European Contract Law* Stefan Grundmann, 2008-01-01 Two major developments in European Private and European Business Law come together when we speak about Constitutional Values and European Contract Law European Contract Law has become extremely dynamic over the last 10 years both in substance and perspective all core areas are considered now in legal science and in EC legislation and there are even the prospects of some kind of codification On the other hand constitutional values and their impact on private law have been an issue of high concern in major Member States over decades namely Italy and Germany but as well the Netherlands hence the strong presence of scholars and practising lawyers from these countries in this book Constitutional values have however found their way to the EC level and the national discussions have inspired a European one with three core values discussed Fundamental Freedoms fundamental rights and constitutional system building principles such as the social welfare state or the rule of law Their impact on private law can be sensed nowadays quite considerably also on the European level These fundamental values are often seen as the ingredient which renders European Private Law namely European Contract Law more responsive to social values or more humane For all these reasons the book combines comparative law EC Law and interdisciplinary approaches to the question Constitutional Values and European Contract Law Outstanding scholars from six Member States and beyond quite a few also practising

Private Financial Transactions Mel Kenny, James Devenney, Lorna Fox O'Mahony, 2010-06-24 Given the unprecedented recent turmoil on financial markets we now face radically challenged post Lehmann assumptions on protecting the vulnerable in financial transactions This collection of essays explores conceptions of and responses to unconscionability and similar notions across Europe with specific reference to financial transactions It presents a detailed analysis of concepts of unconscionability in Europe against a backdrop of Commission initiatives aimed variously at securing a single market in financial services producing greater coherence in EC consumer protection law and consolidating European private law This analysis illustrates for example that concepts of unconscionability depend on context and can be shaped by a variety of factors It also illustrates that jurisdictions may choose to respond to questions of unconscionability through a variety of legal instruments located in different branches of the law rather than through a single doctrine Thus this collection illuminates many of the obstacles facing harmonisation in this area Weak Viability Jonathan Morrow, 2006 A WORLD DIVIDED- well structured content tailored to meet the needs of students across various streams and levels The Constitutional Dimension of Contract Law Luca Siliquini-Cinelli, Andrew Hutchison, 2017-04-06 One of the hallmarks of the present era is the discourse surrounding Human Rights and the need for the law to recognise them Various national and supranational human rights instruments have been developed and implemented in order to transition society away from atrocity and callousness toward a more just and inclusive future In some countries this is done by means of an overarching constitution while in others international conventions or ordinary legislation hold sway Contract law plays a pivotal role in this context According to many this is done through the much debated civilising mission of the contract a notion which itself constitutes the canon of the Western liberal principle of civilised economy The movement away from the belief in the absolute freedom of contract which reached its zenith in the nineteenth century to the principles of fairness and justice that underpin contract law today is often deemed to be a testament to this civilising influence Delving into the interplay between human rights policies constitutional law and contract law from both theoretical and practical perspectives this first volume of a two book collection offers a totally new reappraisal of the subject by gathering a collection of essays written by contract law scholars from Europe South Africa Canada and Australia Instead of providing the reader with a sterile compilation of positivistic norms and policies on the impact of fundamental rights and constitutional law issues on contract law s development the authors build on their personal experience to analyse specific topics related to contracting that include a constitutional dimension The book fills an important void in comparative law scholarship and in so doing represents the starting point for further debate on the subject Encyclopaedia of Dalits In India (Human Rights) Sanjay Paswan, 2002 Dalits or the downtrodden have been referred to in history as people without history of their own which certainly is untrue and illogical notwithstanding the fact that they have been a marginalised lot in their own land and treated as mere objects Even scholars and academics have treated them as subjects for their research in social sciences anthropology and philanthropy Hence there are very few objective studies or works of worth in this discipline This research based extensive comprehensive authentic and analytical series is a merited endeavour in order to fill the gap The Encyclopaedia is divided into eleven volumes in a logical and issue based order with almost all related and relevant issues covered extensively And that makes these volumes a must for all scholars and researchers engaged in the areas concerned European Consumer Protection James Devenney, Mel Kenny, 2012-04-05 This topical volume provides detailed analyses of European consumer protection law in both its theoretical and practical dimensions Part I casts a critical light over consumer protection strategies and mechanisms in the EU Part II critically explores responses to vulnerability and Part III contextualises aspects of European consumer protection law
