the cultural achievement of the Pogues

The Nation in British Literature and Culture Andrew Murphy,2023-08-10 The Nation and British Literature and Culture charts the emergence of Britain as a political social and cultural construct examining the manner in which its constituent elements were brought together through a process of amalgamation and conquest The fashioning of the nation through literature and culture is examined as well as counter narratives that have sought to call national orthodoxies into question Specific topics explored include the emergence of a distinctively national literature in the early modern period the impact of French Revolution on conceptions of Britishness portrayals of empire in popular and literary fiction popular music and national imagining the marginalisation and oppression of particular communities within the nation The volume concludes by asking what implications an extended set of contemporary crises have for the ongoing survival both of the United Kingdom both as a political unit and as a literary and cultural point of identity

Men Alone Jopi Nyman, 2022-02-28 This study examines masculinity and individualism in four American novels of the 1920s and 1930s usually regarded as belonging to the genre of hard boiled fiction The novels under study are Red Harvest by Dashiell Hammett The Postman Always Rings Twice by James M Cain They Shoot Horses Don t They by Horace McCoy and To Have and Have Not by Ernest Hemingway In this first full length study of gender in hard boiled fiction the genre is discussed as a representation of the ideologies of masculinity and individualism Hard boiled fiction is located in its historical and cultural context and it is argued that the genre with its explicit emphasis on masculinity and masculine virtues attempts to reaffirm a masculine order The study argues that this emphasis is a counter reaction to more general changes in the gender relations of the period Indeed hard boiled fiction is argued to be an attempt to reconstruct a masculine identity based on anti modern values generally accepted in the cultural context of the genre

Gendered (Re)Visions Marion Gymnich, Kathrin Ruhl, Klaus Scheunemann, 2010-11-17 In academic as well as in public debates audiovisual media have often been accused of perpetuating gender stereotypes and of confronting viewers time and again with traditional role models and binary concepts of masculinity and femininity In recent years films television series and music videos increasingly have shown women and men who transgress the traditional gender dichotomy One of the central ideas behind this volume is the attempt to bring together explorations of gendering in different audiovisual media The contributions seek to explore in particular shifting constructions of femininity and masculinity and aim to provide further insight into the media and genre specific ways of constructing perpetuating and challenging gender concepts in audiovisual media taking into consideration the interplay of the different levels on which gendering occurs in them Thus two articles in the present volume address the processes of constructing perpetuating and challenging notions of femininity and masculinity in music videos while other contributions are dedicated to the analysis of gendering in films and or TV series

The Future of Decline Jed Esty, 2022-05-31 As the US becomes a second place nation can it shed the superpower nostalgia that still haunts the UK The debate over the US s fading hegemony has raged and sputtered for 50 years glutting the market with prophecies about American decline Media experts ask how fast we will fall and how much we will lose but generally ignore the fundamental question What does decline mean What is the significance in experiential and everyday terms in feelings and fantasies of living in a country past its prime Drawing on the example of post WWII Britain and looking ahead at 2020s America Jed Esty suggests that becoming a second place nation is neither disastrous as alarmists claim nor avoidable as optimists insist Contemporary declinism often masks white nostalgia and perpetuates a conservative longing for Cold War certainty But the narcissistic lure of lost greatness appeals across the political spectrum As Esty argues it resonates so widely in mainstream media because Americans have lost access to a language of national purpose beyond global supremacy It is time to shelve the shopworn fables of endless US dominance to face the multipolar world of the future and to tell new American stories The Future of Decline is a guide to finding them

Making Strangers: Outsiders, Aliens and Foreigners Abbas Maazaoui, 2019-04-05 Studies on foreignness have increased substantially over the last two decades in response to what has been dubbed the migration refugee crisis Yet they have focused on specific areas such as regions periods ethnic groups and authors Predicated on the belief that this so called twenty first century problem is in fact as old as humanity itself this book analyzes cases based on both long term historical perspectives and current occurrences from around the world Bringing together an international group of scholars from Australia Asia Europe and North America it examines a variety of examples and strategies mostly from world literatures ranging from Spain s failed experience with consolidation as a nation state type entity during the Golden Age of Castile to Shakespeare s rhetorical subversion of the language of fear and hate to Mario Rigoni Stern s random status at the unpredictable Italian Austrian borders to Lawrence Durrell s ambivalent approach to noticing the physically visible other to the French government s ongoing criminalization of hospitality to Sandra Cisneros s attempt at straddling two countries and cultures while belonging to neither one to the illusive legal limbo of the DREAMers in the United States We are not born foreigners we are made The purpose of the book is to assert as denoted by the title this fundamental premise that is the making of strangers is the result of a deliberate and purposeful act that has social political and linguistic implications The ultimate expression of this phenomenon is the compulsive labeling of people along artificial categories such as race gender religion birthplace or nationality A corollary purpose of the book is to help shed light worldwide on one of the most pressing issues facing the world today the place of the other amid fear mongering and unabashedly contemptuous acts and rhetoric toward immigrants refugees and all those excluded within because of race gender national origin religion and ethnicity As illustrated by the examples examined in this book humans have certainly evolved in many areas dealing with the other might not have been one of those It is hoped that the book encourages reflection on how the arts and especially world literatures can help us navigate and think through the ever present crisis the place of the stranger among us

Scouting for Boys Robert Baden-Powell, 2024-05-08 A Scout is a Friend to all An amalgam of imperial myth borrowed tips on health and hygiene and object lessons in woodcraft the 1908 text of Robert Baden Powell s Scouting for Boys is the original blueprint and self instructor of the Boy Scout Movement One of the all time bestsellers in the English speaking world this primer of yarns and pictures constitutes probably the most influential manual for youth ever published Yet the book is at the same time a roughly composed hodge podge of jingoist lore and tracker legend padded with lengthy quotations from adventure fiction and Baden Powell s own autobiography and seamed through with the multiple anxieties of its time fears of degeneration concerns about masculinity and self restraint and invasion paranoia Elleke Boehmer s edition of Scouting for Boys reprints the original text and illustrations and her fine introduction investigates a book that has been cited as an authority by militarists and pacifists capitalists and environmentalists alike

Outlandish English Subjects in the Victorian Domestic Novel T. Carens, 2005-10-19 Victorian domestic novels routinely detect a savage otherness lurking within the English state and subject Outlandish English Subjects in the Victorian Domestic Novel charts the development of this irony within evangelical and anthropological discourses and studies its emergence in the major works of Charles Dickens Charlotte Bront Wilkie Collins and George Meredith Each of these writers disrupts the certitudes of imperial ideology by appropriating the language of ethnography and using it to describe the social domestic field Providing fresh readings of both canonical and neglected novels this original volume will be of interest to students and scholars of Nineteenth Century literature and Postcolonial studies
