Consolidation Of Democracy In East Central Europe:

Prospects for Democratic Consolidation in East-Central Europe Geoffrey Pridham, Attila Ágh, 2001 Picturing home examines the depiction of domestic life in British feature films made and released in the 1940s It explores how pictorial representations of home onscreen in this period re imagined modes of address that had been used during the interwar years to promote ideas about domestic modernity Picturing home provides a close analysis of domestic life as constructed in eight films contextualising them in relation to a broader offscreen culture surrounding the suburban home including magazines advertisements furniture catalogues and displays at the Daily Mail Ideal Home Exhibition In doing so it offers a new reading of British 1940s films which demonstrates how they trod a delicate path balancing prewar and postwar traditional and modern private and public concerns

The Consolidation of Democracy in East-Central Europe Karen Dawisha, Bruce Parrott, 1997-06-13 Edited by two of the world s leading analysts of post communist politics this book brings together distinguished specialists on the Baltic states Estonia Latvia and Lithuania Poland the Czech Republic Slovakia and Hungary The authors analyse the patterns of post communist democratization in these countries paying particular attention to the process of party formation electoral politics the growth of civil society and the impact of economic reform on the emergence of interest groups Karen Dawisha and Bruce Parrott provide theoretical and comparative chapters on post communist political development across the region This book will provide students and scholars with detailed analysis by leading authorities plus the latest research data on recent political and economic developments in each country

Bound to Change Peter M. E. Volten, 1992 An international group of scholars reviews progress including obstacles that have and have not yet been overcome made by the three countries of East Central Europe in their transition from communism The authors debate whether the changes are irreversible and how much more work is necessary

Democratic Consolidation in East-Central Europe Fritz Plasser, Peter Ulram, Harald Waldrauch, 2016-07-27 The postcommunist regimes in East Central Europe are confronted with the double challenge of establishing a democratic order and a market economy The book discusses the concepts of democratic consolidation and analyzes the development of attitudes towards the political and economic system in Poland Hungary the Czech Republic Slovakia and Slovenia The study compares the political values in East Central Europe with respective attitudes in the USA and Western Europe Special attention is given to experiences of the consolidation process in Germany Italy and Austria after 1945 as well as the more recent developments in Latin America and Southern Europe The final chapter discusses patterns and paths of democratic consolidation in the light of concepts of regime change

International Migration and Consolidation of Democracy in East Central Europe Ewa T. Morawska, 1998

Challenges to Democracies in East Central Europe Jan Holzer, Miroslav Mareš, 2016-05-12 Democratic development in Central and Eastern Europe is not a finished project nor is its progress immune to internal and external threats The current social economic ethnic and political situation within the region presents new dangers This text identifies and analyses challenges to current East Central European democracies in terms of potential deconsolidation of democracy reflected in the changes in the institutional and procedural framework polity and in the choice of instruments and strategies in the policy area Specifically examining the regimes of the Czech Republic Hungary Poland Slovakia and Slovenia these challenges include political extremism and violence corruption ethnic and religious conflicts Presenting original Central European data and utilising the concept of consolidation of democracy from von Beyme and Merkel's concept the book demonstrates that these challenges are as much influenced by imported phenomena such as immigration organized crime and other potential systemic undemocratic volatilities as the domestic situation This text will be of key interest to scholars and students East European politics post Soviet politics EU Studies security and strategic studies international relations area studies modern history and sociology

Democratic Consolidation in Eastern Europe Jan Zielonka, Alex Pravda, 2001 This second volume in a series of books on democratic consolidation in Eastern Europe analyzes the external parameters of such a consolidation in thirteen Eastern European countries It explores how different international actors and various economic cultural and security types of transnational pressures have shaped democratic politics in the region especially over the last decade

Democratic Consolidation in Eastern Europe: Volume 2: International and Transnational Factors Jan Zielonka, Alex Pravda, 2001-06-14 This is the second volume in a two volume series of books on democratic consolidation in Eastern Europe The first volume focused on the issue of institutional engineering This second volume analyses the external parameters of democratic consolidation in thirteen Eastern European countries how different international actors and various economic cultural and security types of transnational pressures have shaped democratic politics in the region The aim is to contrast a set of democracy theories with empirical evidence accumulated in Eastern Europe over the last ten years The volume tries to avoid complex debates about definitions methods and the uses and misuses of comparative research Instead it seeks to establish what has really happened in the region and which of the existing theories are helpful in explaining these developments The volume is divided into two parts The first part presents a conceptual and comparative frame of analysis the second consists of detailed studies of individual countries undergoing democratic consolidation Case study chapters deal with the following countries Estonia and Latvia Hungary Poland the Czech Republic Slovakia Romania Bulgaria and Macedonia the states of former Yugoslavia Belarus and Ukraine and finally Russia The concluding chapter identifies a set of variables responsible for the enormous impact of external factors on democratic consolidation in Eastern Europe It conceptualises the interplay of internal and external factors impinging upon democracy and shows the interplay of different positive and negative types of external pressures It also evaluates the conscious Western effort to craft or engineer democracy in Eastern Europe

Declining Democracy in East-Central Europe Attila Ágh, 2019 The dramatic decline of democracy in East Central Europe has attracted great interest world wide Going beyond the narrow spectrum of the extensive literature on this topic this book offers a comprehensive analysis of ECE region Czech Republic

Hungary Poland Slovakia and Slovenia from systemic change in 1989 to 2019 to explain the reasons of the collapse of ECE democratic systems in the 2010s

Democratic Consolidation in Eastern Europe: Volume 1: Institutional Engineering Jan Zielonka, 2001 This is the first volume in a series of books on democratic consolidation in Eastern Europe The series focuses on three major aspects of democratic consolidation in Eastern Europe institutional engineering transnational pressures and civil society This first volume analyses constraints on and opportunities of institutional engineering in Eastern Europe to what extent and how elites in Eastern Europe have been able to shape if not manipulate the politics of democratic consolidation through institutional means The aim is to contrast a set of democracy theories with empirical evidence accumulated in Eastern Europe over the last ten years The volume tries to avoid complex debates about definitions methods and the uses and misuses of comparative research Instead it tries to establish what has really happened in the region and which of the existing theories have proved helpful in explaining these developments The volume starts with a presentation of conceptual and comparative frameworks followed by in depth empirical analyses of the thirteen individual countries undergoing democratic consolidation The first conceptual and comparative part contains three chapters The first chapter explains what institutional engineering is about and describes our experiences with institutional engineering in former transitions to democracy It also focuses on the import and export of institutional designs The second chapter analyses the utility of constitutions in the process of democratic consolidation The third chapter compares constitutional designs and problems of implementation in Southern and Eastern Europe The empirical case studies deal with the following countries Estonia Latvia Lithuania Bulgaria Romania Ukraine Russia Belarus the Czech Republic Slovakia Slovenia Hungary and Poland And the conclusions evaluate the enormous impact of institutions on politics in Eastern Europe and show how central constitutional designs are to the institutional engineering in the societies undergoing transitions to democracy

Framing History in East-Central Europe and Beyond LIT Verlag, 2022-09-06 During the 1970s today's Austrian Federal Ministry of Education Science and Research Bundesministerium für Bildung Wissenschaft und Forschung BMBWF supported the founding of the Center for Austrian Studies at the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis and the Austrian Chair at Stanford University in California These foundations were the initial incentives for the worldwide spreading of similar institutions currently nine Centers for Austrian and Central European Studies exist in seven countries on three continents The funding of the Ministry enables to connect senior scholars with young scholars to help young PhD students to participate in and to benefit from the scientific connection of experienced researchers and to get in touch with the national scientific community by sniffing scientific air as the Austrians like to say Furthermore it aims to avoid prejudices and to spread a better understanding and knowledge about Austria and Central Europe by promoting scientific exchange This volume contains the annual reports 2018 2019 2019 2020 of the Center Directors and the papers of their PhD students which discuss various topics on mostly East Central European History from several perspectives and in different centuries Ferdinand K hnel Postdoc researcher at the Institute of East European History University of Vienna Ned ad Ku PhD candidate at the Institute of East European History University of Vienna Marija Wakounig Professor at the Institute of East European History University of Vienna

Building Democracy and Civil Society East of the Elbe Sven Eliaeson, 2006-04-18 This book explores the idea of civil society and how it is being implemented in Eastern Europe The implosion of the Russian empire fifteen years ago and the new wave of democratization opened a new field of inquiry The wide ranging debate on the transition became focused on a conceptual battle the question of how to define civil society Because totalitarian systems shun self organization real existing civil society barely existed East of the Elbe and the emergence of civil society took unusually complex and puzzling forms which varied with national culture and reflected the deep historical past of these societies This insightful text relates the concept of civil society and developments in Eastern Europe to wider sociological theories and makes international comparisons where appropriate It discusses particular aspects of civil society and examines the difficulties of establishing civil society It concludes by assessing the problems and prospects for civil society in Eastern Europe going forward

Developments in Central and East European Politics 4 Stephen White, Judy Batt, Paul G. Lewis, 2007 The face of Central and Eastern Europe has been dramatically transformed since the collapse of communism The region faces new challenges including the needs to find a balance between effective leadership and accountability and to reverse the economic decline of the late communist years Addressing these concerns and others Developments in Central and East European Politics 4 brings together specially commissioned chapters by leading scholars from both sides of the Atlantic The chapters all of which are new to this edition focus on key features of the political systems that have emerged following the transition to postcommunist rule and the enlargement of the European Union through 2006 Full attention is given to the pattern of events in individual nations but the main emphasis is on the framework of politics across the region constitutions leadership parliaments parties and electoral systems and the process of politics as it is revealed in political participation civil society economic change and the quality of democratic government within and beyond the region Clearly written and well supported with references and suggestions for further reading Developments in Central and East European Politics 4 is the ideal guide to the process of change in a group of states that were formerly modeled on the Soviet Union but are now a distinctive and varied presence within a continent that has been redefining its boundaries its values its economic systems and its international allegiances Contributors Judy Batt Dirk Berg Schlosser Sarah Birch Heather Grabbe Tim Haughton Krzysztof Jasiewicz Petr Kopeck Paul G Lewis Frances Millard Cas Mudde D Mario Nuti Mark Pittaway Ray Taras Stephen White Andrew Wilson Kataryna Wolczuk Democratic Consolidation in Eastern Europe Alex Pravda, Jan Zielonka, The State of European Integration Yannis A. Stivachtis, 2016-03-03 The State of European Integration provides scholars practitioners experts and students with a comprehensive account of the state of the European Union today With contributions from leading scholars including Richard G Whitman Meltem Miftler Ba Glnur Aybet Leila Simona Talani and Gareth Dale the book examines the EU in a theoretically informed and empirically grounded manner Opening with an exploration into the nature of the European Union as an international actor it then assesses the impact of enlargement on institutions policies and identity The contributors investigate issues related to the degree of convergence and cohesion among members and analyze the economic and monetary state of integration The volume comes at a timely interval when there is a need to understand the present and future of the European Union Democratic and Capitalist Transitions in Eastern Europe M. Dobry, 2000-06-30 here of exchange and borrowing in debates between these disciplines all the more so as we shall see a little further on as the analysis of the Central and East European transformations has also contributed to introduce into political science and sociology theoretical systematizations first formulated in economics In addition to this opening up to the objects and theories of economics the pseudo dilemma of simultaneity produced by a kind of feedback another series of effects on transitology and the related research domains Contrary to most expectations and predictions in the wake of the 1989 upheavals affirmations that the dilemmas problems or challenges of the transitions in Central and Eastern Europe ought to have been dealt with and resolved one after the other in sequence in the manner of the more or less idealized trajectories of Great Britain or Spain trajectories significantly enough promoted far beyond the circles of scholars as a model of transition and above all contrary to the assumption that superposing a radical economic transformation upon a transition to democracy would make the whole edifice thoroughly unworkable unstable or dangerous it must be stated clearly out that the two processes in their simultaneity are not necessarily incompatible This is one of the main findings stressed upon in several chapters of this book
