The Politics of Privatisation and Trade Union Mobilisation Pablo Ghigliani, 2010 This is a comparative study of how workers and their unions respond to privatisation Drawing upon research from a variety of disciplines the author examines the push toward privatisation in diverse national settings its profound impact on organised labour and the often innovative responses of workers and their unions in the affected industries By means of a detailed analysis of the privatisation of the electricity industries in the United Kingdom and Argentina and the various initiatives of workers and their trade unions in these two countries this book offers an engaging comparative case study that sheds new light on key issues in contemporary labour studies the strategic choices available to workers and their organisations when faced with the radical restructuring of their industries the types of resources available to trade unions and how they are mobilised and the impact of widespread worker unrest on their organisations This book also provides fresh insight into the use of mobilisation theory in the field of labour studies The author employs mobilisation theory to make sense of worker and trade union responses to privatisation and he argues that this theoretical framework can be useful for cross national comparisons

Public Administration and Development United Nations, 1997 This publication addresses the complex questions of improving accountability responsiveness and legal frameworks in the public sector particularly in developing countries The topics covered include the role of the State and the future of public services faced with the problems of transition and development the institutional implications of changing policy management the role and scope of public administration in Central and Eastern European countries recent changes in Asian public service in a context of privatisation a Latin American view of urban transportation as a socio economic policy what form of administration for what State The annexes include the Resolution adopted by the General Assembly UN on Public Administration and Development Highlights of the General Assembly Resumed Session on Public Administration and Development and the historical background of the

IIAS and the UN The Political Economy of Rural Livelihoods in Transition Economies Max Spoor, 2009 These chapters reflect the striking differences between transition countries in their processes of rural reform and development of rural poverty Measurement of Fiscal Impact International Monetary Fund, 1988-06-16 This paper describes methodological issues pertaining to measurement of fiscal impact The fiscal deficit is under any circumstances a crude tool for assessing the impact of fiscal policy on the economy This paper also analyzes various ways in which the conventional definition of the fiscal deficit is affected by high rates of inflation It has shown that as the rate of inflation rises the picture emerging from the conventional measure may under certain circumstances become somewhat blurred since the conventional measure may magnify the size of the fiscal adjustment that a country need In fact the size of the debt service that compensates bondholders for the reduction in the real value of their assets arising from inflation should be made explicit so as to indicate that part of the deficit whose impact depends mainly on portfolio decisions regarding the public's demand for government bonds and on the potential effects of these bonds on the monetary and liquidity conditions of the economy

Transition and Economics Gérard Roland, 2000 The transition from socialism to capitalism in former socialist economies has transformed the economic structure This book provides an overview of research on the issues raised by the shift from collective to private ownership Annual World Bank Conference on Development Economics Regional 2007 François Bourguignon, Boris Pleskovic, 2007-01-01 Global Development Finance GDF is the World Bank's annual review of recent trends in and prospects for financial flows to developing countries It is an indispensable resource for governments economists investors financial consultants academics bankers and the entire development community Vol I Analysis and Outlook reviews recent trends in financial flows to developing countries Also available as a two volume set Vol II Summary and Country Tables includes comprehensive data for 138 countries as well as summary data for regions and income groups

Privatization and Democratic Governance Timothy John Goodman, 1998 Privatization George K. Yarrow, Piotr Jasinski, 1996 Economic Interdependence and Cooperation in Europe Nicholas C. Baltas, George Demopoulos, Joseph Hassid, 2012-12-06 Economic integration is the most noteworthy development in international economic policy at the end of this century Enthusiasm for the European Union has been infectious Yet there are many aspects for the EU that still remain obscure and which warrant further careful scrutiny The subject of this book is the examination of the inherent economic and political inefficiencies in the transition process of Central and East European countries which are apt to slow down its pace divert it from its proper course and in some cases even endanger its sustainability The authors of the contributions in this book economists and political scientists investigate the applicability of the hypothesis of mutual benefits resulting from countries in transition becoming open to international trade and investment Government Sponsored Enterprises United States. Congress. House. Committee on Banking and Financial Services. Subcommittee on Capital Markets, Securities, and Government Sponsored Enterprises, 1997 Housing Enterprises DIANE Publishing Company, 1996-12 The Federal National

Mortgage Assoc Fannie Mae the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corp Freddie Mac are government sponsored enterprises with about 1.4 trillion in combined obligations as of Dec 1995 This report was produced in response to growing concern about the potential risk that these obligations represent to taxpayers increasing questions about the continued need for their government sponsored status It responds to the questions concerning the implications of privatizing Fannie Mae the Freddie Mac allowing them to operate as private corporations

Privatization and Regulatory Reform Alejandro Ibarra Yunez,1998

Oversight of the Federal National Mortgage Association (Fannie Mae) and the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (Freddie Mac) United States. Congress. House. Committee on Banking and Financial Services. Subcommittee on Capital Markets, Securities, and Government Sponsored Enterprises,1996

Privatization in Competitive Sectors Sunita Kikeri,John R. Nellis,2002 Takes stock of the empirical evidence on privatization outcomes during the 1990s Includes an annotated bibliography of studies notably their methodology and main findings

The Financial Economics of Privatization William L. Megginson,2005-01-13 Since 1981 over 100 governments around the world have raised over 1 trillion through the sale of SOEs to private investors Privatization programs have transformed the role of the state in virtually all major economies and have massively increased the capitalization and liquidity of all non U S stock markets The focus of this book lies on where privatization stands today and what are the next frontiers the why and how behind countries who privatize certain industries whether privatization works as an economic tool and important insights relevant to financial institutions such as how to value privatized industries how share offerings differ from private offerings and how countries go about harnessing private capital The book will also represent a key and unique source for information related to the details of asset sales privatization a summary of statistics of privatized companies from 54 international stock exchanges regulatory changes and sources for privatization information for investors government officials bankers and financial specialists The volume will serve as an invaluable reference for professionals and as a core or supplementary text in privatization courses
