Contemporary Islamic Revival A Critical Survey And Bibliography:

Contemporary Islamic Revival Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad, 1991      The Contemporary Islamic Revival Yvonne Y. Haddad, John O. Voll, John L. Esposito, 1991-08-30 The Islamic revival in recent decades has generated a growth industry in books and periodical literature on contemporary Islam This partially annotated bibliography lists available literature on the Islamic revival published in English between 1970 and 1988 Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad and her colleagues also provide background information and a special bibliography on women Islamic banking and Muslims in Europe and the United States Three introductory chapters provide an overview of the field of Islamic revival studies from varying perspectives The bibliography includes academic and primary sources many of which have been annotated Some pre 1970 entries are included since they are the only available sources on particular subjects Many entries are classified according to geographical areas and subdivided by specific country when appropriate For comparative studies of international scope entries on activities in China the Soviet Union parts of Southeast Asia and Sub Saharan Africa are included as well as entries on Muslims in Europe and North America and Islamic institutions in the West This work is an important reference tool for students and scholars of Islam and the Middle East      The Islamic Revival Since 1988 Yvonne Y. Haddad, John L. Esposito, 1997-07-16 Designed as a useful reference tool to help students educators and diplomats maneuver through scholarly literature as well as primary sources published in English between 1989 and 1994 this work seeks to help the researcher make sense of the explosion of literature on this often contentious topic In addition to surveying the literature on Islamic revival worldwide it provides commentary on literature pertaining to important topics such as the role of women in Islam Islamic economics and the migration of Muslims to western Europe and North America This work is a continuation of the first edition published by Greenwood in 1991 IThe Contemporary Islamic Revival R Governments policymakers and experts around the world are debating whether contemporary Islamic revival in particular Islamic Fundamentalism is a diverse and multifaceted phenomenon or a uniformly clear and present danger to be consistently and persistently repressed or eradicated Some propose that there are means of cooperation collaboration or co optation with those who adhere to it while others see it as a menace warning of a clash of civilizations and of an Islamic population explosion which poses a demographic threat to national security and world peace      Islamic Revivalism Jan A. Ali, 2012-06 Contemporary Islamic revivalism is a multi dimensional and multi faceted phenomenon This book explores this phenomenon through an ethnographic study of the world s largest Islamic revivalist movement the Tabligh Jama at Convey message of Islam Group The basic contention of the book is that contemporary Islamic revivalism is a defensive reaction to the crisis of modernity yet it is neither anti modernity nor does it seek modernity s destruction Rather it highlights that Muslims are in a crisis They face the threat of losing their faith and identity in modernity because according to the revivalist Muslims the true Islamic practice no longer constitutes the foundation of everyday Muslim living To preclude this from reaching a point of no return Islamic revivalist movements like the Tabligh Jama'at are engaged in encouraging Muslims to return to the true teachings of Islam and restoring the Islamic glory that once was the envy of the world. This volume highlights the veritable sectarian intensity with which Tablighis undertake this restorative work. Political Islam: Oxford Bibliographies Online Research Guide John O. Islamic Resurgence in South Africa Abdulkader Tayob, 1995. Intellectual Origins of Islamic Resurgence in the Modern Arab World Ibrahim M. Abu-Rabi', 1996-01-01. A systematic treatment of the religious, intellectual, cultural, and social foundations of the Islamic resurgence in the modern Arab world that is grounded in the larger context of Arab and Islamic intellectual history. Sufism in Europe and North America David Westerlund, 2004-07-31. Today there is a substantial and rapidly growing Muslim population in Europe and North America. Here as elsewhere, many of the Muslims are Sufis. This book focuses mainly on issues of inculturation or contextualization of Sufism in the West. It shows that while more traditional forms of Sufism exist, many radical changes have taken place in this part of the world. For instance, in some groups there are female sheikhs and a far-reaching pluralistic attitude to other religions. Hence Sufism is sometimes seen as something that transcends the boundaries of Islam. Questioning the Secular State David Westerlund, 1996. Should the state be secular or religious? Here the author seeks to determine the extent of the role of religion in political life. Islam Paul Varo Martinson, Christians of all denominations will find reliable and up-to-date information on Islam and its relationship to Christianity in this carefully researched and clearly written guide. Ideal for both individual and group study, use it provides an excellent and informative introduction to the subject. Da'wa Matthew J. Kuiper, 2021-03-31. In this engaging study, Matthew J. Kuiper tells the fascinating story of how Islam became a world religion and cultural phenomenon of immense scale, astonishing diversity, and global impact. His starting point is the dramatic upsurge in da'wa (inviting to Islam).

or Islamic missionary activism      Muslims Andrew Rippin, 2001 The revised second edition of this authoritative text now in a single volume surveys Islamic history and thought from its formative period to the present day Widely updated with new chapters on intellectual thought and medieval development      A New Introduction to Islam Daniel W. Brown, 2017-04-24 Covering the origins key features and legacy of the Islamic tradition the third edition of A New Introduction to Islam includes new material on Islam in the 21st century and discussions of the impact of historical ideas literature and movements on contemporary trends Includes updated and rewritten chapters on the Qur'an and hadith literature that covers important new academic research Compares the practice of Islam in different Islamic countries as well as acknowledging the differences within Islam as practiced in Europe Features study questions for each chapter and more illustrative material charts and excerpts from primary sources      A Muslim Archipelago Max L. Gross, 2007 This book is with a contemporary focus Author Dr Max Gross's purpose is to use history to explain today's Islamic insurgencies in Indonesia Malaysia Thailand and the Philippines and to offer perspectives for the future Muslim Archipelago's unique contribution is that it brings together in one reference a mass of information on the insurgencies in Southeast Asia The country accounts are detailed and thorough as to events organizations dates and participants The chronological context provides Dr Gross the opportunity to give insights about historical casualty His accounting highlights the interaction of the insurgencies within Southeast Asia and their international connection outside the region The detailed presentations in the chapters on Indonesia and Philippines are especially fruitful Included in this nearly 280 page book are detailed four color regional maps charts and historical photos spread throughout the text An extensive bibliography and index are included      A Muslim Archipelago Max L. Gross, 2007 Southeast Asia continues to beckon policymakers and scholars alike to revisit its history in spite of the tomes of appraisals already written deconstructive or otherwise Because of a significant presence of Muslims in the region and particularly in the wake of 9/11 it invariably attracts the attention of foreign powers drawn by the specter of terrorism and focused on rooting out radical Islamist groups said to be working with al Qaeda Dr Max Gross has written an impressive account of the role of Islam in the politics of Southeast Asia anchored by a strong historical perspective and a comprehensive treatment of current affairs The result is very much a post 9/11 book The origins of Jemaah Islamiyah and its connections with al Qaeda are carefully detailed Yet unlike much of the post 9/11 analysis of the Muslim world Dr Gross's research has been successful in placing the phenomenon of terrorism within a larger perspective While recognizing that al Qaeda's influence on regional terror networks remains unclear it behooves us to be reminded that regardless of the nature and extent of the linkages to dismiss terrorism as a serious threat to security would be naive to the point of recklessness The Muslim Archipelago is a profoundly Islamic region and Jemaah Islamiyah is only a small portion of this reality The attention Dr Gross pays to ABIM in Malaysia of which I was a part and the civil Islam movement in Indonesia of which the late Nurcholish Madjid was a principal spokesman is greatly appreciated Those unfamiliar with the background and role of the traditional Islamic PAS party in Malaysia as well as the Darul Islam movement in Indonesia will find the author's account highly beneficial. The MNLF, the MILF and Abu Sayyaf in the Philippines as well as the various Islamic movements in southern Thailand are also carefully explained.

The Postcolonial World Jyotsna G. Singh, David D. Kim, 2016-10-04. The Postcolonial World presents an overview of the field and extends critical debate in exciting new directions. It provides an important and timely reappraisal of postcolonialism as an aesthetic, political and historical movement and of postcolonial studies as a multidisciplinary, transcultural field. Essays map the terrain of the postcolonial as a global phenomenon at the intersection of several disciplinary inquiries. Framed by an introductory chapter and a concluding essay, the eight sections examine: Affective Postcolonial Histories; Postcolonial Desires; Religious Imaginings; Postcolonial Geographies and Spatial Practices; Human Rights and Postcolonial Conflicts; Postcolonial Cultures and Digital Humanities; Ecocritical Inquiries in Postcolonial Studies; Postcolonialism versus Neoliberalism. The Postcolonial World looks afresh at re-emerging conditions of postcoloniality in the twenty-first century and draws on a wide range of representational strategies, cultural practices, material forms and affective affiliations. The volume is an essential reading for scholars and students of postcolonialism.

Beyond Shariati Siavash Saffari, 2017-02-16. A new reading of Ali Shariati's intellectual legacy on Iranian political discourse and concepts of Islam and modernity.

Towards the Dignity of Difference? Mojtaba Mahdavi, 2016-02-24. The rise of popular social movements throughout the Middle East, North Africa, Europe and North America in 2011 challenged two hegemonic discourses of the post-Cold War era: Francis Fukuyama's The End of History and Samuel Huntington's The Clash of Civilizations. The quest for genuine democracy and social justice and the backlash against the neoliberal order is a common theme in the global mass protests in the West and the East. This is no less than a discursive paradigm shift: a new beginning to the history, a move towards new alternatives to the status quo. This book is about difference and dialogue; it embraces The Dignity of Difference and promotes dialogue. However, it also demonstrates the limits of dialogue as a useful and universal approach for resolving conflicts, particularly in cases involving asymmetric and unequal power relations. The distinguished group of authors suggests in this volume that there is a third way of addressing global tensions: one that rejects the extremes of both universalism and particularism. This third way is a radical call for an epistemic shift in our understanding of us/other and good/evil: a radical approach toward accommodating difference as well as embracing the plural concept of the good. The authors strengthen their alternative approach with a practical policy guide by challenging existing policies that either exclude or assimilate other cultures that wage the constructed global war on terror and that impose a western neo-liberal discourse on non-western societies. This important book will be essential reading for all those studying civilizations, globalization, foreign policy, peace and security studies, multiculturalism and ethnicity, regionalism, global governance and international political economy.

Freedom of Speech and Islam Erich Kolig, 2016-04-15. Freedom of speech and expression is considered in the West a high public good and an important social value underpinned by legislative and ethical norms. Its importance is not shared to the same extent by conservative and devout Muslims who read Islamic doctrines in ways seemingly incompatible with Western notions of freedom of speech Since the Salman Rushdie affair in the 1980s there has been growing recognition in the West that its cherished value of free speech and associated freedoms relating to arts the press and media literature academia critical satire etc episodically clash with conservative Islamic values that limit this freedom for the sake of holding religious issues sacrosanct Recent controversies such as the Danish cartoons the Charlie Hebdo affair Quran burnings and the internet film The Innocence of Muslims which have stirred violent reactions in the Muslim world have made the West aware of the fact that Muslims religious sensitivities have to be taken into account in exercising traditional Western freedoms of speech Featuring experts across a spectrum of fields within Islamic studies Freedom of Speech and Islam considers Islamic concepts of blasphemy apostasy and heresy and their applicability in the modern world     Bibliographie
