Contemporary Christologies A Jewish Response:

Contemporary Christologies Eugene B. Borowitz, 1980 Jewish Jesus Research and its Challenge to Christology Today Walter Homolka, 2016-10-05 Historical Jesus research Jewish or Christian is marked by the search for origins and authenticity The various Quests for the Historical Jesus contributed to a crisis of identity within Western Christianity The result was a move back to the Jewish roots For Jewish scholars it was a means to position Jewry within a dominantly Christian culture As a consequence Jews now feel more at ease to relate to Jesus as a Jew For Walter Homolka the Christian challenge now is to formulate a new Christology between a Christian exclusivism that denies the universality of God and a pluralism that endangers the specificity of the Christian understanding of God and the uniqueness of religious traditions including that of Christianity The Christological Foundation for Contemporary Theological Education Joseph D. Ban, 1988 An Introduction to Modern Jewish Philosophy Norbert M. Samuelson, 2012-02-01 The book is divided into three sections The first provides a general historical overview for the Jewish thought that follows The second summarizes the variety of basic kinds of popular positive Jewish commitment in the twentieth century The third and major section summarizes the basic thought of those modern Jewish philosophers whose thought is technically the best and or the most influential in Jewish intellectual circles The Jewish philosophers covered include Spinoza Mendelssohn Hermann Cohen Martin Buber Franz Rosenzweig Mordecai Kaplan and Emil Fackenheim The text includes summaries and a selected bibliography of primary and secondary sources Modern Jewish Identity Esther Reisel, Rudi Reisel, 2000 The authors explore the philosophical spiritual and ideological uniqueness of Jewish thinking its ability to meet the social and scientific challenges of the present and future and argue for unity within Judaism based on the Bible as The Jewish Philosophy Reader Daniel H. Frank, Oliver Leaman, Charles Harry Manekin, 2000 A Comprehensive anthology of classic writings on Jewish philosophy from the Bible to postmodernism Jewish-Christian Relations Since the Second World War Geoffrey Wigoder, 1988 The five sections of the book are entitled Christian Attitudes to Judaism and the Jews Jewish Attitudes to the Dialogue The Vatican and the Jews Israel in the Dialogue The Dialogue in Israel Ch 3 discusses the Nostra Aetate declaration 1965 The Churches undertook the revision of many religious teachings in order to eliminate the traditional antisemitic stereotype of the Jews Not enough however is being done in either Jewish or Christian education to build up understanding of the values and beliefs of the other The appendix pp 143 167 contains documents statements by the Vatican Nostra Aetate the Guidelines the Notes and the World Council of Churches War and Its Discontents J. Patout Burns, 1996-04-01 This volume examines the limits Islam Judaism and Christianity have set for the use of coercive violence It probes the agreements and disagreements of these major religious traditions on pacifism the abjuration of all force and quietism the avoidance of force unless certain stringent conditions are met The distinguished contributors examine the foundations for nonviolence in each religion criticize the positions each religion has taken address the inherent challenges nonviolence poses and evaluate the difficulty of practicing nonviolence in a secular society The concluding essay defines the common ground isolates the points of conflict and suggests avenues of further inquiry The most important contribution this volume makes is to demonstrate that no Western religious tradition provides a basis for the glorification of violence Rather each accepts warfare as a regretted necessity and sets strict limits on the use of force This work offers new insights for those interested in the ethics of warfare peace studies religious traditions and international affairs

Introduction to Christian Theology Roger A. Badham, 1998-01-01 This book covers a broad spectrum of current perspectives in theology including evangelical liberal liberationist feminist and postmodern approaches A textbook for introductory theology classes in seminaries and colleges this wide ranging collection of essays also represents the best available resource for any reader seeking to explore and understand the diversity of current trends in theology and ethics

Catholics and Jews in Twentieth-century America Egal Feldman, 2001 This book recounts the transformation of a relationship of irreconcilable enmity to one of respectful coexistence and constructive dialogue From the Inquisition to the Passion Play at Oberammergau the Catholic Church for centuries perpetuated a theology of contempt that reinforced antipathy between the two faiths Focusing primarily on the Catholic doctrinal view of the Jews and its ramifications Egal Feldman traces the historical roots of antisemitism examining tenacious Catholic beliefs such as displacement theology deicide and the conviction that the Jews purported responsibility for the Crucifixion justified all their subsequent misery and vilification A new era of Catholic Jewish relations opened in 1962 with Vatican II's Nostra Aetate No 4 This document brought about a reversal of the theology of contempt a de emphasis on converting Jews to Christianity and a determination to initiate constructive dialogue between Catholics and Jews Feldman explores the strides made in improving relations and discusses recent disputes including the erection of a convent near Auschwitz and the proposed canonization of the wartime pope Pius XII that reflect the fragility of the interfaith relationship This book underscores the magnitude of the change in Catholic thinking about Jews since Vatican II and the courage of thinkers and leaders on both sides in forging new bonds across the lines of faith

When Jews and Christians Meet Jakob J. Petuchowski, 2012-02-01 When Jews and Christians Meet captures the present state of the Christian Jewish Dialogue in which it is taken for granted that good will has been established and that Christians and Jews have a great deal in common One can now appreciate the basic differences which remain between Judaism and Christianity without fear of giving offense With this assumption a number of Jewish and Christian scholars address several questions For example they ask what the future goals of Judaeo Christian studies should be and how the ecumenical aspirations of leading Christian and Jewish theologians can be translated into practice on a level which can be appreciated by the men and women in the pews of synagogues and churches In addition to such theoretical considerations the volume offers illustrations of how Bible study can be undertaken in both the Hebrew Bible and the New Testament by Jewish and Christian scholars addressing passages hitherto considered controversial with both a commitment to objective scholarship and a rootedness in their respective religious traditions Jeremiah's prophecy about the New Covenant and some of the Apostle Paul's statements about the Jews furnish the material for that joint enterprise Studies in the Meaning of Judaism (JPS Scholar of Distinction Series) Eugene B. Borowitz, 2010-01-01 Noted educator, author and speaker Eugene Borowitz delivers the fruits of his scholarship with grace in this new addition to the JPS Scholar of Distinction series. Gathered in this single volume are 33 essays covering the themes of modern Jewish theology, education, the history of Reform Judaism in America, Jewish law, ethics and religious dialogue. This collection will appeal to a wide audience including rabbis, scholars and readers of religion, modern Jewish thought and liturgy Fully Human in Christ Todd H. Speidell, 2016-11-08 Thomas F. Torrance's theology included a thoroughgoing albeit implicit ethic of reconciliation. It focused on the personalizing and humanizing mediation of Christ in all realms of life, including not only a supposed private dimension of human life but also the social, historical and political structures of human society and even of the cosmos itself. This book builds upon that vision of a Christian ethic radically rooted in God's grace, which encompasses, sustains and transforms the entire human and created order. A trinitarian, incarnational social ethic does not begin with our human causes, projects and agendas; however noble they might be, but with witness to the reconciling person and work of Jesus Christ for us.

Genocide, Critical Issues of the Holocaust Alex Grobman, Daniel Landes, Sybil Milton, 1983 Jesus Research James H. Charlesworth, Brian Rhea, Petr Pokorný, 2014-01-23 This volume explores nearly every facet of Jesus research, from eyewitness criteria to the reliability of memory, from archaeology to psychobiography, from oral traditions to literary sources, and from narrative criticism to Gospel criticism. Bringing together a wide variety of topics and perspectives in one volume, this ambitious collaborative enterprise casts light on important debates and encourages creative links between ideas new and old. This distinguished collection of articles by internationally renowned Jewish and Christian scholars originates with the Princeton-Prague Symposium on Jesus Research. It summarizes the significant advances in understanding Jesus that scholars have made in recent years, chiefly through the development of diverse methodologies. Even readers who are already knowledgeable in the field will discover unique angles from well-known New Testament scholars, and all will be brought up to speed on the current state of play within Jesus studies Challenges in Jewish-Christian Relations James K. Aitken, Edward D. Kessler, 2006 James K. Aitken and Edward D. Kessler have assembled here a widely diverse collection of essays on Jewish-Christian relations, a discipline that compared with other subjects studied in university and religious circles is relatively young. Jewish-Christian relations is a complex enterprise that cannot be reduced to simple theological or historical narratives; it must take into account politics, sociology, education, language, history, biblical studies, hermeneutics and theology. The contributors view their particular subject through the lens of all of these disciplines while ably meeting the challenge of looking toward the future. Chapter One: Introduction, James K. Aitken and Edward D. Kessler. Chapter Two: Jews Facing Christians: The Burdens and Blinders of the Past, Marc Saperstein. Chapter Three: The Bible in Future Jewish-Christian Relations, John F. A. Sawyer. Chapter Four: The Orthodox Churches in Dialogue with Judaism, Nicholas de Lange. Chapter Five:
