Nicholas R Bell examines contemporary wood art's historical roots and its rapid growth since the 1970s. Particular attention is given to the medium's development outside the studio craft movement and how that dynamic has shaped the current field. An interview with Fleur Bresler by former Renwick Curator in Charge Kenneth R Trapp offers a window on the collector's passion and highlights her twenty-five year dedication to wood and to the artists she considers family. The final section, Wood Art at the Renwick Gallery, illustrates in color over two hundred works by more than one hundred artists making this premier public collection available in print for the first time. From James Prestini's original gift of twenty pieces before the Renwick's opening to experimental works by current artists, this guide to the Smithsonian's collection will serve as a reference for years to come.
