Drifting The River Growing Up Wild In The South:

Drifting the River Mart Baldwin, 1999-07-01 The North Carolina Historical Review, 2002 Freckled TW Neal, 2018-12-30 For fans of The Glass Castle and Educated comes mystery author Toby Neal's personal story of surviving a wild childhood in paradise. We never call it homeless. We're just camping in the jungle on Kauai. We live in a place everyone calls paradise. Sure, Kauai's beautiful with empty beaches, drip castle mountains, and perfect surf, but we've been camping for six months, eating boiled chicken feed for breakfast, and wearing camouflage clothes so no one sees us trespassing in our jungle hideout. The cockroaches leave rainbow colors all over everything from eating the crayons we left outside the tent, and now a tractor is coming to scrape our camp into the river. Standing in front of the tent in my nightgown, clinging to my sister as we face the tractor, I know my own truth. I just want to be normal. But Mom and Pop are addicted. Addicted to Kauai's beauty, to drugs, to surfing, to living a life according to their own rules, out from under their high-achieving parents' judgmental eyes. I'm just their red-headed, mouthy oldest kid. What I want doesn't matter. But I'm smart. I will make a different life for myself someday if I keep up my grades, no matter what happens. No matter how often we run out of food. No matter how many times I change schools or don't go to school at all. No matter how many bullies beat me up for the color of my skin. I might be growing up wild in Hawaii, but I have dreams. I'm going to reach, no matter how crazy things get. Gold Winner in Memoir Autobiography for eLit Book Awards 2019, First Place in non-fiction for the 2019 Indie Reader Discovery Awards, Winner for Memoir in the 13th Annual National Indie Excellence Awards, NABE Pinnacle Book Achievement Award for Women's Interest Winner 2019. An affecting and riveting chronicle of a singular childhood that evokes the contradictions of hippie utopian ideals in an unspoiled Hawaiian landscape long since lost. Kirkus Reviews: A celebration of the best within each of us, as well as a witness of human frailty and resilience. T W Neal's memoir is a must-read. Lehua Parker, author of One Boy No Water.
