Book of the Earth & Sky Richard Grossinger, 1971 Finding Home: Earth, Sky, Ocean, Spirit Carol Thomas, 2012-01-30 About The Book Finding Home Earth Sky Ocean Spirit This book of poems new and selected has been years in the making Nearing a seventieth decade one is reminded of Leonard Cohens admonition to make a record of ones life Adrienne Rich suggests that one finds the deepest truths of a womans life in her poetry poetry that draws from and illuminates her autobiography Its language is precocious and uncanny in its efforts to explicate the nature of her lived experience I have taught creative writing in a number of contexts with troubled adolescents in colleges and universities in a womans prison and with patients and clients in my own private practice in New London Connecticut It was always the journaling that revealed and explicated the individuals trauma and allowed them to move to what might be called a quotidian delight which they had not been able to find before that life might hold a quotidian ecstasy was a new and wondrous idea to them and one they could find access to The earth sky ocean spirit and their own embodied and ensouled selves were the means to their own connectedness to the universe Human language began with womans singing her music her natural response to giving life and perceiving the plenitude around her A mother murmuring vowels and consonants soft language of warmth comfort and tenderness There is reason to believe that at one time on the island of Crete long ago there was a woman centered culture in which the values of nurturing living in harmony with the natural world using a language that emerged from this matrix Warriors came the earlier culture was destroyed and the language reflected the new and violent warring culture The new patriarchal lexicon focused on the lived experience of the men It concerned power victory defeat and death It was literal denotative as opposed to connotative it was didactic hierarchical and dismissive of the language and life of the womans perspective It would seem that in contemporary American culture the exclusion of what we might call poetic language that is language that expresses the truth and affects of the human being has become obsolete replaced by patriarchal language ubiquitous in the political violence of the day and the seeming waning of what we thought was an American way of life These poems attempt to illuminate a womans experience of her world They further attempt to suggest the need for Whitmans notion of the need for an increasingly capacious imagination Perhaps men are not from Mars and women from Venus Adrienne Rich suggests there is hope for a common language more in harmony with the truth reality and ambiguity of the natural world And perhaps after all even with the angst and anxiety of living in this world we are all poets

soul searching people all of whom experience quotidian ecstasymoments of the pure joy of living mystery and incomprehensibleness bringing delight and clarity affirming and confirming the wondrous miracle of our lives and society has been a central concern of Taoism from its ancient beginnings which is perhaps why certain Taoist classics like Sun Tzu s Art of War are so often consulted these days for leadership advice This anthology presents a wide range of texts revealing the processes of integrating personal spirituality with social responsibility central to Taoist tradition across the centuries and throughout the schools There are a wealth of approaches to life in the world presented here but at the heart of each is an understanding that even a mystic must be socially responsible and that self cultivation is primary

Hardy,2011-02-23 How sacred sites amplify the energies of consciousness the earth and the universe Examines the web of geometrical patterns linking sacred sites worldwide with special focus on the sacred network of ley lines in Paris Unveils the coming state of shared consciousness for humanity fueled by the sacred network Reveals how consciousness is a tangible form of energy First marked by the standing stones of our megalithic ancestors the world s sacred sites are not only places of spiritual energy but also hubs of cosmic energy and earthly energy Generation upon generation has recognized the power of these sites with the result that each dominant culture builds their religious structures on the same spots the Cathedral of Notre Dame in Paris for example was constructed over a Temple to Diana that in turn had been built over a stone pillar worshipped by the Gauls In The Sacred Network Chris Hardy shows how the world s sacred sites coincide with the intersections of energetic waves from the earth s geomagnetic field and how via their megaliths temples and steeples these sites act as antennae for the energies of the cosmos Delving deeply in to Paris s sacred network she also explores the intricate geometrical patterns created by the alignments of churches and monuments such as pentagrams and Stars of David Revealing that consciousness is a tangible energy she explains how the sacred network is fueling an 8 000 year evolutionary cycle initiated by our megalithic ancestors that will soon culminate in a new state of shared consciousness for humanity Weather Matters Bernard Mergen,2008 A

Ghilea,2018-09-02 Once upon a time I dreamed I was a butterfly This is how Chuang Tzu s famous anecdote begins It is a short parable about the relativity of perception written more than two thousand years ago Many of us have experienced similar situations and wondered at times if we could tell dreams from reality Butterfly s Dream expands Chuang Tzu s story into a surreal quest of adventure romance and self discovery at the end of the 18th century Despite the fantasy like atmosphere the novel accurately follows the laws of physics and would best fit into the hard sci fi category Alberto is the second lieutenant on Excelsior a military brig involved mostly on sea patrolling missions He has a keen interest in science and a mind inclined towards exploration and introspection Most of his sailing trips are uneventful with his ship transporting troops and ammunition to various locations managed by the navy But things are about to change When the ship encounters a magnetic storm the crew members find themselves sailing in uncharted waters The next day Excelsior casts anchor at the pier of a mysterious city that doesn t seem to be located on Earth Soon Alberto becomes involved in complex events that make him question the surrounding reality and even his sanity The fabulous world he gets to explore looks nothing like the world from his space and time And what are space and time after all In this place so different from Earth Alberto meets Nivit a beautiful and accomplished physician and falls in love with her Soon they are swept into an unexpected journey of adventure and self discovery that carries them through stranger and stranger realms and realities Can the rational mind defy the irrational Can love defend against extreme weather and death Does time always flow in the same direction What is real What is a dream A mirror reflecting itself What would it show A mirror reflecting another mirror What would it see Look inside the mirror open the door step onto the path stretching beyond its surface and you might find out Are you ready If you enjoy reading this story I have a favor to ask Please write a review about it and recommend it to your friends But only if you like it
