Contemporary Women Writing In The Other Americas Vol 1 Contemporary Women Writing In Latin America:

Adventurous Women in Contemporary American Historical Fiction Jeannette King, 2022-03-10 This book brings together for the first time nine groundbreaking historical novels by women from the United States Canada and Latin America united by their focus on female adventurers These novels introduce the neglected women of history real and imagined who accompanied their menfolk to the New World and enabled its settlement or colonisation Familiar novelists include Isabel Allende Audrey Thomas and Jane Smiley but this book also introduces less familiar writers who have produced richly textured and densely historical novels In addition to putting women back into history these writers engage with the literature of the past including the American canon of male fiction which dominated literary history before the intervention of feminist scholars The book begins with an introduction to the history of historical fiction and provides a theoretical historical and geographical context for the novels themselves

Peruvian Rebel Kathleen Weaver, 2010-05-19 Examines the life and poetry of Magda Portal a major figure in Latin American revolutionary politics Includes a selection of poems available for the first time in English translation Provided by publisher

Most Scandalous Woman Myrna Iovonne Wallace Fuentes, 2017-10-28 In 1926 a young Peruvian woman picked up a gun wrested her infant daughter from her husband and liberated herself from the constraints of a patriarchal society Magda Portal a poet and journalist would become one of Latin America's most successful and controversial politicians In this richly nuanced portrayal of Portal historian Myrna Iovonne Wallace Fuentes chronicles the dramatic rise and fall of this prominent twentieth century revolutionary within the broader history of leftist movements gender politics and literary modernism in Latin America An early member of bohemian circles in Lima La Paz and Mexico City Portal distinguished herself as the sole female founder of the American Popular Revolutionary Alliance APRA A leftist but non Communist movement APRA would dominate Peru's politics for five decades Through close analysis of primary sources including Portal's own poetry correspondence and other writings Most Scandalous Woman illuminates Portal's pivotal work in creating and leading APRA during its first twenty years as well as her efforts to mobilize women as active participants in political and social change Despite her successes Portal broke with APRA in 1950 under bitter circumstances Wallace Fuentes analyzes how sexism in politics interfered with Portal's political ambitions explores her relationships with family members and male peers and discusses the ramifications of her scandalous love life In charting the complex trajectory of Portal's life and career Most Scandalous Woman reveals what moves people to become revolutionaries and the gendered limitations of their revolutionary alliances in an engrossing narrative that brings to life Latin American revolutionary politics

The Cambridge History of Latin American Women's Literature Ileana Rodríguez, Mónica Szurmuk, 2015-11-12 The Cambridge History of Latin American Women's Literature is an essential resource for anyone interested in the development of women's writing in Latin America Ambitious in scope it explores women's literature from ancient indigenous cultures to the beginning of the twenty first century Organized chronologically and written by a host of leading scholars this History offers an array of approaches that contribute to current dialogues about translation literary genres oral and written cultures and the complex relationship between literature and the political sphere Covering subjects from cronistas in Colonial Latin America and nation building to feminicide and literature of the indigenous elite this History traces the development of a literary tradition while remaining grounded in contemporary scholarship The Cambridge History of Latin American Women's Literature will not only engage readers in ongoing debates but also serve as a definitive reference for years to come

Global Issues in Contemporary Hispanic Women's Writing Estrella Cibreiro, Francisca López, 2012-11-27 This collection explores the contributions of Hispanic women writers to ongoing Western debates on gender power ethics and the environment offering a wide range of essays that specifically portray the ways in which contemporary writers focus on issues of global impact in a deliberate and purposeful manner The contributors analyze texts pertaining to all literary genres examining a myriad of ethical philosophical and political perspectives including feminism postcolonial theories cultural and gender studies information age studies and ecofeminism The book visits continuities and discontinuities among Spanish and Latin American women with regards to the ways in which they approach writing as a political weapon to express ecological concerns to denounce social injustice to re-articulate existing paradigms such as local versus global violence versus pacifism immigrant versus citizen and to raise consciousness about racist sexist and other discriminatory practices Such use of writing as an instrument of ethical and political exploration is underlined throughout the different articles in the volume as the authors emphasize pluralism social justice gender equality tolerance and political representation This book offers readers a broad perspective on the multiple ways in which Hispanic women writers are explicitly exploring the social political and economic realities of our era and integrating global perspectives and gender concerns into their writing highlighting the unprecedented level of sociopolitical engagement practiced by 20th and 21st century Hispanic women writers

Women Writers of Latin America Magdalena García Pinto, 1991-11-01 What does it take for a woman to succeed as a writer In these revealing interviews first published in 1988 as Historias íntimas ten of Latin America's most important women writers explore this question with scholar Magdalena García Pinto discussing the personal social and political factors that have shaped their writing careers The authors interviewed are Isabel Allende Albalucía Ángel Rosario Ferré Margo Glantz Sylvia Molloy Elvira Orphé Elena Poniatowska Marta Traba Luisa Valenzuela and Ida Vitale In intimate dialogues with each author García Pinto draws out the formative experiences of her youth tracing the pilgrimage that led each to a distinguished writing career The writers also reflect on their published writings discussing the creative process in general and the motivating force behind individual works They candidly discuss the problems they have faced in writing and the strategies that enabled them to reach their goals While obviously of interest to readers of Latin American literature this book has important insights for students of women's literature and cultural studies as well as for aspiring writers
