Oriental Enlightenment J.J. Clarke, 2002-09-11 What is the place of Eastern thought Buddhism Taoism Hinduism Confucianism in the Western intellectual tradition Oriental Enlightenment shows how despite current talk of globalization there is still a reluctance to accept that the West could have borrowed anything of significance from the East and explores a critique of the orientalist view that we must regard any study of the East through the lens of Western colonialism and domination Oriental Enlightenment provides a lucid introduction to the fascination Eastern thought has exerted on Western minds since the Renaissance

British Buddhism Robert Bluck, 2006-09-27 British Buddhism presents a useful insight into contemporary British Buddhist practice It provides a survey of the seven largest Buddhist traditions in the United Kingdom including the Forest Sangha Theravada and the Samatha Trust Theravada the Serene Reflection Meditation tradition Soto Zen and Soka Gakkai both originally Japanese the Tibetan Karma Kagyu and New Kadampa traditions and Friends of the Western Buddhist Order Based on extensive fieldwork this fascinating book determines how and to what extent British Buddhist groups are changing from their Asian roots and whether any forms of British Buddhism are beginning to emerge Despite the popularity of Buddhism in Britain there has so far been no study documenting the full range of teachings and practice This is an original study that fills this gap and serves as an important reference point for further studies in this increasingly popular field

The Re-Enchantment of the West Christopher Partridge, 2005-03-04 As a book about emergent spirituality in the contemporary West it focuses on the nature evolution and significance of new forms of religion and alternative spiritualities Part One of the book provides the theoretical background and guides the reader through some of the principal debates After an overview of the secularization thesis which argues that the West is becoming increasingly disenchanted the second chapter turns to the sociological analysis of new religions and alternative spiritualities Particular attention is given to the ideas of the sociologist of religion Ernst Troeltsch especially his enigmatic analysis of the emergence mystical religion which presciently provides helpful insights into understanding the contemporary alternative religious milieu Against sociologists such as Bryan Wilson and Steve Bruce this and the subsequent chapter argues that rather than being insignificant new forms of spirituality are actually proving to be a significant part of Western re enchantment Chapter 3 constructs a general theory of the re enchantment of the West Chris Partridge argues that Western Society is permeated by a broad occulture by which he means a reservoir of ideas beliefs theories and practices to which new religions unorthodox spiritualities film and popular music all draw attention This re enchantment of the West should not be seen as a superficial secondary development in the shadow of Christianity In many ways it is a religious phenomenom in its own right Partridge s arguments in this regard are well put and I warmly welcome this timely book Mikhael Rothstein University of Copenhagen Denmark Proceedings of the Tenth Seminar of the IATS, 2003. Volume 2: Tibetan Borderlands ,2006-08-01 Since the occupation of Tibet by the Peoples Republic of China in 1959 former border principalities and feudatories of the former realm of the Dalai Lama have broken away and have developed sociopolitical and economic bonds with other states Sikkim Bhutan Ladakh and the Tibeto Burman speaking regions of Burma Nepal and others have all developed strong ethnic identities apart from Tibet Eleven well known scholars working in these borderlands of Tibet present in this volume aspects of their current historical linguistic and ethnographic research Originally presented at the Oxford University meeting of the International Association of Tibetan Studies in 2003 the volume provides a unique panoply of cultural diversity within the contemporary Tibeto Burman speaking world Illustrated with introduction Steps toward a Tibetan Understanding of Purity James E. expectations and familial obligation for example The result is a vivid and unparalleled view of the quest for both spiritual meaning and mundane survival that typifies life in an unpredictable Himalayan environment

Orientalism and Religion Richard King, 2013-04-03 Orientalism and Religion offers us a timely discussion of the implications of contemporary post colonial theory for the study of religion Richard King examines the way in which notions such as mysticism religion Hinduism and Buddhism are taken for granted He shows us how religion needs to be reinterpreted along the lines of cultural studies Drawing on a variety of post structuralist and post colonial thinkers such as Foucault Gadamer Said and Spivak King provides us with a challenging series of reflections on the nature of Religious Studies and Indology

Occult Roots of Religious Studies Yves Mühlematter, Helmut Zander, 2021-06-08 The historiographers of religious studies have written the history of this discipline primarily as a rationalization of ideological most prominently theological and phenomenological ideas first through the establishment of comparative philological and sociological methods and secondly through the demand for intentional neutrality This interpretation caused important roots in occult esoteric traditions to be repressed This process of purification Latour is not to be equated with the origin of the academic studies De facto the elimination of idealistic theories took time and only happened later One example concerning the early entanglement is Tibetology where many researchers and respected chair holders were influenced by theosophical ideas or were even members of the Theosophical Society Similarly the emergence of comparatistics cannot be understood without taking into account perennialist ideas of esoteric provenance which hold that all religions have a common origin In this perspective it is not only the history of religious studies which must be revisited but also the partial shaping of religious studies by these traditions insofar as it saw itself as a counter model to occult ideas

Religious Transformation in Modern Asia ,2015-02-24 This volume explores the religious transformation of each nation in modern Asia When the Asian people who were not only diverse in culture and history but also active in performing local traditions and religions experienced a socio political change under the wave of Western colonialism the religious climate was also altered from a transnational perspective Part One explores the nationals of China Taiwan Hong Kong Korea and Japan focusing on the manifestations of Japanese religion Chinese foreign policy the British educational system in Hong Kong in relation to Tibetan Buddhism the Korean women of Catholicism and the Scottish impact in late nineteenth century Korea Part Two approaches South Asia through the topics of astrology the works of a Gujar t saint and Himalayan Buddhism The third part is focused on the conflicts between indigenous religions and colonialism Buddhism and Christianity Islam and imperialism and Hinduism and Christianity in Southeast Asia
