Contemporary Belarus Between Democracy And Dictatorship:

Contemporary Belarus Elena Korosteleva, Colin Lawson, Rosalind Marsh, 2003-08-27 This book provides a thorough overview of current developments in Belarus It looks at historical political economic and social changes and at international relations especially relations with Russia and the European Union

Democracy and Authoritarianism in the Postcommunist World Valerie Bunce, Michael McFaul, Kathryn Stoner, 2010 Democracy and Authoritarianism in the Postcommunist World examines three waves of democratic change that took place in eleven different former Communist nations It draws important conclusions about the rise development and breakdown of both democracy and dictatorship in each country providing a comparative perspective on the post Communist world The first democratic wave to sweep this region encompasses the rapid rise of democratic regimes from 1989 to 1992 from the ashes of Communism and Communist states The second wave arose with accession to the European Union from 2004 to 2007 and the third with the electoral defeat of dictators 1996 to 2005 in Croatia Serbia Georgia and Ukraine The authors of each chapter in this volume examine both internal and external dimensions of both democratic success and failure

Belarus Andrew Savchenko, 2009 Belarus is known as the last dictatorship of Europe yet its president enjoys public support Its economy remains largely Soviet yet exhibits high growth rates Belarus styles itself as a European country yet clings to Russia as the only ally The book explains these paradoxes by delving into history of Belarusian national institutions including civil society and the state The book starts with an analysis of Belarusian national development from the time of the Grand Duchy of Lithuania to the short lived Belarusian People's Republic of 1918 The discussion turns to the crucial interwar period when all national institutions of modern Belarus had taken shape Belarus's surprising ability to cope with post Soviet economic and geopolitical changes is discussed in the final chapter

Comparative International Politics of Democracy Promotion Jonas Wolff, Hans-Joachim Spanger, Hans-Jürgen Puhle, 2013-09-11 Though scholarly attention to democracy promotion is increasing there is still little comparative and theoretically based work on the protagonists of democracy promotion This book investigates the motives that drive democracy promotion in a comparative and theoretically oriented manner exploring how democracy promoters deal with conflicting objectives and the factors that shape their behaviour It also addresses the more policy oriented debate on the contemporary challenges to democracy promotion focusing on US and German policies towards three kinds of challenges the emergence of radical leftist governments in Bolivia and Ecuador the political rise of Islamist movements in Turkey and Pakistan and the consolidation of semi authoritarian rule in Belarus and Russia In each case North Western democracy promoters have been confronted with serious conflicts of objectives between security economic interests and democracy promotion The analysis and comparison of such situations in which democracy promoters have to deal with competing objectives and make tough decisions provides powerful evidence as to the factors that shape democracy promotion The Comparative International Politics of Democracy Promotion will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations comparative politics democratization studies and foreign policy The Geopolitical Place of Belarus in Europe and the World Valer Bulhakaŭ, 2006 Belarus in the Twenty-First Century Elena Korosteleva, Irina Petrova, Anastasiia Kudlenko, 2023-05-12 This book presents a comprehensive overview of current developments in Belarus It explores how there has been an upswelling of popular support for the idea that Belarus must change It highlights how the old regime aiming to retain the Soviet legacy reluctant to reform presiding over worsening economic conditions and refusing to take measures to cope with the COVID 19 pandemic has been confronted by increasing bottom up and horizontal social mobilisation which demands a transformation of state society relations and a new sense of Belarusian peoplehood The book outlines how the current situation has developed considers how the present demands for change are deep seated and long brewing trends and reveals much detail about many aspects of the growing societal mobilisation Overall the book demonstrates that although the old regime remains in power Belarusian society has changed fundamentally thereby bringing great hope that change will eventually come about Coercing, Constraining and Signalling Francesco Giumelli, 2011-09-13 The costs of military ventures and concern for human rights has increased the importance of international sanctions in the twenty first century but our knowledge is still limited in this area The United Nations sanctions on Libya Al Qaeda and Rwanda or the European Union restrictive measures on the US Transnistria and Uzbekistan are sparsely covered by the media and attempts to measure the effectiveness of any of these sanctions comes up against the fundamental unanswered question What can sanctions do and when This book undertakes an innovative approach that overcomes these problems by enhancing our understanding of how sanctions work and by explaining what we can expect from their imposition Through the analysis of the sanctioning experience of the United Nations and the European Union after the Cold War the investigation tests a comprehensive theoretical model and concludes that the context in which sanctions are imposed is a crucial element in deciding the type of sanctions adopted Giumelli shakes the pre constituted conceptions that we have on sanctions and sets the terms for more constructive debates in the future A History of Russia, Central Asia and Mongolia, Volume II David Christian, 2018-03-12 Provides an all encompassing look at the history of Russia Central Asia and Mongolia Beginning with the breakup of the Mongol Empire in the mid thirteenth century Volume II of this comprehensive work covers the remarkable history of Inner Eurasia from 1260 up to modern times completing the story begun in Volume I Volume II describes how agriculture spread through Inner Eurasia providing the foundations for new agricultural states including the Russian Empire It focuses on the idea of mobilization the distinctive ways in which elite groups mobilized resources from their populations and how those methods were shaped by the region s distinctive ecology which differed greatly from that of Outer Eurasia the southern half of Eurasia and the part of Eurasia most studied by historians This work also examines how fossil fuels created a bonanza of energy that helped shape the history of the Communist world during much of the twentieth century Filled with figures maps and tables to help give readers a fuller understanding of what has transpired over 750 years in this distinctive world region A History of Russia Central Asia and Mongolia Volume II Inner Eurasia from the Mongol Empire to Today 1260 2000 is a magisterial but accessible account of this area's past that will offer readers new insights into the history of an often misunderstood part of the world Situates the histories of Russia Central Asia and Mongolia within the larger narrative of world history Concentrates on the idea of Inner Eurasia as a coherent ecological and geographical zone Focuses on the powerful ways in which the region's geography shaped its history Places great emphasis on how mobilization played a major part in the development of the regions Offers a distinctive interpretation of modernity that highlights the importance of fossil fuels Offers new ways of understanding the Soviet era A History of Russia Central Asia and Mongolia Volume II is an ideal book for general audiences and for use in undergraduate and graduate courses in world history The Blackwell History of the World Series The goal of this ambitious series is to provide an accessible source of knowledge about the entire human past for every curious person in every part of the world It will comprise some two dozen volumes of which some provide synoptic views of the history of particular regions while others consider the world as a whole during a particular period of time The volumes are narrative in form giving balanced attention to social and cultural history in the broadest sense as well as to institutional development and political change Each provides a systematic account of a very large subject but they are also both imaginative and interpretative The Series is intended to be accessible to the widest possible readership and the accessibility of its volumes is matched by the style of presentation and production Rethinking the 'Coloured Revolutions' David Lane, Stephen White, 2013-09-13 The communist world was supposed to have had its revolution in 1989 But the demise of the Soviet Union came two years later at the end of 1991 and then perplexingly a series of irregular executive changes began to take place the following decade in countries that were already postcommunist The focus in this collection is the changes that took place in Serbia Georgia Ukraine and Kyrgyzstan between 2000 and 2005 that have together been called the coloured revolutions of no particular colour in Serbia but Rose in Georgia Orange in Ukraine and Tulip in Kyrgyzstan Apart from exploring political change in the coloured revolution countries themselves the contributors to this collection focus on countries that did not experience this kind of irregular executive change but which might otherwise be comparable Belarus and Kazakhstan among them and on reactions to democracy promotion in Russia and China Throughout an effort is made to avoid taking the coloured revolutions at face value however they may have been presented by local leaders and foreign governments with their own agendas and to place them within the wider literature of comparative politics This book was previously published as a special issue of Journal of Communist Studies and Transition Politics Health Systems And The Challenge Of Communicable Diseases: Experiences From Europe And Latin America Coker, Richard, Atun, Rifat, McKee, Martin, 2008-05-01 This fascinating book looks at two regions where rapid economic changes means that many health systems must undergo organisational transition and find ways of adapting to an ever changing context Pluralism by Default Lucan Way, 2021-05-04 Pluralism by Default will change the way we understand the emergence of democracies and the consolidation of autocracies Chrystia Freeland author of Plutocrats Exploring sources of political contestation in the former Soviet Union and beyond Pluralism by Default proposes that pluralism in new democracies is often grounded less in democratic leadership or emerging civil society and more in the failure of authoritarianism Dynamic competition frequently emerges because autocrats lack the state capacity to steal elections impose censorship or repress opposition In fact the same institutional failures that facilitate political competition may also thwart the development of stable democracy A tour de force brimming with theoretical originality and effective use of in depth case studies It will enrich our understanding of post communist politics and help reshape the way we think about democracy authoritarianism and regime change more broadly M Steven Fish author of Democracy Derailed in Russia The Failure of Open Politics Trust and Hedging in International Relations Kendall Stiles,2018-02-22 Revolutionary analysis of the risky role of trust in foreign policy through the assessment of European microstates and their partners IBSS: Political Science: 2004 Vol.52 The British Library of Political and Economic Science,2004-12 First published in 1952 the International Bibliography of the Social Sciences anthropology economics political science and sociology is well established as a major bibliographic reference for students researchers and librarians in the social sciences worldwide Key features Authority Rigorous standards are applied to make the IBSS the most authoritative selective bibliography ever produced Articles and books are selected on merit by some of the world s most expert librarians and academics Breadth Today the IBSS covers over 2000 journals more than any other comparable resource The latest monograph publications are also included International Coverage The IBSS reviews scholarship published in over thirty languages including publications from Eastern Europe and the developing world User friendly organization all non English titles are word sections Extensive author subject and place name indexes are provided in both English and French Russia-Eurasia Relations Merve Suna Ozel Ozcan,2023-04-03 After the Cold War a new era began in the Eurasian region with the countries that gained their independence from the USSR acquiring a place in the international system After 1991 the absence of strong international gravity in Russia increased the positive relations of many countries with the West As this book shows across the world there are regions caught between identity and power In this respect the ideological origin of the Russian Federation s foreign policy goals is connected with its position as a great power On this note the book analyses the great powers challenges in Eurasia within the framework of strategic interests conflict and cooperation Belarusian Review ,2005 Journal of Soviet and Post-Soviet Politics and Society Julie Fedor,Samuel Greene,Andre Härtel,Andrey Makarychev,Andreas Umland,2017-04-25 This special issue provides a forum for discussion of what Belarusian Studies are today and which new approaches and questions are needed to revitalize the field in the regional and international academic arena The major aim of the issue is to go beyond the narratives of dictatorship and authoritarianism as well as that of a never ending story of failed Belarusian nationalism interpretive schemes that are frequently used for understanding Belarus in scholarly literature in Western Europe and Northern America

Bringing together ongoing research based on original empirical material from Belarusian history politics and society this issue combines a discussion of the concept of autonomy agency with its applicability to trace how individual and collective actors who define themselves as Belarusian or otherwise have manifested their agendas in various practices in spite of and in reaction to state pressure This issue offers new approaches for interpreting Belarusian society as a dynamically changing set of agencies In doing so it attempts to overcome a tradition of locating present Belarusian political and social dilemmas in its socialist past

Developments in Central and East European Politics 4 Stephen White, Judy Batt, Paul G. Lewis, 2007 The face of Central and Eastern Europe has been dramatically transformed since the collapse of communism The region faces new challenges including the needs to find a balance between effective leadership and accountability and to reverse the economic decline of the late communist years Addressing these concerns and others Developments in Central and East European Politics 4 brings together specially commissioned chapters by leading scholars from both sides of the Atlantic The chapters all of which are new to this edition focus on key features of the political systems that have emerged following the transition to postcommunist rule and the enlargement of the European Union through 2006 Full attention is given to the pattern of events in individual nations but the main emphasis is on the framework of politics across the region constitutions leadership parliaments parties and electoral systems and the process of politics as it is revealed in political participation civil society economic change and the quality of democratic government within and beyond the region Clearly written and well supported with references and suggestions for further reading Developments in Central and East European Politics 4 is the ideal guide to the process of change in a group of states that were formerly modeled on the Soviet Union but are now a distinctive and varied presence within a continent that has been redefining its boundaries its values its economic systems and its international allegiances Contributors Judy Batt Dirk Berg Schlosser Sarah Birch Heather Grabbe Tim Haughton Krzysztof Jasiewicz Petr Kopeck Paul G Lewis Frances Millard Cas Mudde D Mario Nuti Mark Pittaway Ray Taras Stephen White Andrew Wilson Kataryna Wolczuk

EU and Belarus Ann Lewis, Federal Trust for Education and Research, 2002 Belarus is perhaps the least changed of all the former Soviet states with its authoritarian regime non liberalized economy and close links with Russia Yet following enlargement of the European Community it will be an immediate neighbor and a major crossing point between east and west whether for people drugs or energy supplies This book looks at Belarus's checkered history since independence its internal development and international relations and considers prospects for change both before and after enlargement with recommendations on how the European Union might best respond Contributors include a wide range of academics and officials professionals and practitioners from Belarus EU countries and beyond

Sociology and Post-Socialist Transformations in Eastern Europe Borut Roncevic, Tamara Besednjak Valič, 2024-11-28 The volume offers a unique and comprehensive reflection on the role of sociology and sociologists in the transformation of post socialist Eastern European societies It provides detailed insight on the status of sociology in Eastern Europe its institutional development specifics of national sociological traditions the controversial and ambiguous relationship with the political system and importantly state of the art knowledge about the role of sociology as a discipline and sociologists as academics educators public intellectuals experts politicians or civil society activists in three decades of transformation The volume follows a cultural political economy approach and provides a series of national case studies that analyse the role of sociology in re imagining Eastern European societies This topical volume is of interest to a wide interdisciplinary readership in the social sciences especially students and researchers working on Eastern Europe and on post socialist societies The Statesman's Yearbook 2009 B. Turner, 2017-01-12 This edition is fully updated and contains more information and analysis than ever before A foldout colour section provides a political world map and flags for all 193 countries Each copy comes with online access to the full text at no extra cost Unlimited user upgrades are also available for libraries who wish to network the data
