Contemporary Issues In Regional Development Policy Perspectives From:

Contemporary Issues in Regional Development Policy Wilbert Gooneratne, Robert A. Obudho, 1997 This work is about the increasing relevance of a local regional approach to recovery and sustainable growth in Sub Saharan Africa It explores the untapped potentials of such an approach and identifies some of the conditions critical to the realization of this potential

Circular Migration in Zimbabwe & Contemporary Sub-Saharan Africa Deborah Helen Potts, 2010 The World Bank insists that the urban share of sub Saharan Africa's population is rapidly increasing this study shows that in many countries this is no longer true as migration strategies have adapted in response to economic and political change Circular migration whereby rural migrants do not remain permanently in town has particular significance in the academic literature on development and urbanization in Africa often having negative connotations in southern Africanist studies due to its links with an iniquitous migrant labour system Literature on other African regions often views circular migration more positively This book reviews the current evidence about circular migration and urbanization in sub Saharan Africa The author challenges the dominant view that rural urban migration continues unabated and shows that circular migration has continued and has adapted with faster out migration in the face of declining urban economic opportunities The empirical core of the book illustrates these trends through a detailed examination of the case of Zimbabwe based on the author's longstanding research on Harare The political and economic changes in Zimbabwe since the 1980s transformed Harare from one of the best African cities to live in over this period to one of the worst Harare citizens' livelihoods exemplify in microcosm the central theme of the book the re-invention of circulation and rural urban links in response to economic change Deborah Potts is a Senior Lecturer in the Geography Department of King's College London She works in the broad research field of urbanization and migration in sub Saharan Africa particularly southern Africa and has conducted research on these themes in Harare in Zimbabwe since 1985 Southern Africa South Africa Botswana Lesotho Swaziland Namibia and Zimbabwe

Regional Development: Theory and Practice Baleshwar Thakur, H.S. Sharma, Suresh Misra, S. Chattopadhyay, Surendra Singh, 2017-01-01 The Five Volume Series on Regional Development Theory and Practice is a festschrift dedicated to Professor R P Misra a distinguished scholar widely recognized as one of the pioneers who initiated and promoted Regional Planning studies in India This five volume series with over one hundred research papers on different aspects of regional development is a fitting tribute to the scholar who spent much of his life time thinking researching and writing about development in general and regional development in particular These five volumes each dealing with a specific aspect of regional development Vol 1 Concept of Regional Development Vol 2 Measuring Development Vol 3 Development Patterns and Structures Vol 4 Development Policies and Vol 5 Development Challenges Each of the five volumes begins with an introduction which is unique in the sense that this is not merely an introduction to the contributions contained in the volume but also talks of the theory of regional development contemporary development in the discipline and the contrarian views expressed by various academics and policy makers Another significant aspect of these introductions is the global view and a comparative scenario of the developed developing and under developed economies of the world that the editors have kept in view in a debate seeking an universal theory of regional development Regions are specifics and often unique and regional development implies focusing on the assets of the territory its potential and constraints

European Regional Development Paweł Churski, Tomasz Herodowicz, Barbara Konecka-Szydłowska, Robert Perdał, 2021-11-18 This book offers a comprehensive overview of contemporary issues of regional development It places particular emphasis on its socio economic and socio political determinants which accompany the problem of existing and ever widening differences in the level of regional development in various parts of Europe In order to diagnose the scale of those differences and to indicate the main forces behind the divergence of development the authors propose an original systematisation of regional development factors drawing attention to the need to consider them within the framework of present day socio economic megatrends The proposed approach to the development factors is also used for the author's operationalisation of the concept of territorial capital which is at the centre of regional place based policy The wide spatial aspect of the analysis national and local and its extensive temporal scope 2004 2019 yields unique results and creates an important element of added value for this book which shows the regularities of the process of regional development in Europe at three spatial levels pan European national and intra regional Furthermore it indicates the challenges faced by regionalists who attempt to carry out research on different territorial levels with a diverse number of units 205 EU regions 16 Polish voivodeships 2 478 Polish local units and extended observation periods 2004 2017 The solutions proposed by the authors who show the potential of overcoming the barriers resulting from limited access to complete and comparable statistical data series should be inspiring for many researchers The unique results of direct research carried out on a large sample of respondents and entrepreneurs via diverse field research techniques constitute a valuable source of information on local conditions that impact contemporary development processes in less developed regions Their value is even greater because they were carried out in a unique laboratory created by the authors for testing the regularity of formation and impact of socio economic development factors in various locally determined conditions of this process It consists of purposefully selected test units LAU2 Located in a less developed region they represent all growth types and functional test units identified in the course of the research Consequently the results obtained may be generalised and applied to other areas showing similar features of territorial capital The monograph is addressed primarily to a wide group of regionalists connected with economic and social sciences as well as to practitioners involved in the implementation of development policies at various levels

Contemporary Issues in Soviet Foreign Policy Fleron, This survey of writings on the debates about and events relating to Soviet foreign policy concentrates on the Gorbachev period Changes in Soviet theory and foreign policy decision making are covered in the first section Twelve articles examine Gorbachev's policy towards a number of different geographic regions and several more assess the permanence of Gorbachev's foreign policy changes

Decentralization in Ethiopia Taye Assefa, Tegegne Gebre-Egziabher, 2007 The 1991 government change in Ethiopia ushered in a centralised system of governance aimed to bring about harmony and cooperation between different groups and to promote local self rule It has proceeded in two phases 1991 2001 centred on creating and powering National Regional Governments termed mid level decentralisation Further powers were devolved in 2001 through the District Level Decentralization Program and Urban Management Program This volume brings together studies by the Forum for Social Studies and others with the aim of identifying knowledge gaps for further research and to generate debate on the issues in Ethiopia The study is in two parts a literature review seeking to document existing studies and highlight research gaps and field work which involved a rapid assessment of eight weredas and two kifle ketemas in Addis Ababa The other three studies are synopses of master theses submitted to the Institute of Regional and Local Development Studies of Addis Ababa University

Regional Development and Its Spatial Structure Dadao Lu, 2024-02-20 This book describes the progress and prominent theories of regional development research in the past decades especially in the past decade discusses the industrial structure spatial structure resources and environment as well as a series of practical issues and reveals the general characteristics of spatial structure evolution in the process of regional development The research on the issues of regional development has become the frontier of relevant disciplines since the 1950s and much progress has been made in the process of solving practical problems in social and economic development This book provides an in depth and systematic demonstration of the point axis system theory of regional exploitation and development as well as the T shaped structure of China's regional economic action in theory and practice and discusses the impact of location differential rent restricted accessibility technological innovation etc on regional development theoretically This book is used as a reference for planning scientific research and teaching personnel in territorial expansion regional economy human geography etc

Regional Policy and Regional Planning in Ghana Sam Ofori, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2002 This work is about the socio economic and spatial impacts of planning policy aimed at improving the living standards and well being of the regional communities of Ghana Implicit the effectiveness assessment of regional planning practice It is set within the context of the new national planning system and offers strategic opportunities and challenges Characteristically the national and regional policies and contacts are probed and the lack of formal regional plan making stressed The author critically analyzes the problem of socio economic and spatial disparities over the mid 60s to the early 1990s explaining the observed changes The latter is differentiatingly done in terms of relevant theories and the empirics undertaken These include the fashion of perception and conceptualization of development Change is based on one off micro projects at the regional level and a meso regional project within a sub regional context Dr Ofori equally stresses the implementations and local management of the planning policies and programmes Inclusive in the dynamics behind the processes is the role of partnership A further distinctive contribution is the identification of opportunities for planning intervention and policy recommendations for a better change in the future towards making things happen Regional Analysis and Policy Harry Coccossis, Yannis Psycharis, 2008-08-02 Regional development is attracting the attention of policy makers and scientists again as regions urban centers and rural areas experience substantial pressures particularly in Europe as a consequence of globalization and geopolitical changes which lead to changes in spatial structures and dynamics This book is based on the contributions of Greek regional science research presented at the 2006 Congress of the European Regional Science Association at Volos Greece The contributions selected to be presented in this book address these changes offering a fresh look into regional development They provide an overview of regional development concerns from Greek regional scientists but the issues discussed pervade Greek particularities and stimulate thinking about regional science regional development and regional policy in the early twenty first century Perspectives on Rural Tourism

Geographies Rhonda L. Koster, Doris A. Carson, 2019-03-14 This book examines rural tourism across three different contexts acknowledging the complexity of rural places It applies a systematic comparative framework across nine case studies from Australia Canada and Sweden The case studies address the uniqueness of different rural spaces while the framework incorporates many theoretical aspects from human geography including spatial historic institutional demographic socio economic and network perspectives In the course of applying this comparative case study framework the book identifies numerous implications for planning and policy in rural settings These contributions from international expert authors help to identify the opportunities and challenges that affect rural regions from places at the urban fringe to exotic remote spaces and taking in the boring bits in between Both the analysis and the framework used will be of value to scholars and students of rurality tourism regional development rural policy geography and destination management Readers will gain a deeper understanding of the rural context in developed countries and a robust conceptualization of rural tourism geographies

For the City Yet to Come AbdouMalik Simone, 2004-10-07 A study of how colonial and postcolonial legacies manifest in African cities and African urban planning Directory of Published Proceedings, 2004 Mobilizing Regions, Mobilizing Europe Sebastian M. Buettner, 2013-10-23 Regional development strategies are becoming more similar all around Europe even though regional differences are more pronounced than ever and many European regions have become more autonomous actors This thesis of a peculiar standardized diversification of sub national space in the modern European Union is the point of departure of this book Based upon the analytical premises of Stanford School Sociological Institutionalism Sebastian M Buettner studies regional mobilization in contemporary Europe from a new and innovative perspective He highlights the importance of scientific expertise and global scientific models in contemporary regional development practice and exemplifies their significance with the example of region building in Poland in the course of EU integration This new wave of regional mobilization is not just conceived as an effect of local national or European politics but as an expression of a larger conceptual shift in governing society and space This well researched and clearly argued book not only provides fresh insights into region building and regionalization in contemporary European space but also contributes to the new sociology of Europeanization It will be an illuminating read for scholars and students in Sociology European and EU studies International Relations Cultural Studies Geography Regional Science Polish Studies and related subject areas Contemporary Issues in Regional Planning John Glasson,2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2002 Regional planning and government in the UK is undergoing a period of tremendous activity with a wide range of new policies innovative techniques and experiments being tested This volume provides an overview of developments describing and analyzing the legislative political and economic contexts within which changes are occurring and assessing the continuing difficulties that face planners and others operating in the new arrangements for regional planning Place Branding and Marketing from a Policy Perspective

Vincent Mabillard,Martial Pasquier,Renaud Vuignier,2023-12-04 As part of an emerging literature on place branding this book fills the important gap between practice oriented literature which lacks in depth and critical analysis and technical academic literature which tends to miss down to earth practitioners concerns and to overlook policy and political contexts Providing frameworks and knowledge on how to practice place branding effectively this book anchors place branding practices in a solid analytical framework It presents place branding practices through the lenses of public sector marketing strategic management and governance processes and structures as well as communication tools Marketing a place is more than creating a logo and a motto this book presents the key strategic aspects to be considered when promoting a place Readers will gain knowledge about the most important features of place promotion the development of brands and marketing campaigns in the public sector the establishment of dedicated politico administrative structures and the increasing involvement of various stakeholders that play a central role as place promoters This book will be a valuable resource for researchers and postgraduate students across place branding marketing and management and urban studies as well as public management administration and policy The practical conclusions discussed in the book will also appeal to practitioners business consultants and people working in public administration and politics DISADVANTAGED GROUPS:

A SOCIAL POLICY PERSPECTIVE Deniz SAY ŞAHİN, Sevinç PEHLİVAN SÜTLÜ,2022-01-19 Universal Declaration of Human Rights begins as All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights and Everyone is entitled to all the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration without distinction of any kind such as race colour sex language religion political or other opinion national or social origin property birth or other status But some segments of the society have more rights and freedoms than others Although the Others have been given names such as Groups that Need Special Protection they are now called Disadvantaged Groups and include children young people addicts the elderly the disabled immigrants minorities ex convicts women single parent families the poor Considering that the majority of the world s population consists of children young people women and the elderly it is obvious that the problems of disadvantaged groups are actually the problems of society Although the groups are counted individually a person is in more than one group The disadvantaged poor child can
