The book addresses the different ways women's issues are understood in China and the West attending to the processes of translation adaptation and the grafting of new ideas with existing Chinese understandings of gender feminism subjectivity consumerism and post modernism. By focusing on women's autobiographical biographical fictional and historical writing the book engages in a transcultural flow of ideas between western and indigenous Chinese feminisms. Taking account of the accretions of social cultural geographic literary economic and political movements and trends cultural formations and ways of thinking it asks how the texts and the concepts they negotiate might be understood in the social and cultural spaces within China and how they might be interpreted differently elsewhere in the global locations in which they circulate. The book argues that women centred writing in China has a direct bearing on global feminist theory and practice. This critical study of selected genres and writers highlights the shifts in feminist perspectives within contemporary local and global cultural landscapes      Chinese Literature in the Second Half of a Modern Century Pang-Yuan Chi, David Der-wei

Writers in Diaspora Amy Tak-yee Lai,2009-03-26 The mention of Chinese women writers in diaspora immediately brings to mind Jung Chang b 1952 and her Wild Swans Three Daughters of China 1991 which won the 1992 NCR book award and the 1993 British Book of the Year Award and got officially banned in China Despite its popular reception and crucial acclaim Chang s work has invited a lot of attacks Among the most common is the contention that it merely focuses on the experience of the privileged and does not tell the reader what other memoirs have not already revealed Chinese Women Writers in Diaspora is a pioneering study that focuses on four Chinese women writers currently living in the United States and England whose works have been popularly received and are in many cases highly controversial but have received little scholarly attention Xinran b 1958 Hong Ying b 1962 Anchee Min b 1957 and Adeline Yen Mah b 1937 The chapters illuminate how Xinran constructs her identity and her fellow Chinese women in dialectics of self and other how Hong Ying evokes cycles of return that blend Western and Chinese philosophical concepts how Min employs images of theatre and theatrical conventions to depict the entrapment and transgression of her protagonists and how Mah transliterates and appropriates both Western and Chinese fairy tale motifs to fashion her Chinese feminist utopia While Jung Chang s memoir seems confining it has aroused interest in the genre of Chinese female autobiography and Chinese women writers who live and write between cultures     The Literature of China in the Twentieth Century Bonnie S. McDougall, Kam Louie, 1997 This text surveys the literature of the Chinese mainland concentrating on fiction poetry and drama with background surveys on the historical social and cultural context and chapters on individual writers and their works It assumes no knowledge of Chinese Topics include the role of writers and the function of literature in a modernizing society the long native chinese tradition the emphasis on culture and propaganda in a modernizing state the relation of writers to their readers and writers general impact on modern Chinese society
