Dreyfus Latelier Zone Libre:

2000 Susan Sarah Cohen, 2012-05-24 This work includes international secondary literature on anti-Semitism published throughout the world from the earliest times to the present. It lists books, dissertations, and articles from periodicals and collections from a diverse range of disciplines. Written accounts are included among the recorded titles as are manifestations of anti-Semitism in the visual arts, e.g., painting caricatures or film action taken against Jews and Judaism by discriminating judiciaries, pogroms, massacres, and the systematic extermination during the Nazi period. The bibliography also covers works dealing with philo-Semitism or Jewish reactions to anti-Semitism and Jewish self-hate. An informative abstract in English is provided for each entry, and Hebrew titles are provided with English translations. Jean-Claude Grumberg Jean-Claude Grumberg, 2014-07-15 Introducing the English language audience to the work of one of France's leading contemporary dramatists, winner of seven Molières, the Pulitzer Prize of France, these plays offer vivid insights into French Jewish life in post-Holocaust Europe. Staging History from the Shoah to Palestine Inez Hedges, 2021-09-28 This book is a contribution to the emerging field of research-based performance which seeks to gain a wider audience for issues that are crucial to our understanding of history and to informing our future actions. The book examines the role of theater in portraying the Shoah in France, the French Resistance, and the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. Each of the three chapters consists of an original dramatic work by the author and an accompanying critical essay. Theater, War, and Memory in Crisis John Ireland, 2025-03-11 Theater War and Memory in Crisis explores how French and Algerian dramatists have engaged with two traumatic events that continue to haunt France: the German occupation and Vichy government from 1940 to 1944 and the Algerian War from 1954 to 1962. John Ireland's investigation is guided by one central question: can theater take on issues of violence, war trauma, and conflicted memory in a fundamentally different way from archival forms of culture such as memoirs, narrative fiction, and film? Throughout the twentieth century, French cultural anthropologists, classicists, and social scientists repeatedly revisited links between archaic religious ritual, the practice of sacrifice, and Greek tragedy as attempts to understand, regulate, and mitigate the violence of human conflict and war. Ireland argues that contemporary French playwrights dealing with war trauma and contested memory were influenced by aspects of this research that foregrounded the core virtues of oral culture: presence and the present, the here and now, that also regulate theatrical performance. That connection to the present encouraged dramatists and performance artists to make live historiographical contributions to reverberating unresolved history but also revived perennial therapeutic values of oral culture that evolved in ancient Greece. Theater War and Memory in Crisis brings original readings of canonical authors like Jean-Paul Sartre, Jean Genet, Bernard-Marie Koltès, and Kateb Yacine into dialogue with non-canonical dramatists such as Armand Gatti, Liliane Atlan, and Noureddine Aba. Jews and Theater in an Intercultural Context Edna Nahshon, 2012-04-03 A collection of essays by an international cadre of theater scholars which addresses Jewish theater practitioners, playwrights, critics, financiers, and audiences' roles in the development of the European and American theater The Cambridge Companion to Modern French Culture Nicholas Hewitt,2003-09-11 France entered the twentieth century as a powerful European and colonial nation In the course of the century her role changed dramatically in the first fifty years two World Wars and economic decline removed its status as a world power whilst the immediate post war era was marked by wars of independence in its colonies Yet at the same time in the second half of the century France entered a period of unprecedented growth and social transformation Throughout the century and into the new millennium France retained its former international reputation as a centre for cultural excellence and innovation and its culture together with that of the Francophone world reflected the increased richness and diversity of the period This Companion explores this vibrant culture and includes chapters on history language literature thought theatre architecture visual culture film and music and discuss the contributions of popular culture Francophone culture minorities and women

The films of Costa-Gavras Homer B. Pettey, 2020-06-11 Costa Gavras is a seminal figure in French and international cinema. A master of the political thriller, he explores historical events through individual human stories, thereby involving his audience in past and contemporary traumas from the horrors of the Holocaust through mid-century international state terrorism and totalitarianism to the current global financial crisis. With a career spanning half a century, he remains one of cinema's most intriguing and enduring storytellers, theorists, and political commentators. This collection of original essays charts and re-examines Costa Gavras's career from Un homme de trop (1967) to Le capital (2012). Readable and carefully researched, it will appeal to students and scholars of film as well as fans of the director's work.

Perec, Modiano, Raczymow Annelies Schulte Nordholt, 2008-01-01 À partir des années 70, on voit en France une résurgence de la mémoire juive de l'Occupation et de la Shoah qui va de pair avec une extraordinaire floraison de romans et de récits. Une nouvelle génération d'écrivains prend la parole, c'est la génération d'après celle des enfants de survivants et des survivants enfants. Jusqu'à ce jour, peu de critiques ont tenu sensibles la puissante unité qui relie ces œuvres malgré la diversité des styles employés. Le présent ouvrage se veut une tude d'ensemble de la littérature de la génération d'après en passant par une analyse comparative de trois œuvres : celles de Georges Perec, de Patrick Modiano et de Henri Raczymow. Comment parler ? Comment dire une expérience, celle de la Shoah, qu'on n'a pas ou très peu vécue et qui n'a été transmise que fort difficilement, comme absence ou comme disparition ? C'est pourtant cette mémoire absente qui est au cœur même de ces trois œuvres. Elle s'exprime travers une poétique proche des recherches formelles d'Oulipo et du Nouveau Roman. Quelles sont les pratiques d'écriture adoptées par chacun des trois auteurs ? Et comment les transforment-ils dans le cours de leur œuvre ?

Pourquoi j'écris du théâtre pour les jeunes spectateurs, 2005-12 À la suite d'un colloque intitulé Le retour du texte organisé par la Biennale du Théâtre Jeunes Publics de Lyon, une vingtaine d'auteurs a dévoilé les raisons pour lesquelles ils écrivent des pièces pour un jeune public.
