Prayer Books and Piety in Late Medieval and Early Modern Europe / Gebetbücher und Frömmigkeit in Spätmittelalter und Früher Neuzeit Maria Crăciun,Volker Leppin,Katalin Luffy,Ulrich A. Wien,Christopher B. Brown,Günter Frank,Barbara Mahlmann-Bauer,Tarald Rasmussen,Violet Soen,Zsombor Tóth,Günther Wassilowsky,Siegrid Westphal,2023-05-15 This collected volume is dedicated to the role of prayer books in lay piety in medieval and early modern contexts Instead of focusing on individual examples it places them within the broader genre of devotional literature and considers them in connection with prevailing cultural religious and artistic developments taking into account the Reformation the printing press and growing interest in lay piety in the context of increasing individualism developing literacy privatization and or personalization of religion Contextualising devotional literature the volume refines understandings of religious practice fostered by traditional Catholicism and early modern Protestantism and its relationship with the written word locating the use of books within a devotional diet that included oral recitation of prayers as well as contemplation of images Stressing continuities often against the grain of existing literature this volume highlights differences between regional cultures of prayer in contrast to norms set by the universal Church and emphasizes the tension between public communal and private individual devotion

Matthew Henry Jong Hun Joo, 2017-03-31 Jong Hun Joo offers a model of how both solid biblical understanding and effective practice of worship can be realised in churches today by exploring the theology and practice of Matthew Henry 1662 1714 Matthew Henry is one of the most famous biblical commentators in the English speaking world He was however also a pastor who was liturgical in negotiating the political and religious landmines of his day This all but overlooked aspect of Henry s biography and writings is both a window into his life and times and an insightful view into the pastoral dimensions of Christian rituals and practices in the home and church Joo discerns how Henry understood and practised English Presbyterian worship as an example of Reformed worship in his context and suggests how contemporary churches can appropriately develop and articulate their own worship in their own contexts making the case for worship renewal

The Canterbury Book of New Parish Prayers M.J. Kramer, 2021-08-30 This collection of around 500 original collect style prayers and biddings covering the life of the Church and the life of the world Contemporary in focus and language the prayers are written in a concise style that makes them ideal for public worship but will also appeal to those who wish to pray privately but struggle to find the words Prayer topics include The Church Year and Festivals The Global and Local Church The Environment and Social Justice Politics and the Leaders of the Nations Life Stages Spheres of Work Arts and Education Suffering and Tragedy Helpful guidance on leading public prayer and writing your own collects is also included
