Dakini's Warm Breath Judith Simmer-Brown, 2002-12-10 A fresh interpretation of the dakini a Tibetan Buddhist symbol of the feminine that will appeal to practitioners interested in goddess worship female spirituality and Tantric Buddhism The primary emblem of the feminine in Tibetan Buddhism is the dakini or sky dancer a semi wrathful spirit woman who manifests in visions dreams and meditation experiences Western scholars and interpreters of the dakini influenced by Jungian psychology and feminist goddess theology have shaped a contemporary critique of Tibetan Buddhism in which the dakini is seen as a psychological shadow a feminine savior or an objectified product of patriarchal fantasy According to Judith Simmer Brown who writes from the point of view of an experienced practitioner of Tibetan Buddhism such interpretations are inadequate In the spiritual journey of the meditator Simmer Brown demonstrates the dakini symbolizes levels of personal realization the sacredness of the body both female and male the profound meeting point of body and mind in meditation the visionary realm of ritual practice and the empty spacious qualities of mind itself When the meditator encounters the dakini living spiritual experience is activated in a nonconceptual manner by her direct gaze her radiant body and her compassionate revelation of reality Grounded in the author's personal encounter with the dakini this unique study will appeal to both male and female spiritual seekers interested in goddess worship women's spirituality and the tantric tradition

The Biographies of Rechungpa Peter Alan Roberts, 2007-03-12 This book traces the lifestory of Rechungpa 1084-1161 the student of the famous teacher Milarepa using rare and little known manuscripts and discovers how the image of both Milarepa and Rechungpa underwent fundamental transformations over a period of over three centuries Peter Alan Roberts compares significant episodes in the life of Rechungpa as portrayed in a succession of texts and thus demonstrates the evolution of Rechungpa's biography. This is the first survey of the surviving literature which includes a detailed analysis of their dates, authorship and interrelationships. It shows how Rechungpa was increasingly portrayed as a rebellious, volatile and difficult pupil as a lineage from a fellow pupil prospered to become dominant in Tibet. Written in a style that makes it accessible to broad readership, Roberts' book will be of great value to anyone with an interest in the fields of Tibetan literature, history or religion.

Crazy for Wisdom Stefan Larsson, 2012-09-14 Best known today as the author of The Life of Milarepa Tsangny n Heruka 1452-1507, was one of the most influential mad yogins of Tibet. Stefan Larsson's Crazy for Wisdom describes Tsangny n Heruka's life based on narratives by his disciples and examines an unexpected aspect of fifteenth-century Tibetan Buddhist practice.

In Search of Mila's Collected Songs. Back to the Basics Kristin Blancke, 2024-11-13 In Search of Mila's Collected Songs: Back to the Basics is a comparative study of Tibetan texts with stories and songs of the great yogin and poet Milarepa, written between the 12th and the 15th centuries. By comparing these texts, the evolution of the narratives and the songs related to the lineages in which the texts were transmitted comes to light. The research leads up to the most famous Tibetan text regarding Milarepa Tsangny n Heruka's Life and Songs. The Life of Milarepa and The Hundred Thousand Songs of Milarepa. The analysis of the evolution in the life and song stories allows us to evaluate the iconic image of the great yogin as depicted by Tsangny n Heruka. The book consists of two main parts. Part One assesses the available sources, classified according to the period and the lineages in which they were produced. In Chapter 1, the biographies before Tsangny n are studied. In Chapter 2, the specific characteristics of Tsangny n's work are highlighted as compared to the earlier works. Chapter 3 considers some doctrinal aspects and their evolutions in all these works. The first part ends with the conclusions drawn from the comparative study. Part Two consists of translations relative to the research. This part is divided into ten chapters. The first one, Chapter 4, is a translation of Milarepa's hitherto unstudied life story by one of his main disciples, Ngendzong Tonpa. Chapters 5, 6, and 7 are translations of specific topics as they appear in all the different texts: Milarepa's stay with his teacher Marpa, the encounter between Milarepa and Gampopa, and the teaching transmission of a specific meditation tradition from Milarepa to his disciple Rechungpa. Chapter 8 describes interesting details found in a text by Zhij Ripa. Chapter 9 compares the episode of a dying B n po in the different texts. In Chapter 10, three episodes from the biographical compendium Life and Songs of the Glorious Laughing Vajra are studied and compared with Tsangny n Heruka's version. Chapter 11 gives an interesting interpretation of certain features of Mila's encounters with non-human beings due to the interconnections between inner winds and outer appearances. Chapter 12 analyses the colophons of the most ancient chapters in the texts regarding Mila's interactions with the Tseringma long-life sisters. Chapter 13 gives Mila's instructions on the intermediate states. Here, two different texts explaining the same instructions are compared to each other. Then follows a bibliography and an appendix containing 8 Song Charts in which the chapters and the songs in all these works are localised.
