The Art of Law Stefan Huygebaert, Georges Martyn, Vanessa Paumen, Eric Bousmar, Xavier Rousseaux, 2018-09-27. The contributions to this volume were written by historians, legal historians, and art historians, each using his or her own methods and sources but all concentrating on topics from the broad subject of historical legal iconography. How have the concepts of law and justice been represented in public art from the Late Middle Ages onwards? Justices and rulers had their courtrooms but also churches decorated with inspiring images. At first, the religious influence was enormous, but starting with the Early Modern Era, new symbols and allegories began appearing. Throughout history, art has been used to legitimise the act of judging, but artists have also satirised the law and the lawyers. Architects and artisans have engaged in juridical and judicial projects, and in some criminal cases, convicts have even been sentenced to produce works of art. The book illustrates and contextualises the various interactions between law and justice on the one hand and their artistic representations in paintings, statues, drawings, tapestries, prints, and books on the other.

The Art and Politics of Asger Jorn Karen Kurczynski, 2017-07-05. A leading figure of the postwar avant-garde, Danish artist Asger Jorn has long been recognized for his founding contributions to the Cobra and Situationist International movements, yet art historical scholarship on Jorn has been sparse, particularly in English. This study corrects that imbalance, offering a synthetic account of the essential phases of this prolific artist's career. It addresses his works in various media alongside his extensive writings and his collaborations with various artists' groups from the 1940s through the mid-1960s. Situating Jorn's work in an international post-Second World War context, Karen Kurczynski reframes our understanding of the 1950s away from the Abstract Expressionist focus on individual expression toward a more open-ended conception of art as a public engagement with contemporary culture and politics Kurczynski engages with issues of interest to twenty first century artists and scholars highlighting Jorn's proposition that the sensory address of art and its complex relationship to popular media can have a direct social impact Perhaps most significantly this study foregrounds Jorn's assertion that creativity is crucial to subjectivity itself in our increasingly mediated Society of the Spectacle Antwerp Royal Museum Annua 12013-2014 Paul Vandebroek, 2016-12-28 At various points over the course of the 20th century the Belgian State and its various ministries and provinces consciously chose to subsidise not only the fine arts but also the applied and decorative arts and in particular the art of weaving tapestry On the one hand orders were placed for World Exhibitions and for Belgian embassies and on the other competitions were held for tapestries to be hung in important locations such as the United Nations and NATO headquarters and the exhibitions that were organized by the various ministries over the years They provided an overview of the ways in which this branch of the arts was changing as well as representative work by the best tapestry designers The exhibitions organized by the provincial authorities give quite a different image There were the highly conventional exhibitions of Brabantine tapestries to promote the craftsmanship of the province and there were the more innovative textile exhibitions Taken as a whole the commissions competitions and exhibitions give a good overview of what was happening in Belgium in the field of tapestry over the period 1945-1980 They also make it clear what image was being projected abroad that of a country with rich traditions master craftsmanship in weaving and in the 1970s some affiliation to the latest developments in European textile art
