Constitutional Dialogues:

Constitutional Dialogues Louis Fisher, 2014-07-14 Who makes constitutional law Is constitutional doctrine the monopoly of the courts In accessible and persuasive prose Louis Fisher explains that constitutional law is not solely or even primarily the Supreme Court's final word but rather a richly political convergence of separate interpretations With a broad range of examples he argues that constitutional principles emerge from a dialogue among all three branches of government executive legislative and judicial Important contributions also come from the states and the general public Fisher identifies executive and legislative initiatives in many areas of constitutional significance Where there is litigation the Court generally upholds these initiatives or may avoid making a constitutional decision by using threshold devices On those rare occasions when the Supreme Court exercises judicial review and strikes down a presidential or congressional action it is usually only a matter of time before the proposal is revived and the dialogue begins again Originally published in 1988 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Constitutional Change in the Contemporary Socialist World Ngoc Son Bui, 2020 Comparative constitutional law has a long and distinguished history in intellectual thought and in the construction of public law As political actors and the people who create or modify their constitutional orders they often wish to learn from the experience and learning of others This cross fertilization and mutual interaction has only accelerated with the onset of globalization which has transformed the world into an interconnected web that facilitates dialogue and linkages across international and regional structures Oxford Comparative Constitutionalism seeks to publish scholarship of the highest quality in constitutional law that deepens our knowledge of local national regional and global phenomena through the lens of comparative public law Book jacket European Yearbook of Constitutional Law 2021 Jurgen de Poorter, Gerhard van der Schyff, Maarten Stremmer, Maartje De Visser, 2022-06-06 The European Yearbook of Constitutional Law EYCL is an annual publication devoted to the study of constitutional law It aims to provide a forum for in depth analysis and discussion of new developments in the field both in Europe and beyond This third volume of the EYCL focuses on constitutional advice an underexplored topic of legal scholarship today and addresses this situation by looking beyond constitutional law s familiar focus on the classic separation of powers and the main legislative executive and judicial bodies implied by this construct The attention is shifted to mapping and analysing the advisory bodies and functions grouped around and in support of the legislators administrators and judges at the frontline of the constitutional edifice which is accomplished through national comparative and transnational perspectives on constitutional advice from Europe and beyond Addressing the topic of constitutional advice is necessary to broaden and deepen not only our understanding of advice as a field in its own right but also as a way of rendering a fuller account of contemporary constitutionalism Also the increasing political polarisation across many societies today underscores the need to study constitutional advice on topics of significance in an attempt to bridge divides and end gridlock This book will be of special interest to constitutional scholars and legal scholars more generally as well as to political scientists In addition government officials judges and policy makers wishing to better understand the legal mechanisms and avenues when it comes to rendering or receiving advice in the contemporary constitutional context will find much of relevance Jurgen de Poorter is professor at Tilburg Law School Department of Public Law and Governance Gerhard van der Schyff is associate professor at Tilburg Law School Department of Public Law and Governance Maarten Stremmer is assistant professor at Maastricht University Faculty of Law Department of Public Law Maartje De Visser is associate professor at Yong Pung How School of Law Singapore Management University Singapore Politics and Constitutionalism Robert J. Aida Torres Pérez, 2009 Underlying the protection of human rights in Europe is a complex network of overlapping legal systems domestic EU and ECHR This book focuses on the potential for conflict to emerge between the systems where rights overlap and interpretations in different courts begin to diverge From the perspective of EU law where the interpretation of rights differs national courts are asked to renounce the constitutional scope of protection in favour of the scope defined by the European Court of Justice This work presents a theory of supranational judicial authority to confront this problem grounded in an ideal of judicial dialogue It represents the first attempt to provide a thorough theoretical account of the value of judicial dialogue and its potential for legitimating judicial decision making at a supranational level Combining theoretical rigour with attention to the practicalities of European human rights law the book will be accessible to a broad readership of legal theorists EU lawyers and judges involved in building inter judicial dialogue Zimbabwe in Transition Timothy Murithi, Aquilina Mawadza, 2011 Zimbabwe s Transition to Democracy in the post independence era has been a very difficult one To date there have been a number of sustained efforts by various local regional and international actors to move Zimbabwe towards democracy as well as attempts to find a lasting solution to the political and economic crises that seriously affected the country s progress from the late 1990s However these attempts have been less successful mainly because Zimbabwe has complex political and economic problems with interlocking national regional and international political and economic dimensions rooted in both historical and contemporary factors and developments To understand the complexities of the challenges to Zimbabwe s transition to democracy as well as prospects for political change and democracy in the country Zimbabwe in Transition critically examines both the historical and contemporary dynamics shaping political and economic developments in the country taking into account voices from a broad spectrum of Zimbabwean society including civil society faith based communities the diaspora women community leaders the media youth and regional actors such as SADC and the AU Book jacket General Reports of the XXth General Congress of the International Academy of Comparative Law - Rapports généraux du XXème Congrès général de l'Académie internationale de droit comparé Katharina Boele-Woelki, Diego P.
