James, 1990-09-01 Constructing and Reconstructing Childhood A.

James, 1990-09 Constructing Childhood A. James, 2004-06-08 This text provides a critical analysis of the social construction of childhood and children s agency Through an interdisciplinary synthesis combining social theory social policy and the empirical findings of social science research it bridges the current gap between theory and practice offering an incisive theoretical account of childhood that is grounded in substantive areas of children s lives such as health education crime and the family This furthers understanding of the impact of policy on children s everyday lives and social experiences

Children And Social Competence Ian Hutchby, Jo Moran-Ellis, 2005-08-15 A text which addresses the relationship between childhood competence and the social arenas of action in which children live The contributors develop a picture of children as competent sophisticated social agents focusing on the contexts which both enable and constrain that competence

Disclosing Childhoods Spyros Spyrou,2018-04-17 Disclosing Childhoods offers a critical account of knowledge production in childhood studies The book argues for the need to be reflexive about the knowledge practices of the field and to scrutinize the role of researchers in disclosing certain childhoods rather than others A relational lens is used to critique the ongoing fixation of childhood studies with the unitary child agent and to re introduce the question of ontology in knowledge production The author provides a critical account of childhood studies trajectory as well as exploring the key concepts of voice agency and participation illustrating the potential of a reflexive stance towards knowledge production Drawing on poststructuralist and posthumanist thinking each of these concepts is critiqued for its conceptual limits while productive avenues are offered to reconfigure their utility Spyrou also addresses the ethics and politics of knowledge production and considers key emerging insights which can contribute towards the development of a more reflexive and critical childhood studies Students and scholars across a range of disciplines including childhood studies anthropology sociology and geography will find this book of interest as well as those interested in qualitative research methodology and social theory

The Cultural Construction of Monstrous Children Simon Bacon,Leo Ruickbie,2020-09-30 The Cultural Construction of Monstrous Children raises important questions at the heart of society and culture and through an interdisciplinary trans cultural analysis presents important findings on socio cultural representations and embodiments of the child and childhood At the start of the 21st new anxieties constellate around the child and childhood while older concerns have re emerged mutated and grown stronger But as historical analysis shows they have been ever present concerns This innovative and interdisciplinary collection of essays considers examples of monstrous children since the 16th century to the present spanning real life and popular culture to exhibit the manifestation of the Western cultural anxiety around the problematic anomalous child as naughty dangerous or just plain evil The book takes an inter and multidisciplinary approach drawing upon fields as diverse as sociology psychology film and literature to study the role of the child and childhood within contemporary Western culture and to see the historic ways in which each discipline intersects and influences the other

Making Sense Of Theory & Practice In Early Childhood: The Power Of Ideas Waller, Tim,Whitmarsh, Judy,Clarke, Karen,2011-04-01 This title offers students an overview of a range of theoretical concepts some traditionally associated with early childhood and some less traditionally It aims to stimulate debate and to demonstrate how theoretical thinking can inform pedagogy and research with innovative results

Agency and Ownership in Reconciliation Caitlin Mollica,2024-04-01 The importance of youth s substantive participation for the realization of inclusive reconciliation practices has rarely been acknowledged Agency and Ownership in Reconciliation provides a comprehensive nuanced and empirical account of the contribution of young people s voices to the success of transitional justice and peacebuilding practices Caitlin Mollica illustrates the role of political will and agency in the development of transitional justice mechanisms that are substantively inclusive of those traditionally marginalized by post conflict institutions most notably youth In doing so she highlights the importance of youth to lasting peace and meaningful justice She does so by looking specifically at how truth and reconciliation commissions from South Africa to the Solomon Islands engage with the voices of youth and the meanings youth self ascribe to their experiences during truth and reconciliation commission processes In a field which traditionally prioritizes stories about youth Agency and Ownership in Reconciliation looks to center stories by youth

Constructing Adolescence in Fantastic Realism Alison Waller, 2010-12-22 Constructing Adolescence in Fantastic Realism examines those fundamental themes which inform our understanding of the teenager themes that emerge in both literary and cultural contexts Models of adolescence do not arise solely from discourses of psychology sociology and education Rather these models frameworks including developmentalism identity formation social agency and subjectivity in cultural space can also be found represented symbolically in fantastic tropes such as metamorphosis time slip hauntings doppelgangers invisibility magic gifts and witchcraft These are the incredible supernatural and magical elements that invade the everyday and diurnal world of fantastic realism In this original study Alison Waller proposes a new critical term to categorize a popular and established genre in literature for teenagers young adult fantastic realism Though fantastic realism plays a crucial part in the short history of young adult literature up until now this genre has typically been overlooked or subsumed into the wider class of fantasy Touching on well known authors including Robert Cormier Melvin Burgess Gillian Cross Margaret Mahy K M Peyton and Robert Westall as well as previously unexamined writers Waller explores the themes and ideological perspectives embedded in fantastic realist novels in order to ask whether parallel realities and fantastic identities produce forms of adolescence that are dynamic and subversive One of the first studies to deal with late twentieth century fantastic literature for young adults this book makes a valuable contribution to our understanding of adult attitudes toward adolescent identity

The Routledge International Handbook of Child and Adolescent Grief in Contemporary Contexts Carrie Traher, Lauren J. Breen, 2023-11-29 This volume presents the leading research in child and adolescent grief from a diverse and global perspective focusing on the systemic political and cultural processes that have a direct bearing on the way youth experience loss and grief Carrie Traher and Lauren J Breen bring together a global community of academics practitioners and social activists to discuss and address the complexity of lived experiences of grief for young people today Presented in four parts the contributors begin by providing a theoretical overview of youth grief and bereavement before moving onto other important topics such as suicide bereavement the trauma of war digital grief narratives child soldiering and more Within each chapter authors address contemporary theoretical frameworks research findings and praxis related to both death and non death losses such as the Black Lives Matter movement environmental grief and grief on the internet and social media Including contributors from a range of countries and from various disciplines such as educators health care professionals policy makers and advocates the themes of coping resilience and growth are central and interwoven in each chapter This handbook is essential for researchers clinicians scholars educators parents and activists as to the most pressing societal and global issues that affect youth grief today and to provide context to their personal and professional interactions with youth Chapter 9 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

What is a Parent Andrew Bainham, Shelley Day Sclater, Martin Richards, 1999-08-23 This book presents an interdisciplinary exploration of the nature of parenthood and its various manifestations in contemporary society

Rethinking Childhood Peter B. Pufall, Richard P. Unsworth, 2004 Being a child in American society can be problematic In Rethinking Childhood 20 contributors from such disciplines as anthropology government education and religion provide a multidisciplinary view of childhood by listening and understanding the ways children shape their own futures

Key Thinkers in Childhood Studies Smith, Carmel, Greene, Sheila, 2015-11-18 This text presents the contrasting perspectives of some of the leading figures involved in shaping the field of childhood studies over the last 30 years Drawing on in depth interviews with 22 high profile pioneers in the subject Carmel Smith and Sheila Greene share a wealth of experiences in this innovative field

The Social Construction of Adolescence in Contemporaneity Marcelo S. Isidório, 2023-07-31 Expanding this area of youth studies across specific contexts The Social Construction of Adolescence in Contemporaneity offers new interpretive possibilities to deepen the understanding of issues that concern young people

Childhood Chris Jenks, 2005 Childhood is an extremely complex and highly contested concept It refers to a life phase as well as to the age group defined as children but is also a cultural construction part of the social and economic structure of communities The key scholarship collected introduced and reprinted in these volumes reflects this complexity and introduces the reader to the wide variety of interpretations that have been and continue to be placed on it It might be suggested that the push or initiative in theorizing childhood has derived from advances within sociology and anthropology However the future provides potential for interdisciplinary study which this collection also reflects The contemporary study of childhood must comprise a conjoining of disciplines sociology anthropology psychology social geography history philosophy and socio legal theory all have something to add to the field and are represented within the collection

Children In Families Julia Brannen, Margaret O'Brien, 2002-11 This work argues that children's needs have often been neglected in the social sciences especially in the areas of law social policy and sociology It presents empirical research on children in contemporary family settings and provides suggestions for future research and policy initiatives
