Emotion, Cognition, and Their Marvellous Interplay in Managerial Decision-Making Matteo

Cristofaro,2021-04-06 How do affect cognition and their interplay influence managerial decision making at the individual group and organizational levels How can these influences be fostered or reduced This book conceptually and empirically answers such questions and considers important theoretical issues for future research about the complex functioning of the human mind in managerial decision making Retail Category Management Alexander Hübner,2011-08-30 Retail shelf management means cost efficiently aligning retail operations with consumer demand As consumers expect high product availability and low prices and retailers are constantly increasing product variety and striving towards high service levels the complexity of managing retail business and its operations is growing enormously Retailers need to match consumer demand with shelf supply by balancing variety number of products and service levels number of items of a product and by optimizing demand and profit through carefully calibrated prices As a result the core strategic decisions a retailer must make involve assortment sizes shelf space assignment and pricing levels Rigorous quantitative methods have emerged as the most promising solution to this problem The individual chapters in this book therefore focus on three areas 1 combining assortment and shelf space planning 2 providing efficient decision support systems for practically relevant problem sizes and 3 integrating inventory and price optimization into shelf management
