Anderson, 2009-03-26 Philosophers and students of the arts have wondered since the time of Aristotle about the nature of aesthetic experience and how this experience can seemingly be evoked by works of art For more than a century producers and directors of motion pictures have made decisions about how to craft them based upon assumptions about complex stylistic devices and the effects such patterns of organization have on viewers Over the past few years film scholars have made considerable progress in analyzing the manifold connections that exist between stylistic patterns and aesthetic effects for moving images of all kinds In doing so they have increasingly drawn upon insights and methodologies derived from psychology The international conference from which this volume takes its contributions and its title was organized to encourage the seeking of descriptive models pertaining to those elements of filmic construction that account for specific aesthetic experience The focus of the current selection of twenty essays is therefore on the elements of filmic narration and their presumed aesthetic effects The editors are pleased to strengthen the link between film studies and psychology in the interest of gaining tangible insight into the ancient mystery of the link between art and aesthetic experience A Companion to Nordic Cinema Mette Hjort, Ursula Lindqvist, 2016-05-31 A Companion to Nordic Cinema presents a collection of original essays that explore one of the world's oldest regional cinemas from its origins to the present day Offers a comprehensive transnational and regional account of Nordic cinema from its origins to the present day Features original contributions from more than two dozen international film scholars based in the Nordic countries the United States Canada Scotland and Hong Kong Covers a wide range of topics on the distinctive evolution of Nordic cinema including the silent Golden Age Nordic film policy models and their influence audiences and cinephilia Nordic film training and indigenous S mi cinema Considers Nordic cinema's engagement with global audiences through coverage of such topics as Dogme 95 the avant garde filmmaking movement begun by Danish directors Lars von Trier and Thomas Vinterberg and the global marketing and distribution of Nordic horror and Nordic noir Offers fresh investigations of the work of global auteurs such as Carl Th Dreyer Ingmar Bergman Lars von Trier Aki Kaurismäki and Roy Andersson Includes essays on Danish and Swedish television dramas Finland's eco documentary film production the emerging tradition of Icelandic cinema the changing

The Silents of Jesus in the Cinema (1897-1927) David Shepherd, 2016-03-31 While Jesus has attracted the sporadic interest of film makers since the epics of the Sixties it is often forgotten that between the advent of motion pictures in the 1890s and the close of the silent era at the end of the 1920s some of the longest most expensive and most watched films on both sides of the Atlantic were focused on the Life and Passion of the Christ Drawing upon rarely seen archival footage and the work of both the era's most important directors e.g. Alice Guy Ferdinand Zecca Sidney Olcott D W Griffith Carl Dreyer and C B DeMille and others who have been all but forgotten this collection of essays offers a representative survey of the Silents of Jesus illustrating the ways in which the earliest films and those which followed were influenced by a multiplicity of factors Written by leading scholars in biblical and early film studies this collection explores the ways in which the Silents of Jesus were shaped not only by the performing and visual arts of the nineteenth century and the technological challenges and opportunities of a new medium and industry but also by the artistic theological and ideological predilections of studios and directors and the expectations of audiences as the genre evolved Taken together the essays collected here offer a seminal treatment of the genesis and early evolution of the cinematic Jesus

Nicolas Winding Refn and the Violence of Art Justin Vicari, 2014-04-04 Nicolas Winding Refn has emerged as a uniquely talented international filmmaker with an eye for visceral iconic images A 21st century mythmaker from his cult Pusher trilogy to the award winning Drive and Only God Forgives Refn infuses a sophisticated avant garde sensibility with the grit of exploitation cinema This book relates Refn's films to the ideas of Nietzsche Canetti Blanchot and others and to aesthetic theory in general It also asks why the West has become a largely artificial society unable to generate new communal mythologies Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here A Companion to Film Theory Toby Miller, Robert Stam, 2008-04-15 This volume of specially commissioned work by experts in the field of film studies provides a comprehensive overview of the field Its international and interdisciplinary approach will have a broad appeal to those interested in this multifaceted subject Provides a major collection of specially commissioned work by experts in the field of film studies Represents material under a variety of headings including class race gender queer theory nation stars ethnography authorship and spectatorship Offers an international approach to the subject including coverage of topics such as genre image sound editing culture industries early cinema classical Hollywood and TV relations and technology Includes concise chapter by chapter accounts of the background and current approaches to each topic followed by a prognostication on the future Considers cinema studies in relation to other forms of knowledge such as critical studies anthropology and literature Nothing Happens Ivone Margulies, 1996 Through films that alternate between containment order and symmetry on the one hand and obsession explosiveness and a lack of control on the other Chantal Akerman has gained a reputation as one of the most significant filmmakers working today Her 1975 film Jeanne Dielman 23 Quai du Commerce 1080 Bruxelles is widely regarded as the most important feminist film of that decade In Nothing Happens Ivone Margulies presents the first comprehensive study of this influential avant garde Belgian filmmaker Margulies grounds her critical analysis in detailed discussions of Akerman's work from Saute ma ville a 13 minute black and white film made in 1968 through Jeanne Dielman and Je tu il elle to the present Focusing on the real time representation of a woman's everyday experience in Jeanne Dielman Margulies brings the history of social and progressive realism and the filmmaker's work into perspective Pursuing two different but related lines of inquiry she investigates an interest in the everyday that stretches from postwar neorealist cinema to the feminist rewriting of women's history in the seventies She then shows how Akerman's corporeal cinema is informed by both American experiments with performance and duration and the layerings present in works by European modernists Bresson Rohmer and Dreyer This analysis revises the tired opposition between realism and modernism in the cinema defines Akerman's minimal hyperrealist aesthetics in contrast to Godard's anti illusionism and reveals the inadequacies of popular characterizations of Akerman's films as either simply modernist or feminist An essential book for students of Chantal Akerman's work Nothing Happens will also interest international film critics and scholars filmmakers art historians and all readers concerned with feminist film theory Cinematography of Carl Theodor Dreyer Paul Matthew St. Pierre, 2018-11-19 Legendary Danish filmmaker Carl Theodor Dreyer 3 February 1889 20 March 1968 was born in Copenhagen to a single mother Josefine Bernhardine Nilsson a Swede His Danish father Jens Christian Torp a married farmer employed Nilsson as a housekeeper After spending his first two years in orphanages Dreyer was adopted by

Carl Theodor Dreyer a typographer and his wife Inger Marie Dreyer He was given his adoptive father s name At age 16 he renounced his adoptive parents and worked his way into the film industry as a journalist title card writer screenwriter and director Throughout his career he concealed his birth name and the details of his upbringing and his adult private life which included a period in which he explored his homosexual orientation and endured a nervous breakdown Despite his relatively small output of fourteen feature films and seven documentary short films 1919-64 he is considered one of the greatest filmmakers in history because of the diversity of his subjects themes techniques and styles and the originality of the bold visual grammar he mastered In Cinematography of Carl Theodor Dreyer Performative Camerawork Transgressing the Frame I argue 1 that Dreyer an anonymous orphan an unsourced subject manufactured his individuality through filmmaking self identifying by shrouding himself in the skin of film and 2 that as a screenwriter director who blocked entire feature films in his imagination in advance sets lighting photography shot breakdowns editing and imposed his vision on camera operators lighting directors actors and crews in production he saw filmmaking essentially as camerawork and he directed in the style of a performative cinematographer

Inventing Peace Wim Wenders, Mary Zournazi, 2013-08-30 Inventing Peace revolves around the question of how we look at the world but do not see it when there is so much war injustice suffering and violence What are the ethical and moral consequences of looking but not seeing and most of all what has become of the notion of peace in all this In the form of a written dialogue Wim Wenders and Mary Zournazi consider this question as one of the fundamental issues of our times as well as the need to reinvent a visual and moral language for peace Inspired by various cinematic philosophical literary and artistic examples Wenders and Zournazi reflect on the need for a change of perception in the everyday as well as in the creation of images In its unique style and method Inventing Peace demonstrates an approach to peace through sacred ethical and spiritual means to provide an alternative to the inhumanity of war and violence Their book might help to make peace visible and tangible in new and unforeseen ways

Religion and Film Melanie Wright, 2006-10-27 From silent films to contemporary blockbusters religion has always proved a popular theme for the cinema However all too often religion and film are discussed from narrowly confessional perspectives with the result that the field has long been dominated by the question of a film s fidelity to a religious text or worldview or its value as a tool in ministry and mission Religion and Film An Introduction seeks to redress this balance and argues for a new holistic approach to the subject that draws on work from cultural studies religious studies and film studies alike Wright argues that the meanings of a film are not encoded by its textual organisation but are bound up with its interpretation by viewers in specific contexts Focusing on religiously diverse films like The Ten Commandments La Passion de Jeanne d Arc Kadosh Lagaan My Son the Fanatic Keeping the Faith The Wicker Man and Mel Gibson s The Passion of The Christ the author looks at varied screen representations of religion at films shaped by strong convictions about the place of religion in society and at the roles that audiences play as consumers of film The book will have strong appeal to students as well as general readers interested in all aspects of the inter relationship of religion and the cinema
