Lee High School: The First Decade, 1955-1965* Clinton Carter, Jim Vickrey, Kerry Palmer, Roger Stifflemire, 2015-08-11 Echoes of Robert E Lee High School is an anthology about the first decade of Robert E Lee High School in Montgomery Alabama written and compiled by persons who supplemented their unique personal experiences at the school with research on the same The echoes of the title refers to how life experiences reverberate back to us Thus from the beginning its editors and writers thought of this little book of big memories and lessons of life as a compendium of the strong positive echoes they recall from Lee and the few negative ones they cannot forget which seem still to be informing and inspiring the lives of the school s graduates The audience for Echoes is of course all past Lee High alumni faculty and staff and all present and prospective Lee students faculty and staff along with any who support or have supported them and or the school and any others with sufficient connections to Lee or Lee people to enjoy reading others recollections of their time there The book might also be useful to anyone with a general interest in public secondary education in Montgomery County Main Street Melody Stephen W. Hoag Ph.D., 2023-09-10 Main Street Melody is an uninhibited melodramatic novel of love and romance that speaks to the intrinsic sway of music MELODY reveals the power of music Often just the first few bars of a tune can revive a memory of many decades ago or almost magically flip an internal switch changing despair into joy and loneliness into a swath of warmth No other domain in our society has that capacity and that personal impact Music in its many forms meets the needs of every person in every demographic category The teenage and adult characters in this textured novel of the age of innocence will touch your heart in endless ways from the tenderness of a first kiss to the nefarious pranks of unfettered youth In each moment of wonderment there will be music as you have never experienced it before From the echoes of car radios to the magnificent sound of a concert band the creative excitement of a garage band to that singular voice that when heard just once can never be forgotten The purported calculable components of life are often capricious as one can never count on the preciseness of happenstance Such are the purported necessities of life food water shelter and clothing Indeed each is indispensable but at the mercy of economic and environmental conditions With all of that to contemplate in the textured world all about us one element brings forth the dreams and memories of special moments hope and love MUSIC The dramatic conclusion surely will convince you that MUSIC like love never fails and no matter the occasion or the circumstance of life music makes the darkest moments more tolerable and enhances the zenithal peaks of a lifetime Main Street Melody will capture the fullness of your senses and bring music to new heights in your heart

Mohawks on the Nile Joe Jacobs, M.D,2013-10 The inclusion of Mohawks and the Nile River in the same sentence seems a bit incongruous American Indians in general and Mohawks in particular have remained relatively anonymous throughout contemporary American society Joe Jacobs whose mother was a member of the Kahnawake band of Mohawks near Montreal Canada gives insight into one of the most influential American Indian tribes in the histories of Great Britain France and the United States He brings to life the Mohawk people of his ancestry by drawing a parallel between the history of the Kahnawake Mohawk people on the banks of the St Lawrence River and his own contemporary reflections and professional journey That history is filled with the notion of balance between what it means to be a Mohawk in a culturally alien white Canadian and American society Just as the Kahnawake Mohawk high steel workers balance themselves on the steel beams of the New York City skyscrapers that make it the iconic city it has become this is a story of one Mohawk who traversed the divide between being Mohawk and White Grooming the Marching Band for High School Contests George Talmage Bennett,1937
