Consolation At Ground Zero:

Lessons from Ground Zero Jay Perkins, 2017-09-08 It ranked among journalism's finest hours That is what was heard in the weeks following September 11 2001 They made mistakes of course but in covering one of the biggest disasters ever to hit the United States journalists used their training their experience their understanding and their sensitivity to provide coverage that helped bring understanding and a sense of calm to the chaos Their performance did not end with reporting the immediate impact of the catastrophe They continued to analyze what happened the impact to property and human lives the impact on government and foreign relations Lessons from Ground Zero examines journalism's efforts to cover a crisis while analyzing journalism itself Many lessons were evident to journalists as they sought to cope with the challenges of covering 9 11 The long term question however is whether the answers they found served as catalysts for better journalism in the future or whether they have been forgotten put into the closet of old memories with no noticeable long term impact This book analyzes journalists response to 9 11 through scholarly research and interviews with many of the journalists who covered 9 11 Sometimes they do not agree but all are thoughtful and each adds to understanding Public opinion polls show clearly that citizens appreciated and responded to media coverage Given that this occurred in a time frame in which public approval of American journalism had declined it is reasonable to ask what the media did that was different from their normal practices This book provides some of the answers

God @ Ground Zero Ray Giunta, 2002-09-04 Amazing stories of how God triumphed in the lives of many who were devastated by 9 11

The Politics of Consolation Christina Simko, 2015 What meaning can be found in calamity and suffering This question is in some sense perennial reverberating through the canons of theology philosophy and literature Today The Politics of Consolation reveals it is also a significant part of American political leadership Faced with uncertainty shock or despair Americans frequently look to political leaders for symbolic and existential guidance for narratives that bring meaning to the confrontation with suffering loss and finitude Politicians in turn increasingly recognize consolation as a cultural expectation and they often work hard to fulfill it The events of September 11 2001 raised these questions of meaning powerfully How were Americans to make sense of the violence that unfolded on that sunny Tuesday morning This book examines how political leaders drew upon a long tradition of consolation discourse in their effort to interpret September 11 arguing that the day's events were mediated through memories of past suffering in decisive ways It then traces how the struggle to define the meaning of September 11 has continued in foreign policy discourse commemorative ceremonies and the contentious redevelopment of the World Trade Center site in lower Manhattan

Power at Ground Zero Lynne B. Sagalyn, 2016 The destruction of the World Trade Center complex on 9 11 set in motion a chain of events that fundamentally transformed both the United States and the wider world In Power at Ground Zero Lynne Sagalyn offers the definitive account of one of the greatest reconstruction projects in modern world history the rebuilding of lower Manhattan after 9 11

Into The Tunnel Steven G. Kellman, Irving Malin, 1998 During its twenty five years as a work in progress William H Gass's mammoth magnum opus became a legend of the literary world the Sasquatch of contemporary American fiction Along with an included interview with the author the contributors to this study help situate Gass's challenging narrative within the remarkable career of a notable philosopher essayist and author of fiction Contributors examine the book's quarrel with history its engagement with issues of ethics and aesthetics its representation of personality its distinctive style and structure its sophisticated metafictional texture along with much else What is going on in The Tunnel is not always immediately apparent but the essays included in here tease out its secrets and concentrate our attention on details of an exasperating and exhilarating literary achievement

Consolation at Ground Zero Brooke Horvath, 1995 Sixteen scholars critically examine the image of African Americans in the media and the messages which evolve from mediated representations e.g. the relationship between black men and the police or the perpetuation of an African American stereotype as poor violent and undereducated Analyzing film print television radio and music the discussions are timely and range topically from Spike Lee and the new ghetto aesthetic to the O J Simpson trial and rap music Paper edition unseen 1995 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

The Ground Zero Cross Brian J. Jordan, 2017-05-12 Two days after the terrible attack against the World Trade Center on September 11 2001 a union construction worker made a remarkable discovery within the ruins of World Trade Center 6 He saw a cross like beam that stood on top of a heap of debris He was stunned by its significance as were countless others after him The purpose of this book is to trace the thirteen year odyssey of this iconic cross from World Trade Center 6 to its position atop a concrete abutment within the World Trade Center during the recovery and rebuilding period to the outside wall of St Peter's Roman Catholic Church across from Ground Zero and finally to the National 9 11 Memorial Museum where it remains today The odyssey also includes a three year legal battle whose appellate decision found that the Constitution of the United States does not preclude the presence of the Ground Zero cross within the National 9 11 Memorial Museum This book is the author's personal memoir He is a Franciscan priest who through many uncertain days was the unofficial guardian of the Ground Zero cross The concurrent themes of the book treat spirituality grief sharing selfless sacrifice architecture church history biblical theology and litigation The book tells the story of many obstacles transcended on the way to the triumph of the Ground Zero cross

At Times Brooke Horvath, 2020-08-11 Over thirty years of poems from an American poet in the spirit of Alan Dugan and Nelson Algren's Chicago City on the Make At times I wanted to be a poet A fittingly sly and humble epigraph for this half a lifetime's worth of sly and humble and also lyrical and joyous poems From the first poem in the collection The Woman in the Peter Pan Collar in which the poet examines an old photograph of his mother searching for clues to the last Rainouts in which he beseeches the Lord to let his own death take place on the sort of day that strands baseball games mid inning leaving all final decisions happily deferred Brooke Horvath is always intimate never rhetorical or bland This is poetry not just for the sake of poetry but poetry as a way of life of engaging with the world Like the works of Alan Dugan or Galway Kinnell these are poems of the everyday and when read slantwise of what lies beyond The whole collection in fact is imbued with the wily double meaning of the final couplet from What in the World Were We Thinking Of It was a day when nothing happened that we will find worth remembering

Firestorm Stephen Prince, 2009-08-06 It was believed that September 11th would make certain kinds of films obsolete such as action thrillers crackling with explosions or high casualty blockbusters where the hero escapes unscathed While the production of these films did ebb the full impact of the attacks on Hollywood's creative output is still taking shape Did 9/11 force filmmakers and screenwriters to find new methods of storytelling What kinds of movies have been made in response to 9/11 and are they factual Is it even possible to practice poetic license with such a devastating broadly felt tragedy Stephen Prince is the first scholar to trace the effect of 9/11 on the making of American film From documentaries like Fahrenheit 9/11 2004 to zombie flicks and from fictional narratives such as The Kingdom 2007 to Mike Nichols's Charlie Wilson's War 2007 Prince evaluates the extent to which filmmakers have exploited explained understood or interpreted the attacks and the Iraq War that followed including incidents at Abu Ghraib He begins with pre 9/11 depictions of terrorism such as Alfred Hitchcock's Sabotage 1936 and follows with studio and independent films that directly respond to 9/11 He considers documentary portraits and conspiracy films as well as serial television shows most notably Fox's 24 and made for TV movies that represent the attacks in a broader more intimate way Ultimately Prince finds that in these triumphs and failures an exciting new era of American filmmaking has taken shape

Religion at Ground Zero Christopher Craig Brittain, 2011-07-14 The world will never be the same How many times have human beings uttered this cry after a tragic event This book analyzes how such emotive reactions impact on the way religion is understood exploring theological responses to human tragedy and cultural shock by focusing on reactions to the terrorist attacks of 9/11 and 7/7 the two World Wars and the Holocaust the 2004 South East Asian tsunami Hurricane Katrina and the 2010 earthquake in Haiti It discusses themes such as the theodicy question the function of religious discourse in the face of tragedy and the relationship between religion and politics The book explores the tension between religion's capacity to both cause and enhance the suffering and destruction surrounding historical tragedies but also its potential to serve as a powerful resource for responding to such disasters Analyzing this dialectic it engages with the work of Slavoj Žižek Karl Barth Theodor Adorno Emil Fackenheim and Rowan Williams examining the role of belief difficulties of overcoming the influence of

We Are at War Vitalis Chi Nwaneri, 2013-03-07 VITALIS CHIDOMERE NWANERI brings to these five Books his experience in Religion Economics Politics Science Philosophy and exposure in various advanced and developing countries across the globe He acquired his experience from the Graduate School of The London School of Economics and Political Science University of London 1962-1968 He joined the United Kingdom Government after his graduation and quickly rose to the position of an Economic Adviser He left the Government in 1971 to join the World Bank in Washington D C U S A He worked there till 1980 and rose to the position of a Senior Economist 1980

At the World Bank he traveled extensively across the globe and gained exposure and firsthand experience on some of the major Political Economic and Social Development problems across the globe. In some of his economic and political analyses in the World Bank he confronted some of these Economic Political Religious and Philosophical issues in some countries in Asia Middle East Africa including such countries as Afghanistan Iraq Syria Iran Tunisia and Libya where he worked. Therefore he was not surprised with the on going crises and wars in these countries because of his concerns over their lack of Christian pillars of modern civilization democracy and governance. His experience and exposure had inspired his analyses in these four books. Back in Nigeria in 1980 he became one of the countrys pioneers in Indigenous Banking and the Establishment of the First African Commodity Exchange. During his twenty years in Nigeria 1980-2000 he embarked on the audacious mission of bringing his global exposure and experience to contribute to the development of Nigerias Finance and Private sectors to lead its National Development. His Book on MISSION 2000 highlights his audacious dream for Nigerias Private sector to lead the Countrys emergence in the global world of the new century. The Book also reflected the views he promoted while working as a Consultant for the Nigeria Government The World Bank African Development Bank and The U S A I D. His pioneering projects in Nigerias Banking and Trade sectors exposed him to the weakness of Nigerias Politics and Governance. So he decided to take a shot at Nigerian Politics. Michigan Quarterly Review, 1999

Report from Ground Zero Dennis Smith, 2003-02-25. The tragic events of September 11 2001 forever altered the American landscape both figuratively and literally.
