Contemporary Sources For The Fourth Crusade Medieval Mediterranean:

Contemporary Sources for the Fourth Crusade Alfred J. Andrea, 2000-01-01 This volume presents English translations of seven major bodies of Latin sources for the Fourth Crusade 1202-1204 Combined the different perspectives of these sources deepen our understanding of this complex and controversial moment in Western Byzantine relations The Fourth Crusade Michael J. Angold, 2015-11-17 The Fourth Crusade 1202-4 was one of the key events in medieval history The fall of Constantinople to the Venetians and the soldiers of the fourth crusade in April 1204 was its climax It ensured that Byzantium's days as a great power were over It equally ensured that westerners would dominate the Levant the lands of the old Byzantine Empire until the end of the middle ages This book asks just how important was the Fourth as a turning point in the Middle East The broad setting is the encounter of Byzantium with the West within the framework of the crusades Differences of outlook and interest meant that this encounter was soon overburdened with mutual distrust 1204 was some kind of a solution and created situations scarcely conceivable even two years before when the fourth crusade set sail from Venice Shipping, Trade and Crusade in the Medieval Mediterranean Ruthy Gertwagen, 2016-04-01 The cutting edge papers in this collection reflect the wide areas to which John Pryor has made significant contributions in the course of his scholarly career They are written by some of the world's most distinguished practitioners in the fields of Crusading history and the maritime history of the medieval Mediterranean His colleagues students and friends discuss questions including ship construction in the fourth and fifteenth centuries navigation and harbourage in the eastern Mediterranean trade in Fatimid Egypt and along the Iberian Peninsula military and social issues arising among the crusaders during field campaigns and wider aspects of medieval warfare All those with an interest in any of these subjects whether students or specialists will need to consult this book Medieval Mediterranean Ports Silvia Orvieto Busch, 2001 This is a multidisciplinary study of the ports of the Crown of Aragon compared to the Tuscan coast and port city of Pisa It analyzes the geomorphological geographical political and commercial factors in their development and draws on archaeological and geological investigations as well as published and unpublished historical documents The Filioque A. Edward Siecienski, 2010-06-03 Ed Siecienski examines how the Church has viewed the procession of the Holy Spirit throughout its history beginning with the Trinitarian controversies of the early Christian centuries The first comprehensive study of the key controversy separating the Eastern and Western churches Diplomatics in the Eastern Mediterranean 1000-1500 Alexander Daniel Beihammer, Maria G. Parani, Christopher David Schabel, 2008-01-01 In the politically and militarily complex world of the medieval Eastern Mediterranean people and entities of different ethnic religious and linguistic backgrounds came into close contact at many different levels from everyday dealings in the marketplace to high diplomacy between competing states thus providing scope for fertile cross cultural interaction and permeation This collective volume examines aspects of intercultural communication as reflected in Byzantine Latin and Arabic documentary sources originating from or relating to the Eastern

Mediterranean and ranging from the eleventh to the fifteenth centuries Twenty essays examine a variety of archival sources for the Latin East explore chancery traditions in the culturally diverse society of Frankish Cyprus and trace modes of communication and exchange between Byzantium Islam and the West Contributors are Jean Richard David Jacoby Benjamin Z Kedar Michel Balard Peter Schreiner Michel Balivet Catherine Otten Froux Svetlana V Bliznyuk Brenda Bolton Karl Borchardt Nicholas Coureas William O Duba Charalambos Gasparis Hubert Houben Angel Nicolaou Konnari Johannes Pahlitzsch and Kostis Smyrli

Towns and Material Culture in the Medieval Middle East Yaacov Lev, 2021-10-11 This volume focuses on the interplay between urban society and material culture in the medieval and Ottoman Middle East The history of Jerusalem in the middle ages is discussed by a number of papers as well as Mamluk Tripoli and the urban history of Palestine during the Crusades The multi role of the cadi in the Muslim city is illuminated by two studies cases concerning the Fatimid and Mamluk periods Three aspects of material culture the production and spread of paper textiles and the trade in medicinal substances also are dealt with

Beards, Azymes, and Purgatory A. Edward Siecienski, 2023 In Beards Azymes and Purgatory A Edward Siecienski argues that seemingly minor issues the beardlessness of the Latin clergy the Western use of unleavened bread in the Eucharist and the doctrine of Purgatory played a significant role in the schism between the Catholic and Orthodox churches

The Papacy and the Orthodox Anthony Edward Siecienski, 2017 The Papacy and the Orthodox examines the centuries long debate over the primacy and authority of the Bishop of Rome especially in relation to the Christian East and offers a comprehensive history of the debate and its underlying theological issues Siecienski masterfully brings together all of the biblical patristic and historical material necessary to understand this longstanding debate This book is an invaluable resource as both Catholics and Orthodox continue to reexamine the sources and history of the debate

Syriac Polemics Wout Jac. van Bekkum, Jan Willem Drijvers, Alexander Cornelis Klugkist, 2007 This Festschrift honours Dr Gerrit Reinink on the occasion of the end of his professional career as a senior lecturer of Syriac and Aramaic studies at the University of Groningen The Netherlands The Festschrift includes in addition to a brief biography and a complete bibliography of Reinink's scholarly writings fifteen articles arranged according to the chronology of their topics and covering a wide variety of subjects ranging from the days of Julian the Apostate to the year of the fall of Constantinople through the period of Late Antiquity the Byzantine period early Islam and the Middle Ages The authors are all prominent experts in the field of Syriac studies and adjacent areas The title of the book Syriac Polemics is a clear reference to one of Reinink's favourite research topics Eastern Christian reactions to the rise of Islam This volume is a valuable contribution to the study of Syriac literature and culture in general

Papacy, Crusade, and Christian-Muslim Relations Jessalynn Bird, 2025-10-01 This book examines the role of the papacy and the crusade in the religious life of the late twelfth through late thirteenth centuries and beyond Throughout the book the contributors ask several important questions Was Innocent III more theologian than lawyer pope and how did his personal experience of earlier crusade campaigns inform his own vigorous promotion of the crusades How did the outlook and policy of Honorius III differ from that of Innocent III in crucial areas including the promotion of multiple crusades including the Fifth Crusade and the crusade of William of Montferrat and how were both pope s mindsets manifested in writings associated with them What kind of men did Honorius III and Innocent III select to promote their plans for reform and crusade How did the laity make their own mark on the crusade through participation in the peace movements which were so crucial to the stability in Europe essential for enabling crusaders to fulfill their vows abroad and through joining in the liturgical processions and prayers deemed essential for divine favor at home and abroad Further essays explore the commemoration of crusade campaigns through the deliberate construction of physical and literary paths of remembrance Yet while the enemy was often constructed in a deliberately polarizing fashion did confessional differences really determine the way in which Latin crusaders and their descendants interacted with the Muslim world or did a more pragmatic position of rough tolerance shape mundane activities including trade agreements and treaties

The Rise of the Fatimids Michael Brett,2001 The book uses the rise of the Fatimids to survey the Islamic world in the 4th century AH 10th century CE and reinterpret the role of the dynasty in the history of Islam down to the period of the Crusades

Trade, Commodities and Shipping in the Medieval Mediterranean David Jacoby,2024-10-28 This fourth collection by David Jacoby focuses on Western economic expansion the Eastern Mediterranean during the 11th 15th centuries He is concerned to emphasize the interconnections linking the West Byzantium and the Levant and to examine normative sources for commercial activity charters etc against the background of actual practice such as reflected in notarial documents The articles deal with the evolution of urban centres the trade in raw materials and at the same time questions of technology transfer and the mobility of merchants and craftsmen Particular attention is given to the silk trade the author argues that demographic expansion in the Byzantine world as in the West stimulated economic growth and demand for silk led to the emergence of a market driven industry in Byzantium

Sources for Byzantine Art History: Volume 3, The Visual Culture of Later Byzantium (1081-c.1350) Foteini Spingou,2022-04-21 In this book the beauty and meaning of Byzantine art and its aesthetics are for the first time made accessible through the original sources More than 150 medieval texts are translated from nine medieval languages into English with commentaries from over seventy leading scholars These include theories of art discussions of patronage and understandings of iconography practical recipes for artistic supplies expressions of devotion and descriptions of cities The volume reveals the cultural plurality and the interconnectivity of medieval Europe and the Mediterranean from the late eleventh to the early fourteenth centuries The first part uncovers salient aspects of Byzantine artistic production and its aesthetic reception while the second puts a spotlight on particular ways of expressing admiration and of interpreting of the visual

The Crusades and the Near East Conor Kostick,2010-10-18 The crusades are often seen as epitomising a period when hostility between Christian West and the Muslim Near East reached an all time high As this edited volume reveals however the era was one which saw both conflict and cohabitation Tackling such questions as whether medicinal and architectural innovations came to Europe as a direct result of the Crusades and why and how peace treaties and intermarriages were formed between the different cultures this distinguished group of contributors reveal how the Holy Wars led on the one hand to a reinforcement of the beliefs and identities of each side but on the other to a growing level of cultural exchange and interaction This volume breaks new ground in not only exploring the conflict between the Christian and the Muslim worlds but also the impact of this conflict on the cultural evolution of European and Near Eastern thought and practices Utilising the latest scholarship and original studies of the sources this survey sheds new light on the cultural realities of East West relations and marks a new departure for studies of the crusades Contributors include John France Yehoshua Frenkel Chris Wright Natasha Hodgson A V Murray Sini Kangas L an N Chl irigh Susan Edgington J rgen Kr ger Yvonne Friedman and Bernard Hamilton

Byzantium and the West Nikolaos Chrissis, Athina Kolia-Dermitzaki, Angeliki Papageorgiou, 2019-02-11 The interaction between Byzantium and the Latin West was intimately connected to practically all the major events and developments which shaped the medieval world in the High and Late Middle Ages for example the rise of the papal monarchy the launch of the Crusades the expansion of international and long distance commerce or the flowering of the Renaissance This volume explores not only the actual avenues of interaction between the two sides trade political and diplomatic contacts ecclesiastical dialogue intellectual exchange armed conflict but also the image each side had of the other and the way perceptions evolved over this long period in the context of their manifold contact Twenty one stimulating papers offer new insights and original research on numerous aspects of this relationship pooling the expertise of an international group of scholars working on both sides of the Byzantine Western divide on topics as diverse as identity formation ideology court ritual literary history military technology and the economy among others The particular contribution of the research presented here is the exploration of how cross cultural relations were shaped by the interplay of the thought world of the various historical agents and the material circumstances which circumscribed their actions The volume is primarily aimed at scholars and students interested in the history of Byzantium the Mediterranean world and more widely intercultural contacts in the Middle Ages

The Crusades and the Expansion of Catholic Christendom, 1000-1714 John France, 2006-02-01 The Crusades and the Expansion of Catholic Christendom 1000 1714 is a fascinating and accessible survey that places the medieval Crusades in their European context and examines for the first time their impact on European expansion Taking a unique approach that focuses on the motivation behind the Crusades John France chronologically examines the whole crusading movement from the development of a crusading impulse in the eleventh century through to an examination of the relationship between the Crusades and the imperialist imperatives of the early modern period France provides a detailed examination of the first Crusade the expansion and climax of crusading during the twelfth and thirteenth centuries and the failure and fragmentation of such practices in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries Concluding with an assessment of the influence of the Crusades across history and replete with illustrations maps timelines guides for further reading and a detailed list of rulers across Europe and the Muslim world this study provides students with an essential guide to a central aspect of medieval history The Routledge Companion to the Crusades Peter Lock, 2013-04-15 A compilation of facts figures maps family trees summaries of the major crusades and their historiography the Routledge Companion to the Crusades spans a broad chronological range from the eleventh to the eighteenth century and gives a chronological framework and context for modern research on the crusading movement Not just a history of the Crusades but an overview of the logistical economic social and biographical history this is a core text for students of history and religious studies A Byzantine Book on Dream Interpretation Maria V. Mavroudi, 2021-10-25 This volume discusses the so called Oneirocriticon of Achmet the most important Byzantine work on dream interpretation which was written in Greek in the 10th century and has greatly influenced subsequent dreambooks in Byzantine Greek Medieval Latin and modern European languages By comparing the Oneirocriticon with the 2nd century A D dreambook of Artemidoros translated into Arabic in the 9th century and five medieval Arabic dreambooks this study demonstrates that the Oneirocriticon is a Christian Greek adaption of Islamic Arabic material and that the similarities between it and Artemidoros are due to the influence of Artemidoros on the Arabic sources of the Byzantine work The Oneirocriticon s textual tradition its language the identities of its author and patron and its position among other Byzantine translations from Arabic into Greek are also investigated Byzantine Constantinople: Monuments, Topography and Everyday Life Nevra Necipoglu, 2021-10-01 This volume deals with the history topography and monuments of Constantinople the capital of the Byzantine Empire and one of the greatest urban centers ever known throughout Late Antiquity and the Middle Ages It contains 21 papers that emanate from an international workshop which was held at Istanbul in 1999 Divided into eight sections the collection addresses a variety of interconnected topics ranging from topography to ritual and ideology archaeology religious and secular architecture patronage commercial life social organization women s roles communities urban development and planning Partly drawing on new archaeological and textual evidence partly directing new questions to or reinterpreting previously available sources the papers presented here fill important gaps in our knowledge of Constantinople and enhance our conception of the city as both a physical and social entity
