Report of Cases Argued and Determined in the Supreme Court and in the Court of Appeals of the State of Idaho Idaho. Supreme Court, 1986 Law, Reason and Emotion Mortimer Sellers (org.), Catherine Moore (org.), Vitor Medrado (org.), 2015-12-01 Volume III Working Groups Reconsidering Constitutional Formation I National Sovereignty Ulrike Müßig, 2016-08-18 This open access book can be downloaded from link springer.com Legal studies and consequently legal history focus on constitutional documents believing in a nominalist autonomy of constitutional semantics Reconsidering Constitutional Formation in the late 18th and 19th century kept historic constitutions from being simply log books for political experts through a functional approach to the interdependencies between constitution and public discourse Sovereignty had to be believed by the subjects and the political elites Such a communicative orientation of constitutional processes became palpable in the religious affinities of the constitutional preambles They were held as creeds of a new order not only due to their occasional recourse to divine authority but rather due to the claim for eternal validity contexts of constitutional guarantees The communication dependency of constitutions was of less concern in terms of the preamble than the constituents big worries about government organisation Their indecisiveness between monarchical and popular sovereignty was established through the discrediting of the Republic in the Jacobean reign of terror and the renaissance of the monarchy in the military resistance against the French revolutionary and later Napoleonic campaigns The constitutional formation as a legal act of constituting could therefore defend the monarchy from the threat of the people Albertine Statute 1848 could be a legal decision of a national constituent assembly Belgian Constitution 1831 could borrow from the old liberties Polish May Constitution 1791 or try to remain in between by referring to the Nation as sovereign French September Constitution 1791 C d'iz Constitution 1812 Common to all contexts is the use of national sovereignty as a legal starting point The consequent differentiation between constituent and constituted power manages to justify the self commitment of political power in legal terms National sovereignty is the synonym for the juridification of sovereignty by means of the constitution The novelty of the constitutions of the late 18th and 19th century is the normativity the positivity of the constitutional law as one unified law to be the measure for the legality of all other law Therefore ReConFort will continue with the precedence of constitution www.reconfort.eu Compendium of GST Cases with Summary Sanjiv Agarwal, Neha Somani, 2021-09-30 About the Book You have in your hands the sixth edition of the bi annual publication on judicial pronouncements on GST laws comprising of analysis of select cases along with the full text of judgments arranged chronologically and alphabetically The book is structured into three major parts viz General Constitutional matters Central State GST and Integrated GST including Compensation Cess and further divided into 22 chapters This edition covers select cases from various High Courts and Supreme Court reported from July 2020 Dec 2020 Pronouncements of Advance Ruling Authority AAR Appellate Advance Ruling Authority AAAR and National Antiprofitteering Authority NAA may be referred to in respective separate books
