Exploring Context in Religious Education Research Geir Skeie, Judith Everington, Ina ter Avest, Siebren Miedema, 2013 The relevance of contextual perspectives in religious education has been growing for the last decade It has been central to the European Network for Religious Education through Contextual Approaches ENRECA the research network that has produced the present book Several members of the network have contributed to the theoretical and empirical development of contextual approaches in different publications but for the first time this has been the focus of an entire collectively produced volume The history of the book dates back to research seminars in 2009 and 2010 and is based on the discussions in the seminar The chapters have been developed through a process of critical examination Through this process we believe to have produced a coherent and also comprehensively rich book dealing with the issue of context as a challenge and also a stimulus to religious education research and practice The chapters are presenting both empirical research and scholarly investigation into methodological and theoretical dimensions Taken together we hope that this book will contribute to the further development of contextual thinking in religious education research Or aim has not been to answer all questions but rather to pose questions and to complicate things in order to enrich the academic field of religion in education

Complementarian Spirituality Natalie Brand, 2013-10-09 In this work Dr Brand seeks to contribute a unique complementarian expression of Reformed spirituality in order to stimulate a spiritual renewal in the contemporary Reformed tradition Using a distinctively feminine approach in a theological arena largely monopolized by male theologians the author anchors corporate and personal spirituality upon the unio mystica so returning to a Calvinistic appreciation of the Christian life Grounding Reformed spirituality on the marital union between Christ and the church a corporate portrait of the church is explored Critical of the neglect of women in Reformed church life and practice the author calls the tradition to reform proposing an intentional complementarian use of women that can practically and spiritually profit the whole church body The book culminates with an initial tracing of a Reformed feminine spirituality which is pastorally relevant to women as well as encouraging a renewed experiential enjoyment of Christ for both men and women

Annual Review of the Sociology of Religion. Volume 8 (2017) Michael Wilkinson, Peter Althouse, 2017-05-01 The intersection of religion ritual emotion globalization migration sexuality gender race and class is especially insightful for researching Pentecostal notions of the body Pentecostalism is well known for overt bodily expressions that includes kinesthetic worship with emotive music and sustained acts of prayer Among Pentecostals there is considerable debate about bodies the role of the Holy Spirit possession of evil spirits deliverance exorcism revival and healing of bodies and emotions Pentecostalism is identified as a religion on the move and so bodies are transformed in the context of globalization Pentecostalism is also associated with notions of sexuality gender race and class where bodies are often liberated and limited This volume evaluates these themes associated with contemporary research on the body

The Intimate Other Anna S. King, J. L. Brockington, 2005 The Intimate Other explores the theme of the devotional element in Indic Religions not only in Hinduism in which bhakti has become the dominant form but also in Buddhism Jainism Sikhism and Islam The essays by scholars of international repute show the strength of this devotion to the divine as a living and powerful source of value aesthetic imagination creativity and well being They also analyse the sometimes divergent interests of scholar and devotee problematising devotion and exposing its historical development as complex contested and political Of particular interest are the chapters on the Jain and Buddhist traditions where the existence of devotion has often been doubted or denied Contributors investigate widely ranging topics these include an analysis of bhakti within the Sanskrit epics a text historical approach to Valmiki Kabir's authorship of the poems attributed to him contemporary attitudes to devotion to the Ganga devotion within a syncretistic Jain movement in Theravada Buddhism subcontinental Sufi Islam young Sikhs in Britain and in the shared musical and poetic traditions of Hindus Sikhs and Muslims The volume ends with a sensitive exploration of the devotional love that overpowers death within the Hindus Sikhs and Muslims The volume ends with a sensitive exploration of the devotional love that overpowers death within the Hindu bhakti context Together they demonstrate vividly just how passionate love for the intimate other penetrates and inspires so many aspects of the religious culture of South Asia

Spirituality: A Very Short Introduction Philip Sheldrake, 2012-11-29 With a decline in traditional religious belief interest in spirituality has grown in Western cultures The notion of spirituality expresses the fact that people are driven by goals that concern more than material satisfaction Here the author explores the historical foundations of spirituality and thinks about how it transforms lives

Spirituality for Youth-Work Phil Daughtry, 2016-09-23 This book addresses a systemic gap in existing studies on human services and youth work While the notion of spirituality does make rare appearances in such literature it is often vaguely defined and underdeveloped both as a concept and as a mode of practice This ambiguity is symptomatic of the broader shift in the sociological context of Western and global societies that has been referred to variously as post modern late modern and post secular From the perspective of the relationship between human development and the spiritual theological we live in a time between times We have not yet worked out how to speak of spirit nor how to include its meanings in positive youth intervention and developments in our language for a public spiritual consciousness remain in a state of cultural flux This book offers a coherent vocabulary and narrative from which to construct a more explicit and deliberate practice of spiritual care education and professional identity for youth workers It speaks directly to youth work practitioners managers of youth services those providing youth work education and anyone with an interest in youth and spirituality research and practice

The Liturgy of the Gospel Wolfgang Vondey, 2025-09-12 Vondey argues that theological hermeneutics in Pentecostal perspective is the interpretation of the world explicitly and specifically informed by the liturgy of the gospel This book identifies the corresponding hermeneutical questions that have dominated the formation of a liturgical Pentecostal horizon of interpretation since the twentieth century Pentecostals are acutely aware that the claim of their interpretive position shows not only a fusion of horizons but also a rejection of the dominant descriptive mechanisms How this tension in the history of Pentecostal theology is resolved and contributes to the emergence of Pentecostalism as a hermeneutical tradition is the subject of three critical inquiries 1 the question of truth in the Pentecostal tradition 2 the extension of the question of truth to hermeneutical experience and 3 the ontological shift of Pentecostal hermeneutics Vondey identifies how Pentecostal hermeneutics emerged not only thematically and historically but experientially and subjectively through the themes of the full gospel This book shows that rather than by the dominance of language the dynamic hermeneutical positioning in the narrative of this gospel originated and continues to be shaped liturgically To Live Fully, Here and Now Karla Simcikova, 2007-01-01 To Live Fully Here and Now formulates a coherent and comprehensive understanding of Alice Walker's spiritual wisdom in the age of heightened global awareness natural devastation and spiritual crisis Simcikova argues that to fully understand Walker's complex and multi-layered concept of spirituality we have to move beyond the womanist model to incorporate and or accommodate all the influences that have had a significant impact on Walker particularly her interest in Native American spirituality Simcikova also offers a new paradigm of wholeness unity and interconnectedness for critical analysis of her Walker's latest works This ground breaking book will find audiences across disciplines as it addresses the fundamental ethical question of what it means to be human New Monasticism Rory McEntee, Adam Bucko, 2015-03-31

Integrative Religious Education in Europe Wanda Alberts, 2012-02-14 This book is a contribution to the development of the young discipline of the didactics of the Study of Religions Religionswissenschaft in international perspective Integrative religious education refers to education about different religions in classrooms with children of various religious and non religious backgrounds Cornerstones of recent debates about theory and methodology in the academic study of religions and in education are discussed in the first chapter They form the basis of the following analysis and evaluation of current approaches to integrative religious education in Europe with a special focus on England and Sweden Particular attention is paid to the different underlying concepts of religion education and ways of representing religious plurality in these approaches Building on a discussion of the current situation of teaching and learning about religions in schools in Europe in the context of wider cultural social and political debates the book concludes with the suggestion of a framework for integrative religious education in Europe from a perspective that combines insights from the study of religions and education

Alternative Education for the 21st Century P. Woods, 2009-01-05 This is a unique collection of leading examples of education grounded in alternative philosophies and cultures from initiatives to create more democratic schools through Quaker Buddhist Islamic Montessori and Steiner Waldorf schools to Maori and First Nations education in Canada and Palestinian Jewish schools in Israel Materializing Religion William Keenan, 2017-03-02 The material symbol has become central to understanding religion in late modernity Overtly theological approaches use words to express the values and faith of a religion but leave out the incarnation of religion in the behavioural performative or audio visual form This book explores the lived experience of religion through its material expressions demonstrating how religion and spirituality are given form and are thus far from being detached or ethereal Cutting across cultures senses disciplines and faiths the contributors register the variety in which religions and religious groups express the sacred and numinous Including chapters on music architecture festivals ritual artifacts dance dress and magic this book offers an invaluable resource to students of sociology and anthropology of religion art culture history liturgy theories of late modern culture and religious studies Approaches to Monasticism in the Context of Christian Responses to Modern Culture Kevin Maddy, 2022 Approaches to Monasticism in the Context of Christian Responses to Modern Culture is a study of how the values and practices of monasticism are being shaped by the shift to a cultural understanding of Christianity in modern times The values and practices of traditional monasticism are contrasted with those of various expressions of new monasticism against the background of a multicultural and fluid social environment in an effort to find some reciprocal illumination The study aims to describe monasticism in terms of authenticity and lived religion Experiencing Globalization Derrick M. Nault, Bei

Dawei, Evangelos Voulgarakis, Rab Paterson, Cesar Andres-Miguel Suva, 2013-02-01 Today in an age of globalization religion represents a potent force in the lives of billions of people worldwide Yet when social theorists examine the impact of globalization on contemporary religious movements they tend to focus on issues such as Islamic fundamentalism and threats to US or global security This collection of essays takes a different approach analyzing with special reference to Asia religion through lived experience The key issues covered in the volume include how religious impulses contribute to globalization how religious groups and organizations repackage traditional beliefs for transcultural appeal how religious adherents cope with external threats to identity how new technologies are reshaping the nature of religious beliefs and images and how local and global religious influences blend and or clash Far from religion being a subject of peripheral concern to globalization the contributors demonstrate that from the most basic level of our interactions with the natural environment to the socio political behavior of the great religions and even to the profusion of folk and pop culture phenomena the influence of religion upon globalization and vice versa is apparent at all levels The Birth of a Celestial Light Tina Eftekhari, 2015-01-12 It is interesting that women who campaign for women s rights and interests in Iran have not considered engaging with women who are neither conventional Muslims nor strongly secular but instead explore other aspects of religion and spirituality The women examined in this study identify themselves as believers in God but have different views of religion some wish to be called religious but do not follow the official Islamic Shia and have their own interpretation of what it means to be a good Muslim while some think of spirituality as their religion and refer to themselves as spiritual Scholarship on women in Iran has not yet taken such an approach and has not considered women s interests in spirituality with regard to religion As such this book differs greatly from existing work on Iranian women's lives after the Islamic revolution. It examines the potential feminist implications of women's involvement in one of the most popular spiritual movements, Inter universal Mysticism, and its emancipatory potential for women. The central argument here is that feminist spirituality is an expression of women's power to identify, explore, and assess their own spiritual experiences in order to construct their own sense of self and transform their lives. As such, this book broadens discourses about women in Iran by examining the link between spirituality, coping, and meaning-making in the lives of women involved with Inter universal Mysticism. The study's unique contribution is not simply that it extends the range of contexts in which gender can be analysed, but rather that it, through the lens of feminism, demonstrates the significance of women's choice of spirituality as an investigative issue which can elucidate women's wider social, cultural, and political processes in contemporary Iran.

Contemporary Spiritualities Stefania

Palmisano, Nicola Pannofino, 2020-11-01. Contemporary alternative spirituality as studied by sociologists is usually seen as a recent phenomenon dating from the 1960s and 1970s. However, when viewed from a longer-term perspective, this form of religious expression is actually seen to reintroduce concepts that recur throughout Western cultural history. This book argues therefore that spirituality in the 21st Century actually shares many of the same characteristics as Classical, Mediaeval, Renaissance, and Modern spiritualities. It is neither entirely new nor is it clearly alternative to more established religions. The book is divided into two parts. The first sets out the context in which contemporary alternative spirituality has formed, charting its development as an academic term and a social phenomenon. The second part looks at how these two elements have developed in countries that are historically Catholic, focussing on specific examples in contemporary Italy: spiritualities based on the sacralisation of nature, those concerned with health and wellbeing, and those which are fascinated by mystery. Catholic majority countries are particularly interesting in this instance, as the Catholic Church has a unique cultural hegemony with which to compare alternative spiritual practices. It concludes that spirituality, if framed in a longer historical perspective, is a way of acting and seeing the world which was built and continues to be built upon complex relations with various contradictory sources of authority, such as religion, magic, thinking, secularism, rationalism, various spheres of lay culture. This is a bold take on the spirituality milieu, and as such will be of great interest to scholars of Religious Studies working on the sociology of religion, contemporary spirituality, and the rise of the spiritual but not religious.
