Spanishness in the Spanish Novel and Cinema of the 20th - 21st Century Cristina Sánchez-Conejero,2009-10-02 Spanishness in the Spanish Novel and Cinema of the 20th 21st Century is an exploration of the general concept of Spanishness as all things related to Spain specifically as the multiple meanings of Spanishness and the different ways of being Spanish are depicted in 20th 21st century literary and cinematic fiction of Spain This book also represents a call for a re evaluation of what being Spanish means not just in post Franco Spain but also in the Spain of the new millennium The reader will find treatments of some of the crucial themes in Spanish culture such as immigration nationalisms and affiliation with the European Union as well as many others of contemporary relevance such as time memory and women studies that defy exclusivist and clear cut single notions of Spanishness These explorations will help contextualize what it means to be Spanish in present day Spain and in the light of globalization while also dissipating stereotypical notions of Spain and Spanishness Shifting Subjectivities in Contemporary Fiction and Film from Spain Jennifer Brady,Meredith L. Jeffers,2018-12-14 This collection of essays analyzes shifting notions of self as represented in films and novels written and produced in Spain in the twenty first century In doing so the anthology establishes an international dialogue of multicultural perspectives on trends in contemporary Spain and serves as a useful reference for scholars and students of Spanish literature and cinema The primary avenues of exploration include representations of recovery in post crisis Spain marginalized texts and identities silenced subjectivities intersecting relationships and spaces of desire and control The individual chapters focus on major events such as the global economic crisis the tension between majority and minority cultures within Spain and the ongoing repercussions of past trauma and historical memory In doing so they build upon theories of identity subjectivity gender history memory and normativity Affect and Belonging in Contemporary Spanish Fiction and Film Jesse Barker,2017-08-24 This book brings together recent Spanish fictions and films that point to individualism as the root problem driving diverse circumstances of social economic and psychological suffering in the present and recent past The works privilege sensation movement and emotion rather than identity as the core elements of existential experience However the works also problematize notions of intersubjectivity confronting ideals of affective immersion and cultural nomadism with the concrete contexts that shape particular lives and social formations This confrontation underlies a series of crossroads or productive engagements that guide the book s five main chapters locally rooted identity and global cultural circuits historical contexts and universal modes of being personal authenticity and consumer culture migration and cultural identity Spain s historical underdevelopment and impending future crises All of these issues make affective connection and attachment the greatest existential challenge facing individuals and collectives in the contemporary world both in Spain and elsewhere
