Dreams Of Glory The Sources Of Apocalyptic Terror:

Dreams of Glory Richard K. Fenn, 2016-05-13 Islam Judaism and Christianity are engaged not in a clash of civilizations but in a sectarian conflict among branches of a single civilization traditionally steeped in apocalyptic imagery and beliefs Apocalypticism is a religious luxury that modern civilizations can no longer afford Many would agree that the propagandists of the Christian Right have raised apocalyptic tensions to a dangerous level since 9 11 but in this book Richard Fenn takes on the mainline church leaders for their role in promoting an apocalyptic view of history Those who keep apocalyptic beliefs in a respectable place in religious faith and practice must bear their share of responsibility for global terror It is not only tragic but ironic that the churches have given apocalyptic literature such a respectable place in their sacred texts because the apocalyptic imagination itself has its sources in non Biblical literature the Hellenistic prophecies that gave comfort and courage to the victims of war in the near and middle east from the time of Alexander the Great and Darius Fenn goes on to hold apocalyptic enthusiasts in the mainline churches as well as on the Right responsible for keeping old grievances alive in their demands for a day of final reckoning and he demonstrates that totalitarian and imperial regimes have made effective use of apocalyptic literature to justify their own violence and to terrify their subjects and enemies Delusions of Grandeur

Joey Franklin, 2020-10 In Delusions of Grandeur Joey Franklin examines the dreams and delusions of America's most persistent mythologies including the beliefs in white supremacy and rugged individualism and the problems of toxic masculinity and religious extremism as they reveal themselves in the life of a husband and father fast approaching forty With prose steeped in research and a playful lyric attention to language Franklin asks candid questions about what it takes to see clearly as a citizen a parent a child a neighbor and a human being How should a white father from the suburbs talk with his sons about the death of Trayvon Martin What do video games like Fortnite and Minecraft reveal about our appetites for destruction Is it possible for Americans to celebrate bootstrap pioneer history while also lamenting the slavery that made it possible How does the American tradition of exploiting cheap labor create a link between coal mining and plasma donation in southeast Ohio Part cultural critique part parental confessional Delusions of Grandeur embraces the notion that the personal is always political and reveals important if sometimes uncomfortable truths about our American obsessions with race class religion and family

Evangelical Millennialism in the Trans-Atlantic World, 1500-2000 C. Gribben, 2015-12-04 This book offers the first complete overview of the intellectual history of one of the most significant contemporary cultural trends the apocalyptic expectations of European and American evangelicals in an account that guides readers into the origins its evolution and its revolutionary potential in the modern world

Religious Hatred and Human Conflict Andrew Floyer Acland, 2023-09-12 Religious Hatred and Human Conflict focuses the lens of psychodynamic psychology on a phenomenon that often confounds conventional thinking the intensity of conflict with religious or quasi religious dimensions The book highlights six dimensions of religion identity doctrine and practice emotion and experience mythology sacred values and power and control exploring how these can give rise to religious hatred and lead to marginalisation persecution and even genocide It also explores reasons for the evolution of religion and religious hatred and their relationship with human behaviour through contemporary issues such as fundamentalism martyrdom clerical narcissism and apocalyptic belief Acland examines how religious hatred and conflict may be transcended by facilitating processes of dialogue and diapraxis which enable a systematic understanding of prejudices and projections Last it offers practical methods and strategies for helping individuals and communities grow beyond the constraints of religious hatred treating religious hatred as a psycho spiritual problem that requires self understanding Identifying the implications for professionals in conflict resolution and mediation politicians community leaders diplomats and anyone working to prevent or reduce conflict where religious belief is a factor this book sets out how those tasked with intervening can respond to the challenges involved It will also be highly relevant reading for students and researchers of psychology and religious studies

Witnesses to Faith? Brian Wicker,2006
September 11 2001 in New York March 11 2004 in Madrid July 7 2005 in London these dates remind us that suicide bombings or martyrdom operations have become the common coin of international politics in the West What exactly is meant by martyrdom today whether in Islam or Christianity Muslim and Christian scholars come together in this volume to find a common understanding based on the scriptures and traditions of each faith of martyrdom in today s violent world

The Sacrament of Desire Alex D. Suderman,2022-09-26 This book explores the political theological implications of sacramental desire in Fyodor Dostoevsky s The Brothers Karamazov with Friedrich Nietzsche s Thus Spoke Zarathustra in critical dialogue with Henri de Lubac Suderman demonstrates how the work of de Lubac Dostoevsky and Nietzsche address a transcendent desire for a higher social and political unity in late modern Western cultures and the imperialistic and coercive tendencies latent within it concretely expressed in the Western church and the modern state Specifically this book investigates how Dostoevsky and Nietzsche envision new forms of political embodiment that are neither escapist nor imperialist Through a detailed examination of Zarathustra s dramatic discovery of the eternal return and Alyosha s mystical experience of the resurrection Suderman demonstrates the metaphysical significance of their respective political ethics While the intent of de Lubac is to recover the social implications of the sacraments of Roman Catholicism Nietzsche and Dostoevsky espouse alternative articulations of community and the sacramental desire necessary for such embodiment a desire rooted in their respective perceptions of God

Ethics and Time Nimi Wariboko,2010-10-14 Ethics and Time attempts to locate ethical thinking within the response to the questions raised by temporal orientation Time is the matrix and Moloch of social life and for the purpose of this book the starting point for ethical reflection Nimi Wariboko boldly attempts to reconceptualize temporal orientation and begin a new discussion of time and ethics using the creative synthesis of ethology political philosophy sociological and intercultural perspectives Most academic discourse contextualizes temporal orientation in terms of either times of origin and time preference Wariboko identifies a third option developing the theory and methodology that render it an object of ethical analysis and liberatory thought He suggests that temporal orientation is the production of new temporalities that allow humans to manifest their potentialities and creatively resist obstacles that impede their thriving Wariboko liberates the notion and habit of temporal orientation from excessive concern with conservatism and utilitarianism showing how ethicists can use the theory of temporal orientation to question all present temporal conditions in the name of freedom American Fascists Chris Hedges,2008-01-08 From the celebrated author of War Is a Force That Gives Us Meaning comes a startling exposé of the political ambitions of the Christian Right a clarion call for everyone who cares about freedom Dreams of Glory Richard K. Modernity, Religion, and the War on Terror Professor Richard Dien Winfield,2013-05-28 The war on terror cannot be truly understood without investigating the legitimacy of modernity the challenge that religion presents to modernization the inescapable conflicts attending the emergence and expansion of modernity and the post colonial predicament from which Islamist reaction arises Richard Dien Winfield illuminates the war on terror in light of these issues presenting an anti foundationalist justification of the rationality and freedom of modernity while assessing how religion can stand in opposition to modernity and why Islam has been a privileged vehicle of anti modern religious revolt Winfield shows that the privatization that religion must undergo to be compatible with modern freedom involves no capitulation to relativism but rather is a theological imperative on which the truth of religion depends Exposing the limits of any purely secular modernization of Islam Winfield shows how Islam can draw upon its core tradition to repudiate the oppression of Islamist reaction and become at home in the modern world Choice ,2006 Islam Through Western Eyes Jonathan Lyons,2014-01-01 Despite the West s growing involvement in Muslim societies conflicts and cultures its inability to understand or analyze the Islamic world
