Contemporary Biography Women:

A Contemporary History of Women's Sport, Part One Jean Williams, 2014-04-24 This book is an historical survey of women's sport from 1850-1960. It looks at some of the more recent methodological approaches to writing sports history and raises questions about how the history of women's sport has so far been shaped by academic writers. Questions explored in this text include: What are the fresh perspectives and newly available sources for the historian of women's sport? How do these take forward established debates on women's place in sporting culture and what novel approaches do they suggest? How can our appreciation of fashion, travel, food and medical history be advanced by looking at women's involvement in sport? How can we use some of the current ideas and methodologies in the recent literature on the history and sociology of sport in order to look afresh at women's participation? Jean Williams's original research on these topics and more will be a useful resource for scholars in the fields of sports, women's studies, history and sociology.

The Northeastern Dictionary of Women's Biography Jennifer S. Uglow, 1999 The most comprehensive reference book of its kind with more than 60 new entries in this third edition.

History, Women and Gender in the Modern Middle East Lisa Pollard, Mona L. Russell, 2023-12-20 This introductory text explores the gendered history of the modern Middle East from the eighteenth century to the present, studying the various ways in which gender has defined the region and shaped relations in the modern era. The book captures three aspects of change simultaneously: the events that mark the modern Middle East, women's encounters with the transition to modernity and gendered responses to modernity. It contains both new fieldwork and a synthesis of secondary scholarship that highlight the role of gender in the modernization of Egypt, Turkey, Iran, the Levant and the Persian Gulf states. Chapters are organized chronologically to chart the rapid developments of the modern era, but each chapter also stands on its own with coverage of masculinity and femininity, sexuality, marriage and the family, labor and women's contributions to Arab Spring uprisings. Through this comprehensive account, the book pushes back on stereotypes that the Middle East is an ahistorical region and that women have not been vital actors in the process of change. Richly illustrated and accessible for a variety of readers, History, Women and Gender in the Modern Middle East is an ideal resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students in gender studies and Middle Eastern history.

FACETS OF CONTEMPORARY HISTORY M. Thilakavathy, R.K. Maya, 2019-06-05 This book Facets of Contemporary History is a selection of research papers presented in the International Conference on Contemporary History which was held on 30th and 31st January 2015. This conference was organized by the Department of History, Tourism and Travel Management, Ethiraj College for Women, Chennai. It gives us great pleasure to put together a selection of the papers for the public in the form of a book in the interest of research. Contemporary History refers to the history of the immediate past or that which can be expected to remain in living memory. While there are areas of history which have branched off from contemporary history such as social history and economic history, this conference took a very broad look at contemporary events from not just a historical but also a social science perspective This Book contains 6 Sections namely Political History Socio Cultural History Gender Economic History Environment and Tourism We would like to place on record the Management of the college for the moral and financial support extended in the conduct of the Conference and in the production of the book Thanks are due to our respected Chairman of the Trust Board Mr V M Muralidharan for all his support and encouragement Heartfelt thanks are due to Prof Dr Karu Nagarajan Member Secretary TAMIL NADU STATE COUNCIL FOR HIGHER EDUCATION for their generous financial Assistance towards the conduct of the Conference We would be failing in our duty if we do not thank the faculty of the Department of History Tourism and Travel Management for their support and encouragement in the conduct of the Conference
