Consortium On Revolutionary Europe 1978:

The Consortium on Revolutionary Europe Robert Holtman, Warren Spencer, 1980 The Four Horsemen Richard Stites, 2014-04 The Four Horsemen narrates the history of revolution in Spain Naples Greece and Russia in the 1820s connecting the social movements and activities on the ground in the inimitable voice of a renowned historian Disorder Contained Catherine Cox, Hilary Marland, 2022-03-10 The first historical study to offer an in depth exploration of the complex relationship between the prison and mental breakdown Programs and Services National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1981

France and 1848 William Fortescue, 2005 Examining the economic social and political crises this book evaluates the political history of France during the revolution of 1848 and the French political culture of the time National Library of Medicine Programs and Services National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1982 The History of Public Health and the Modern State Dorothy Porter, 1994 Dorothy PORTER Introduction Matthew RAMSEY Public Health in France Paul WEINDLING Public Health in Germany Christopher HAMLIN State Medicine in Great Britain Karin JOHANNISSON The People's Health Public Health Policies in Sweden Susan GROSS SOLOMON The Expert and the State in Russian Public Health Continuities and Changes Across the Revolutionary Divide Elizabeth FEE Public Health and the State the United States Jay CASSELL Public Health in Canada Linda BRYDER A New World Two Hundred Years of Public Health in Australia and New Zealand David ARNOLD Crisis and Contradiction in India's Public Health Maryinez LYONS Public Health in Colonial Africa The Belgian Congo Mahito H FUKUDA Public Health in Modern Japan From Regimen to Hygiene Milton I ROEMER Internationalism in Medicine and Public Health Revolutions and Revolutionists Robert Blackey, 1982

Women, the Family, and Freedom Susan G. Bell, Karen M. Offen, 1983 This is the first book in a two part collection of 264 primary source documents from the Enlightenment to 1950 chronicling the public debate that raged in Europe and America over the role of women in Western society The present volume looks at the period from 1750 to 1880 The central issues motherhood women's legal position in the family equality of the sexes the effect on social stability of women's education and labor extended to women the struggle by men for personal and political liberty These issues were political economic and religious dynamite They exploded in debates of philosophers political theorists scientists novelists and religious and political leaders This collection emphasizes the debate by juxtaposing prevailing and dissenting points of view at given historical moments e g Madame de Sta l vs Rousseau Eleanor Marx vs Pope Leo XIII Strindberg vs Ibsen Simone de Beauvoir vs Margaret Mead Each section is preceded by a contextual headnote pinpointing the documents significance Many of the documents have been translated into English for the first time The Unthinkable Revolution in Iran Charles Kurzman, 2005-09-06 The shah of Iran Mohammad Reza Pahlavi would remain on the throne for the foreseeable future This was the firm conclusion of a top secret CIA analysis issued in October 1978 One hundred days later the shah despite his massive military fearsome security police and superpower support was overthrown by a popular and largely peaceful revolution But the CIA was not alone in its myopia as Charles Kurzman reveals in this penetrating work Iranians themselves except for a tiny minority considered a revolution inconceivable until it actually occurred Revisiting the circumstances surrounding the fall of the shah Kurzman offers rare insight into the nature and evolution of the Iranian revolution and into the ultimate unpredictability of protest movements in general As one Iranian recalls The future was up in the air Through interviews and eyewitness accounts declassified security documents and underground pamphlets Kurzman documents the overwhelming sense of confusion that gripped pre revolutionary Iran and that characterizes major protest movements His book provides a striking picture of the chaotic conditions under which Iranians acted participating in protest only when they expected others to do so too the process approaching critical mass in unforeseen and unforeseeable ways Only when large numbers of Iranians began to think the unthinkable in the words of the U S ambassador did revolutionary expectations become a self fulfilling prophecy A corrective to 20 20 hindsight this book reveals shortcomings of analyses that make the Iranian revolution or any major protest movement seem inevitable in retrospect

The French Revolution and the Birth of Modernity Ferenc Fehér, 2023-11-15 Written from widely different perspectives these essays characterize the Great Revolution as the dawn of the modern age the grand narrative of modernity The scope of issues under scrutiny is extremely broad ranging from the analyses of the hotly debated class character of 1789 and the problem of the nation state to the Cult of the Supreme Being the emancipation of the Jews and the cultural heritage of the Revolution This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1990

Europe in 1830 Clive H. Church, 2022-02-06 This book first published in 1983 is a valuable corrective to the lack of academic research on the events of 1830 a year of revolutions across the continent of Europe Social protests and political changes are examined to note the causes of the political turmoil and revolution in 1830 and then the results of the revolutions developments are analysed as general European social political and diplomatic crises as well as a series of individual outbreaks The book also turns to comparative study to look at the hows and wherefores of the revolutions as the dynamics participants and effects of revolution are examined in turn

Revolutionary Love in Eighteenth- and Early Nineteenth-Century France Allan H. Pasco, 2016-12-05 In this innovative study the author carves out a new field a sociology of literature in which he offers insightful commentary about the nexus of literature and society Calling on history sociology and psychology as well as literature as points of reference Allan Pasco examines the conceptual shift in the ideal of love in eighteenth century France Pasco explores the radical though gradual changes that occurred during the Enlightenment with respect to how the emotion of love was viewed Earlier love had been subordinate to the demands of family king and deity passion was dangerous and to be avoided But over time individual happiness became the greatest good and passion the measure of love Authors as diverse as Marivaux Marmontel Rousseau Bachelard d'Arnaud Pigault Lebrun and Madame de Staël make it clear that the ideal of rapturous love did not live up to its billing it did not last and it brought destructive fantasies an epidemic of disease the scourge of divorce and considerable anguish Still as Pasco points out passion became and remained the ideal and the Romantics were left to plumb its nature

Robespierre Peter McPhee, 2012-03-13 For some historians and biographers Maximilien Robespierre 1758-94 was a great revolutionary martyr who succeeded in leading the French Republic to safety in the face of overwhelming military odds For many others he was the first modern dictator a fanatic who instigated the murderous Reign of Terror in 1793-94 This masterful biography combines new research into Robespierre's dramatic life with a deep understanding of society and the politics of the French Revolution to arrive at a fresh understanding of the man his passions and his tragic shortcomings Peter McPhee gives special attention to Robespierre's formative years and the development of an iron will in a frail boy conceived outside wedlock and on the margins of polite provincial society Exploring how these experiences formed the young lawyer who arrived in Versailles in 1789 the author discovers not the cold obsessive Robespierre of legend but a man of passion with close but platonic friendships with women Soon immersed in revolutionary conflict he suffered increasingly lengthy periods of nervous collapse correlating with moments of political crisis yet Robespierre was tragically unable to step away from the crushing burdens of leadership Did his ruthless uncompromising exercise of power reflect a descent into madness in his final year of life McPhee reevaluates the ideology and reality of the Terror what Robespierre intended and whether it represented an abandonment or a reversal of his early liberalism and sense of justice

Sensationalizing the Jewish Question Barnett Peretz Hartston, 2005 This book examines a number of sensational trials involving anti-Semitism in early Imperial Germany Press coverage of these court cases helped to spur public debates about the nature of Judaism and the role and influence of Jews in German society

Bibliography of European Economic and Social History Derek Howard Aldcroft, Richard Rodger, 1993 This bibliographical guide contains 10 000 references to the economic and social history of 30 European countries during the period 1700-1939 More than 3000 periodicals have been consulted to obtain references as well as books edited collections and conference proceedings The information is listed in categories such as industry agriculture finance migration labour conditions urban communities and organizations Full publication details are included so that references may be located easily Essays on the French Revolution Steven G. Reinhardt, Elisabeth A. Cawthon, 1992 Clarke Garrett examines the differing responses of Catholics and Protestants and the resulting disturbances Roderick Phillips describes the wide variation in provincial response to the revolutionary assembly's family reform measures He traces the different reactions of urban and rural residents to such legal measures as liberalization of divorces secularization of birth death and marriage registrations and inheritance reform Peasants in central France were already engaged in total revolution when Joseph Fouché arrived there in late 1793 Nancy Fitch argues that Fouché was formed by his encounter with indigenous peasant radicalism as much as the peasants were influenced by his rhetoric of a new political culture Donald Sutherland summarizing scholarly debate on the subject argues that in the final analysis the Revolution itself was tragically and profoundly alien to many French men and women in 1789 Parades and the Politics of the Street Simon P. Newman, 2010-08-03 Simon P Newman vividly evokes the celebrations of America's first national holidays in the years between the ratification of the Constitution and the inauguration of Thomas Jefferson He demonstrates how by taking part in the festive culture of the streets ordinary American men and women were able to play a significant role in forging the political culture of the young nation The creation of many of the patriotic holidays we still celebrate coincided with the emergence of the first two party system With the political songs they sang the liberty poles they raised and the partisan badges they wore Americans of many walks of life helped shape a new national politics destined to replace the regional practices of the colonial era
