This book studies kingship with reference to the Johannine Jesus Postcolonialism leads us to an avenue from which to read this Gospel in the more complex and wider context of the hybridized Jewish and Greco Roman worlds of the Roman Empire in the first century CE This provides a new perspective on the kingship of the Johannine Jesus whose kingly identity is characterized by hybridized christological titles For the Johannine readers in the first century who were exploited oppressed yet at odds with both the colonizer and the colonized in the Roman Empire this Gospel was deemed to reveal his identity Using many christological titles it presented Jesus as the universal king going beyond the Jewish Messiah s and the Roman emperors and also as the decolonizer who came to his own world to liberate his people from the darkness In this respect the ideology of the Johannine emphasizes that love peace freedom service of the center for the margins and forgiveness are the ruling forces in the new world where Jesus reigns as king Raising an awareness of these ideologies John s gospel asks readers to overcome the conflicting world shrouded in darkness thenceforth entering the new Johannine world

Contemporary Literary Criticism, 1973 Flight from Eden Steven Cassedy, 2023-11-15 Steven Cassedy takes aim at two of the most enduring myths of modern criticism that it is secular and that it is new and autonomous He argues that though modern criticism is often forbiddingly scientific and technical the modern critic remains something of a mystic Every school of modern criticism from structuralism to postmodern criticism rests on a faith in an Eden an irreducible essence a myth like the common myth that there is an intrinsic distinction between poetic language and ordinary language The modern critic attempts to abandon all mystical faith this is the flight from Eden But it is always in vain It is traditionally assumed that modern literary criticism and theory came from France and relatively recently In fact according to Cassedy the entire modern critical consciousness was already formed by the early twentieth century in the minds of writers who were primarily neither professional critics nor philosophers but poets Some were French Mallarmé and Valéry others were not Rilke Bely and the Russian avant garde poet Velimir Khlebnikov In them we find the same Edenic faith the same effort to abandon it and the same failure of that effort This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1990 T.S. Eliot and Early Modern Literature Steven

Matthews, 2013-02-21 T S Eliot and Early Modern Literature provides a comprehensive discussion of the engagement of Eliot with that earlier English literary period which he declared to be his favorite It offers a full sense of the critical and literary context against which Eliot measured his own ideas on Early Modern poets and playwrights Burns and Other Poets

David Sergeant, 2011-11-30 New essays on Burns special place in Scottish English and Irish literary culture In this volume 17 leading Burns scholars poetry critics and practising poets reflect on the enduring significance of one of the most important poets of the 18th century They show that Burns was a highly innovative and technically accomplished poet as capable of transforming earlier traditions as of launching new literary trends Looks at Burns place amongst his literary predecessors contemporaries and heirs including Scottish poets such as Ramsay Fergusson Byron Hogg MacDiarmid Paterson Dunn Mackay Brown English poets such as Milton Addison Gray Wordsworth Classical writers such as Virgil Irish poets such as Merriman Goldsmith Dermody Heaney By looking at Burns in the context of other poets each chapter sheds new light on his own practices and the practice of poetry in general They investigate the political national philosophical and ethical aspects of his poetry showing how you can deepen Obsession and Culture Andrew Brink, 1996 Many twentieth century novelists speak for a male psycho class needing imaginative externalization of obsessive sexual fantasies of control of women Attraction avoidance and guilt are powerful motivators for writers and readers alike and the moral ambiguity of serial monogamy as well as other forms of exploitative sexuality prompt certain writers to construct symbolic expiation and repair in fiction
