Earls Colne's Early Modern Landscapes Dr Dolly MacKinnon, 2014-05-28 The Essex village of Earls Colne boasts one of the most comprehensive collections of historical documents in Britain and has been the subject of an intensive and ongoing research project to collate and computerise the surviving records As such Earls Colne is undoubtedly one of the most studied parishes in England Yet whilst much is now known about the village and its inhabitants little work has been done on the social relationships that bound the community together within its mental and physical landscape As such scholars will welcome Dr MacKinnon's investigation into the social political and cultural world of early modern England as represented by Earls Colne The book provides a fresh approach to the study of the landscape of a seventeenth century village by focussing on the relationships between political power and cultural artefacts It examines how private public and communal spaces within society were generated gendered and governed and how this was recorded and perpetuated in the records names and monuments of the parish and surrounding landscape Yet whilst the elites tried to represent a select social landscape through their control of the local records and documents these attempts were always counterbalanced by the less powerful members of the community who occupied and contested these spaces By reconstructing the dynamics of Earls Colne through a careful reading and cross referencing of the surviving documents buildings and place names this book offers a fascinating insight into how the sights and sounds of early modern society were imbued with the social relations of parish politics As well as deepening our understanding of Earls Colne itself the book offers historians the potential to revisit other local studies from a fresh perspective

Kenosis Creativity Architecture Randall S. Lindstrom, 2021-03-21 Kenosis Creativity Architecture locates and explores creativity's grounding in the ancient concept of kenosis the emptying that allows creativity to happen that makes appearance possible It concretises that grounding through architecture a primal expression of human creativity critically examining for the first time kenotic instantiations evidenced in four iconic international projects works by Kahn Pei Ando and Libeskind Then in a final turn the potentiality of architecture's own emptying is probed Architect and author Randall Lindstrom draws on Western and Eastern philosophy including that of Heidegger Levinas Derrida Vattimo Nishida and Nishitani as well as on the theology of Christianity Judaism and aspects of Buddhism Hinduism and Islam Every chapter expands the argument that if responsiveness to our world is taken seriously if proper and sustainable responses are to be realised then a deeper understanding of creativity and so kenosis is essential This book opens up a way of thinking about creativity and humanity's readiness to be creative It thereby presents a crucial enquiry at the nexus of architecture philosophy and theology for researchers graduate and postgraduate students and practitioners alike

Maternity in the Post-Apocalypse Renae L. Mitchell, 2021-11-22 Maternity in the Post Apocalypse Novelistic Revisions of Dystopian Motherhood deconstructs the ways in which women novelists have reconceived the post apocalyptic genre in recent decades through narratives centered on heroic maternal characters These writers have placed midwives pregnant women and mothers at the forefront of their novels transforming them from the hapless victims of male oppressors to protagonists who are instrumental in transforming the post apocalyptic social landscape from one that attempts to reconstruct a patriarchal past to one that safeguards validates and even lauds maternity as a form of empowerment In a novelistic future devastated landscape in which human civilizations are shattered and waver at the brink of extinction women who embody facets of maternity are taking the reins of rebuilding human societies by overturning patriarchal assumptions of femininity reclaiming intersectional autonomy and re-visioning the possibilities for a declining anthropocene
