Language Aesthetics of Modern African Drama Isaiah Ilo, 2013-11-13 The goal of this book is to initiate theoretical discussions on the popular subject of African literary language and the thrust of the contribution apart from theory building is the introduction of the Post indiginist concept next to the well known essentialist and hybrid concepts The study outlines a set of criteria for each aesthetic concept so that literary analysis based on the criteria will verify whether or not they are adequate for understanding explaining and describing African writers language usage It is expected that a language aesthetic theory in the African context may help in the study of individual writers styles and equally address a neglect of descriptive studies in African literary scholarship

Lusophone African theatre Mauritius and Reunion and the African diaspora      The Development of African Drama Michael Etherton, 2023-08-18 Originally published in 1982 this book explores concepts such as traditional performance and African theatre It analyses the links between drama and ritual and drama and music and diagnoses the confusions in our thought The reader is reminded that drama is never merely the printed word but that its existence as literature and in performance is necessarily different The analysis shows that literature tends to replace performance and drama removed from the popular domain becomes elitist The book s richness lies in the constantly stimulating analysis of art theatre as exemplified in protest plays in African adaptations and transpositions of such classical subjects as the Bacchae and Everyman in plays on African history on colonialism and neo colonialism The final chapters argue that the form of African drama needs to evolve as the content does      The Athenian Sun in an African Sky Kevin J. Wetmore, Jr., 2001-11-14 Western literature has become more influential in Africa since the independence of many of that continent s countries in the early 1960s In particular Greek tragedy has grown as model and inspiration for African theatre artists This work begins with a discussion of the affinity that modern day African playwrights have for ancient Greek tragedy and the factors that determine their choice of classical texts and topics The study concentrates on how African playwrights transplant the dramatic action and narrative of the Greek texts by rewriting both the performance codes and the cultural context The methods by which African playwrights have adapted Greek tragedy and the ways in which the plays satisfy the prevailing principles of both cultures are examined The plays are The Bacchae of Euripides by Wole Soyinka Song of a Goat by J P Clark The Gods Are Not to Blame by Ola Rotimi Guy Butler s Demea Efua Sutherland s Edufa Orestes by Athol Fugard The Song of Jacob Zulu by Tug Yourgrau Femi Osofisan s Tegonni Edward Kamau Brathwaite s Odale s Choice The Island by Fugard John Kani and Winston Ntshona and Sylvain Bemba s Black Wedding Candles for Blessed Antigone
