expose how people especially those with power and wealth use animals to define regulate and enforce political and social boundaries between themselves and other humans especially in imperial contexts      Multicultural Challenges and Redefining Identity in East Asia Nam-Kook Kim,2016-04-15 Globalization and increased migration have brought both new opportunities and new tensions to traditional East Asian societies Multicultural Challenges and Redefining Identity in East Asia draws together a wide range of distinguished local scholars to discuss multiculturalism and the changing nature of social identity in East Asia Regional specialists review specific events and situations in China Korea Japan Thailand Vietnam Singapore Taiwan Malaysia Indonesia and the Philippines to provide a focus on life as it is lived at the local level whilst also tracing macro discourses on the national issues affected by multiculturalism and identity The contributors look at the uneven multicultural development across these different countries and how to bridge the gap between locality and universality They examine how ethnic majorities and minorities can achieve individual rights exert civic responsibility and explain how to construct a deliberative framework to make sustainable democracy possible This book considers the emergence of a new cross national network designed to address multicultural challenges and imagines an East Asian community with shared values of individual dignity and multicultural diversity With strong empirical support it puts forward a regulative ideal by which a new paradigm for multicultural coexistence and regional cooperation can be realized      Global Youth? Pam Nilan,Carles Feixa,2006-11-22 This innovative collection of studies by international youth researchers critically addresses questions of global youth incorporating material from regions as diverse as Sydney Tehran Dakar and Manila and advancing our knowledge about young people around the globe Exploring specific local youth cultures whilst mediating global mass media and consumption trends this book traces subaltern youth landscapes and tells subaltern youth stories previously invisible in predominantly western youth cultural studies and theorizing The chapters here serve as a refutation of the colonialist discourse of cultural globalization Showcasing previously unpublished youth research from outside the English speaking world alongside the work of well known researchers such as Huq and Holden these accounts of youth cultural practices highlight much that is predictably different but also a great deal of common ground This book goes inside creative cultural formation of youth identities to critically examine the global in the local Bringing together an internationally diverse group of researchers who describe and analyze youth cultures throughout Europe the Americas Asia Africa and Oceania this volume presents the first comprehensive review of global youth cultures practices and identities and as such is a valuable read for students and researchers of youth studies cultural studies and sociology      Roppongi Crossing Roman A. Cybriwsky,2011 For most of the latter half of the twentieth century Roppongi was an enormously popular nightclub district that stood out from the other pleasure quarters of Tokyo for its mix of international entertainment and people It was where Japanese and foreigners went to meet and play With the crash of Japan s bubble economy in the 1990s however the neighborhood declined and it now has a reputation as perhaps Tokyo s most dangerous district a hotbed of illegal narcotics prostitution and other crimes Its concentration of bad foreigners many from China Russia and Eastern Europe West Africa and Southeast Asia is thought to be the source of the trouble Roman Adrian Cybriwsky examines how Roppongi s nighttime economy is now under siege by both heavy handed police action and the conservative Japanese construction state an alliance of large private builders and political interests with broad discretion to redevelop Tokyo The construction state sees an opportunity to turn prime real estate into high end residential and retail projects that will clean up the area and make Tokyo more competitive with Shanghai and other rising business centers in Asia Roppongi Crossing is a revealing ethnography of what is arguably the most dynamic district in one of the world s most dynamic cities Based on extensive fieldwork it looks at the interplay between the neighborhood s nighttime rhythms its emerging daytime economy of office towers and shopping malls Japan s ongoing internationalization and changing ethnic mix and Roppongi Hills and Tokyo Midtown the massive new construction projects now looming over the old playground
