Contemporary Native American Architecture Cultural Regeneration And Creativity:

Contemporary Native American Architecture Carol Herselle Krinsky, 1996 A New Deal for Native Art Jennifer McLerran, 2022-08-16 As the Great Depression touched every corner of America the New Deal promoted indigenous arts and crafts as a means of bootstrapping Native American peoples But New Deal administrators romanticization of indigenous artists predisposed them to favor pre industrial forms rather than art that responded to contemporary markets In A New Deal for Native Art Jennifer McLerran reveals how positioning the native artist as a pre modern Other served the goals of New Deal programs and how this sometimes worked at cross purposes with promoting native self sufficiency She describes federal policies of the 1930s and early 1940s that sought to generate an upscale market for Native American arts and crafts And by unraveling the complex ways in which commodification was negotiated and the roles that producers consumers and New Deal administrators played in that process she sheds new light on native art s commodity status and the artist s position as colonial subject In this first book to address the ways in which New Deal Indian policy specifically advanced commodification and colonization McLerran reviews its multi pronged effort to improve the market for Indian art through the Indian Arts and Crafts Board arts and crafts cooperatives murals museum exhibits and Civilian Conservation Corps projects Presenting nationwide case studies that demonstrate transcultural dynamics of production and reception she argues for viewing Indian art as a commodity as part of the national economy and as part of national political trends and reform efforts McLerran marks the contributions of key individuals from John Collier and Rene d Harnoncourt to Navajo artist Gerald Naylor whose mural in the Navajo Nation Council House conveyed distinctly different messages to outsiders and tribal members Featuring dozens of illustrations A New Deal for Native Art offers a new look at the complexities of folk art revivals as it opens a new window on the Indian New Deal

Ethnic Landscapes of America John A. Cross, 2017-06-19 This volume provides a comprehensive catalog of how various ethnic groups in the United States of America have differently shaped their cultural landscape Author John Cross links an overview of the spatial distributions of many of the ethnic populations of the United States with highly detailed discussions of specific local cultural landscapes associated with various ethnic groups This book provides coverage of several ethnic groups that were omitted from previous literature including Italian Americans Chinese Americans Japanese Americans and Arab Americans plus several smaller European ethnic populations The book is organized to provide an overview of each of the substantive ethnic landscapes in the United States Between its introduction and conclusion which looks towards the future the chapters on the various ethnic landscapes are arranged roughly in chronological order such that the timing of the earliest significant surviving landscape contribution determines the order the groups will be viewed Within each chapter the contemporary and historical spatial distribution of the ethnic groups are described the historical geography of the group s settlement is reviewed and the salient aspects of material culture that characterize or distinguish the group s ethnic landscape are discussed Ethnic Landscapes of America is designed for use in the classroom as a textbook or as a reader in a North American regional course or a cultural geography course This volume also can function as a detailed summary reference that should be of interest to geographers historians ethnic scholars other social scientists and the educated public who wish to understand the visible elements of material culture that various ethnic populations have created on the landscape

The National Museum of the American Indian Amy Lonetree, Amanda J. Cobb, 2008-11-01 The first American national museum designed and run by indigenous peoples the Smithsonian Institution's National Museum of the American Indian in Washington DC opened in 2004 It represents both the United States as a singular nation and the myriad indigenous nations within its borders Constructed with materials closely connected to Native communities across the continent the museum contains more than 800 000 objects and three permanent galleries and routinely holds workshops and seminar series This first comprehensive look at the National Museum of the American Indian encompasses a variety of perspectives including those of Natives and non Natives museum employees and outside scholars across disciplines such as cultural studies and criticism art history history museum studies anthropology ethnic studies and Native American studies The contributors engage in critical dialogues about key aspects of the museum's origin exhibits significance and the relationship between Native Americans and other related museums

Vernacular Architecture in the 21st Century Lindsay Asquith, Marcel Vellinga, 2006-03-10 The issues surrounding the function and meaning of vernacular architecture in the twenty first century are complex and extensive Taking a distinctively rigorous theoretical approach this book considers these issues from a number of perspectives broadening current debate to a wider multidisciplinary audience These collected essays from the leading experts in the field focus on theory education and practice in this essential sector of architecture and help to formulate solutions to the environmental disaster management and housing challenges facing the global community today

Native North American Art Janet Catherine Berlo, Ruth Bliss Phillips, 2015 This lively introductory survey of indigenous North American arts from ancient times to the present explores both the shared themes and imagery found across the continent and the distinctive traditions of each region Focusing on the richness of artwork created in the US and Canada Native North American Art Second Edition discusses 3 000 years of architecture wood and rock carvings basketry dance masks clothing and more The expanded text discusses twentieth and twenty first century arts in all media including works by James Luna Kent Monkman Nadia Myre Jaune Quick to See Smith Will Wilson and many more Authors Berlo and Phillips incorporate new research and scholarship examining such issues as art and ethics gender representation and the colonial encounter By bringing into one conversation the seemingly separate realms of the sacred and the secular the political and the domestic and the ceremonial and the commercial Native North American Art shows how visual arts not only maintain the integrity of spiritual and social systems within Native North American societies but have long been part of a cross cultural experience as well

The Diné Hogan Lillian Makeda, 2024-06-28 Over the course of their history the Navajo Din have constructed many types of architecture but during the 20th century one building emerged to become a powerful and inspiring symbol of tribal culture This book describes the rise of the octagonal stacked log hogan as the most important architectural form among the Din The Navajo Nation is the largest Indian reservation in the United States and encompasses territory from within Arizona New Mexico and Utah where thousands of Native American homes called hogans dot the landscape Almost all of these buildings are octagonal Whether built from plywood nailed onto a wood frame or with other kinds of timber construction octagonal hogans derive from the stacked log hogan a form which came to prominence around the middle of the last century The stacked log hogan has also influenced public architecture and virtually every Din community on the reservation has a school senior center office building or community center that intentionally evokes it Although the octagon recurs as a theme across the Navajo reservation the inventiveness of vernacular builders and professional architects alike has produced a wide range of octagonally inspired architecture Previous publications about Navajo material culture have emphasized weaving and metalwork overlooking the importance of the tribe s built environment But populated by an array of octagonal public buildings and by the hogan one of the few Indigenous dwellings still in use during the 21st century the Navajo Nation maintains a deep connection with tradition This book describes how the hogan has remained at the center of Din society and become the basis for the most distinctive Native American landscape in the United States The Din Hogan A Modern History will appeal to scholarly and educated readers interested in Native American history and American architecture It is also well suited to a broad selection of college courses in American studies cultural geography Native American art and Native American architecture

The Dissolution of Place Shelton Waldrep, 2016-03-16 Postmodern architecture with its return to ornamentality historical quotation and low culture kitsch has long been seen as a critical and popular anodyne to the worst aspects of modernist architecture glass boxes built in urban locales as so many interchangeable generic anti architectural cubes and slabs This book extends this debate beyond the modernist postmodernist rivalry to situate postmodernism as an already superseded concept that has been upended by deconstructionist and virtual architecture as well as the continued turn toward the use of theming in much new public and corporate space It investigates architecture on the margins of postmodernism those places where both architecture and postmodernism begin to break down and to reveal new forms and new relationships The book examines in detail not only a wide range of architectural phenomena such as theme parks casinos specific modernist and postmodernist buildings but also interrogates architecture in relation to identity specifically Native American and gay male identities as they are reflected in new notions of the built environment In dealing specifically with the intersection between postmodern architecture and virtual and filmic definitions of space as well as with theming and gender and racial identities this book provides provides ground breaking insights not only into postmodern architecture but into spatial thinking in general

Made to Be Seen Marcus Banks, Jay Ruby, 2012-08-01 Made to be Seen brings together leading scholars of visual anthropology to examine the historical development of this multifaceted and growing field Expanding the definition of visual anthropology beyond more limited notions the contributors to Made to be Seen reflect on the role of the visual in all areas of life Different essays critically examine a range of topics art dress and body adornment photography the built environment digital forms of visual anthropology indigenous media the body as a cultural phenomenon the relationship between experimental and ethnographic film and more The first attempt to present a comprehensive overview of the many aspects of an anthropological approach to the study of visual and pictorial culture Made to be Seen will be the standard reference on the subject for years to come Students and scholars in anthropology sociology visual studies and cultural studies will greatly benefit from this pioneering look at the way the visual is inextricably threaded through most if not all areas of human activity

The Responsive Eye Ralph T. Coe, 2003 Over the past three decades Ralph T Coe has traveled extensively throughout the United States and Canada to assemble this collection of Native American art one of the finest in private hands today Immersed in the cultures of Native America he has come to know artists and artisans traders dealers and shop proprietors selecting the very best they have to offer The Ralph T Coe Collection includes representative pieces from most Native American geographic regions and historical periods beginning with objects dating back to the fourth millennium B C Many examples men s shirts with ermine fringe weapons and button blankets evoke the heroic lifestyle of the past while small objects such as tipi and kayak models dolls and tiny moccasins speak to a more intimate significance Ritual objects imbued with spiritual meaning masks and katsinas tablitas and medicine bundles as well as utilitarian objects such as pottery and baskets also have a strong presence This catalogue tells the stories of nearly two hundred of these objects combining art history with personal reminiscence and reveals the role Coe has played in bringing about awareness of the artistic heritage of Native America Metropolitan Museum of Art website Old Stories, New Ways Vivian Manasc, 2020-12-04 Vivian Manasc one of the founders of Manasc Isaac Architects has pioneered sustainable architecture in Canada Her work in partnership with Indigenous communities has been her greatest inspiration and it has transformed the very nature of her practice Through the profound lessons of the seven Grandfather Teachings Vivian came to understand that the process of planning and designing a building should be a circle with the beginning and end of the story linked together The stories Vivian tells in Old Stories New Ways are also framed by these teachings of Courage Love Wisdom Respect Truth Humility and Honesty with each teaching illuminating an aspect of how working with Dene Cree Saulteaux M tis Inuit and Inuvialuit communities has influenced her design practice Journal of the Society of Architectural Historians Society of Architectural Historians, 1997 Includes special issues Immigration and the Political Economy of Home Rachel Buff, 2001-03-25 Rachel Buff s innovative study of festivals in two American communities launches a substantive inquiry into the nature of citizenship race and social power Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork as well as archival research Buff compares American Indian powwows in Minneapolis with the West Indian American Day Carnival in New York She demonstrates the historical theoretical and cultural links between two groups who are rarely thought of together and in so doing illuminates our understanding of the meaning of home and citizenship in the post World War II period The book also follows the history of federal Indian and immigration policy in this period tracing the ways that migrant and immigrant identities are created by both national boundaries and transnational cultural memory In addition to offering fascinating discussions of these lively and colorful festivals Buff shows that their importance is not just as a form of performance or entertainment but also as crucial sites for making and remaking meanings about group history and survival Cultural performances for both groups contain a history of resistance to colonial oppression but they also change and creatively respond to the experiences of migration and the forces of the global mass culture industry Accessible and engaging Immigration and the Political Economy of Home addresses crucial contemporary issues Powwow culture and carnival culture emerge as vital dynamic sites that are central not only to the formation of American Indian and West Indian identities but also to the understanding modern America itself the history of its institution of citizenship its postwar cities and the nature of metropolitan culture Blueprints, 1997

Memory and Landscape Kenneth L. Pratt, Scott A. Heyes, 2022-10-18 The North is changing at an unprecedented rate as industrial development and the climate crisis disrupt not only the environment but also long standing relationships to the land and traditional means of livelihood Memory and Landscape Indigenous Responses to a Changing North explores the ways in which Indigenous peoples in the Arctic have adapted to challenging circumstances including past cultural and environmental changes In this beautifully illustrated volume contributors document how Indigenous communities in Alaska northern Canada Greenland and Siberia are seeking ways to maintain and strengthen their cultural identity while also embracing forces of disruption Indigenous and non Indigenous contributors bring together oral history and scholarly research from disciplines such as linguistics archaeology and ethnohistory With an emphasis on Indigenous place names this volume illuminates how the land and the memories that are inextricably tied to it continue to define Indigenous identity The perspectives presented here also serve to underscore the value of Indigenous knowledge and its essential place in future studies of the Arctic Contributions by Vinnie Baron Hugh Brody Kenneth Buck Anna Bunce Donald Butler Michael A Chenlov Aron L Crowell Peter C Dawson Martha Dowsley Robert Drozda Gary Holton Colleen Hughes Peter Jacobs Emily Kearney Williams Igor Krupnik Apayo Moore Murielle Nagy Mark Nuttall Evon Peter Louann Rank William E Simeone Felix St Aubin and Will Stolz Encyclopedia of the Great Plains David J. Wishart, 2004-01-01 Wishart and the staff of the Center for Great Plains Studies have compiled a wide ranging pun intended encyclopedia of this important region Their objective was to give definition to a region that has traditionally been poorly defined and they have The Extraordinary Book of Native American Lists Arlene Hirschfelder, Paulette F. Molin, 2012-03-22 Communicates information about the histories contemporary presence and various other facts of the Native peoples of the United States From publisher description Religion and Art in the Heart of Modern Manhattan Aaron Rosen, 2017-07-28 When you re in New York the sculptor Louise Nevelson once said you re in perpetual resurrection She might have said the same thing about St Peter s Lutheran Church set in the heart of midtown Manhattan In the 1970s the church made a radical move scrapping its neo gothic building for a sleek modern structure in the shadow of a skyscraper The transformation was not just architectural Inside Nevelson created a shimmering chapel while over the years artists and designers such as Willem de Kooning Kiki Smith and Massimo and Lella Vignelli produced works for the sanctuary This fusion of modern art architecture and design was complemented by an innovative jazz ministry including funerals for Billy Strayhorn and John Coltrane and performances by Duke Ellington and other jazz legends For the first time this volume examines the astounding cultural output of this single church Just as importantly the story of St Peter's serves as a springboard for wider reflections on the challenges and possibilities which arise when religion and art intersect in the modern city Working from a wide range of disciplines including art history theology musicology and cultural studies a distinguished group of scholars demonstrate that this church at the center of New York City deserves an equally central place in contemporary scholarship

North American Indians Alice Beck Kehoe, 2017-10-03 Written in an easy to read narrative format this volume provides the most comprehensive coverage of North American Indians from earliest evidence through 1990 It shows Indians as a people with history and not as primitives covering current ideological issues and political situations including treaty rights sovereignty and repatriation A must read for anyone interested in North American Indian history This is a comprehensive and thought provoking approach to the history of the native peoples of North America including Mexico and Canada and their civilizations For Native American courses taught in anthropology history and Native American Studies

Handbook of Material Culture Chris Tilley, Webb Keane, Susanne Kuechler, Mike Rowlands, Patricia Spyer, 2006-01-05 The study of material culture is concerned with the relationship between persons and things in the past and in the present in urban and industrialized and in small scale societies across the globe The Handbook of Material Culture provides a critical survey of the theories concepts intellectual debates substantive domains and traditions of study characterizing the analysis of things It is cutting edge rather than simply reviewing the field as it currently exists It also attempts to chart the future the manner in which material culture studies may be extended and developed The Handbook of Material Culture is divided into five sections Section I maps material culture studies as a theoretical and conceptual field Section II examines the relationship between material forms the human body and the senses Section III focuses on subject object relations Section IV considers things in terms of processes and transformations in terms of production exchange and consumption performance and the significance of things over the long term Section V considers the contemporary politics and poetics of displaying representing and conserving material and the manner in which this impacts on notions of heritage tradition and identity The Handbook charts an interdisciplinary field of studies that makes an unique and fundamental contribution to an understanding of what it means to be human It will be of interest to all who work in the social and historical sciences from anthropologists and archaeologists to human geographers to scholars working in heritage design and cultural studies
