Contemporary Economic Issues in Developing Countries John Baffoe-Bonnie, Mohammed Khayum, 2003-04-30 Important lessons for policy makers are provided here as contributors evaluate the effectiveness of domestic economic policies and the recommendations of international organizations such as the World Bank regarding the economic development of developing countries Challenges posed by debt problems corruption population dynamics poverty and the absence of adequate human and physical capital are highlighted Contributors cast doubts on the conclusions of the prevailing theories of economic development with patterns of economic change over the course of the 20th century Their findings point out the issue of inadequate social capability as a critical factor in understanding the lack of economic development in many developing countries They suggest that contemporary theorizing tends to pinpoint necessary but insufficient conditions for the successful implementation of development strategies in these countries Contemporary Issues in Development Economics B. N. Ghosh, 2001 This new collection of articles puts the very latest issues in economic development under the microscope exploring them from a variety of perspectives Beginning with an assessment of the current state of play in development the authors move forward to examine neglected issues such as human development gender brain drain military expenditure and post colonial theory While analysing the problems of external debts technology transfer and new theories of international trade the relationship between developing and developed economies is fully explored The book also examines the important topics of financial reform structural adjustments and the role of the IMF in the new financial architecture The highly respected contributors subject these critical issues to thorough analysis with suggestions towards resolving some of these problems making this an indispensable book that researchers and students of development economics cannot afford to miss Contemporary Economic Issues in Asian Countries: Proceeding of CEIAC 2022, Volume 2 An Thinh Nguyen, Thu Thuy Pham, Joon Song, Yen-Ling Lin, Manh Cuong Dong, 2023-04-21 This book continues the discussion from Volume 1 on the general considerations regarding global changes and contemporary economic issues in Asian countries in real terms It offers a collection of original conference papers from the annual international conferences on Contemporary economic issues in Asian countries CEIAC Conference commenced in 2022 in collaboration with CIFOR ICRAF Sungkyunkwan University Korea and Tamkang University Taiwan The theme of the CEIAC Conference 2022 deals with broad aspects of the contemporary economic issues in Asian countries It covers topics such as economics and business economic theory national and international income distribution macroeconomic policies sectors of economy productivity developments financial market business governance bank financing etc green economy and sustainable development developing process development policy public policy sustainable growth green growth etc and international trade and investment international trade theory free trade agreements tariffs intellectual property international law etc The book would interest a wide array of professors researchers lecturers students in fields of economics consultants and decision makers interested in the issues
