Contemporary Arab Thought Ibrahim M. Abu-Rabi,2003-11-20 Contemporary Arab Thought is a multifaceted book encompassing a constellation of social political religious and ideological ideas that have evolved over the past two hundred years ideas that represent the leading positions of the social classes in modern and contemporary Arab societies Distinguished Islamic scholar Ibrahim Abu Rabi addresses such questions as the Shari ah human rights civil society secularism and globalisation This is complimented by a focused discussion on the writings of key Arab thinkers who represent established trends of thought in the Arab world including Muhammad Abid al Jabiri Adallah Laroui Muhammad al Ghazali Rashid al Ghannoushi Qutatnine Zurayk Mahdi Amil and many others Before 1967 some Arab countries launched hopeful programmes of modernisation After the 1967 defeat with Israel many of these hopes were dashed This book retraces the Arab world s aborted modernity of recent decades Abu Rabi explores the development of contemporary Arab thought against the historical background of the rise of modern Islamism and the impact of the West on the modern Arab world

Contemporary Arab Thought Elizabeth Suzanne Kassab,2025-04-29 In the last third of the twentieth century the Arab intellectual and political scene polarized between totalizing doctrines nationalist Marxist and religious and radical critique Arab thinkers were reacting to the disenchanting experience of postindependence and a widespread sense of malaise as well as to authoritarianism intolerance injustice failed development and successive defeats by Israel The foundational account of these responses Contemporary Arab Thought illuminates the relationship between cultural and political critique in the work of major Arab thinkers Elizabeth Suzanne Kassab also connects Arab debates to the postcolonial issues of Latin America and Africa revealing the shared struggles of different regions Since its first publication in 2009 this book has stood as the foremost account of contemporary Arab debates on culture philosophy modernity tradition identity and liberation It is widely used in Middle Eastern studies courses and it has become a classic in the field of Arab intellectual history Contemporary

Arab Thought now features an extensive new introduction that reconsiders post 1967 Arab intellectual history in light of the 2011 uprisings and the upheavals that have occurred over the intervening years Kassab critically reflects on the book's arguments and the responses it has provoked and she surveys the new preoccupations that have emerged in Arab debates since 2011 As crises again overtake the Middle East this landmark work continues to offer indispensable insight into the richness of contemporary Arab thought

The Rule of Law in the Arab World Nathan J. Brown, 2006 Nathan Brown's penetrating account of the development and operation of the courts in the Arab world is based on fieldwork in Egypt and the Gulf The book addresses important questions about the nature of Egypt's judicial system and the reasons why such a system appeals to Arab rulers outside Egypt From the theoretical perspective it also contributes to the debates about liberal legality political change and the relationship between law and society in the developing world It will be widely read by scholars of the Middle East students of law and colonial historians

Colonial Legacies And Contemporary Studies Of China And Chineseness: Unlearning Binaries, Strategizing Self Prapin Manomaivibool, Zhiyu Shi, Chih-yu Shih, Mariko Tanigaki, Swaran Singh, 2020 Colonial legacies in knowledge production affect the way the world is represented and understood today However the subject is rarely attended The book Colonial Legacies and Contemporary Studies of China and Chineseness: Unlearning Binaries Strategizing Self is about the colonial construction of intellectual perspectives of the colonized population in terms of the latter's approach to China and Chineseness in the modern world Relying on the available oral histories of senior China scholars primarily in Asia authors from various postcolonial and colonial sites present these multiple routes of self constitution and reconstitution through the use of China and Chineseness as category The revealed manipulation of this third category romantically as well as antagonistically is easier than straightforward self reflection for us all to accept that coming to identities and relations none even subaltern is politically innocent or capable of epistemological monopoly Through comparative studies it shows a way of self understanding that does not always require discursive construction of border or cultural consumption of any specific other

Thinking International Relations Differently Arlene Tickner, David L. Blaney, 2013-03-01 A host of voices has risen to challenge Western core dominance of the field of International Relations IR and yet intellectual production about world politics continues to be highly skewed This book is the second volume in a trilogy of titles that tries to put the international back into IR by showing how knowledge is actually produced around the world The book examines how concepts that are central to the analysis of international relations are conceived in diverse parts of the world both within the disciplinary boundaries of IR and beyond them Adopting a thematic structure scholars from around the world issues that include security the state authority and sovereignty globalization secularism and religion and the international an idea that is central to discourses about world politics but which in given geocultural locations does not necessarily look the same By mapping global variation in the concepts used by scholars to think about international relations the work brings to light important differences in non Western approaches and the potential implications of such differences for the IR discipline and the study of world politics in general This is essential reading for anyone who is concerned about the history development and future of International Relations

Islamic Finance in Western Higher Education A. Belouafi,A. Belabes,C. Trullols,2012-10-17 This is the first of its kind in its topical coverage of the developments and prospects of Islamic finance education at Western higher education Intended to establish itself as a unique reference for academics and researchers this book gives an insight into ethics and values in curricula development at business schools and in finance departments

Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair,C. H. Bleaney,Pablo García Suárez,2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies

Archives, Museums and Collecting Practices in the Modern Arab World Sonja Mejcher-Atassi,John Pedro Schwartz,2016-05-23 Collecting has a long tradition in the Middle East but the museum as a public institution is relatively new Today there are national museums for antiquities in most Arab countries While in some cases the political and social climate has hindered the foundation of museums with existing collections even destroyed at times the recent museum boom in the Gulf States is again changing the outlook This unique book is the first to explore collecting practices in archives and museums in the modern Arab world featuring case studies of collecting practices in countries ranging from Egypt and Lebanon to Palestine Jordan Iraq and the Gulf and providing a theoretical and methodological basis for future research The authors are also concerned with investigating the relationship between past and present since collecting practices tell us a great deal not only about the past but also about the ways we approach the past and present conceptions of our identities Collections can be textual as well as in the stories memories or events selected recalled and retold in the pages of a text As interest in memory studies as well as popular and visual culture grows in the Arab World so collecting practices are at the heart of any critical approach to the past and the present in that region The book will be of great interest not only to scholars and students of the modern Arab world but also to professionals in museums and collections in the region as well as around the world
