Herget, 2017-11-15 James Herget explains to American legal scholars and students the main points of the characteristic legal philosophy that has developed in the German speaking world since World War II After a historical introduction and overview he discusses critical rationalism discourse theory rhetorical theory systems theory and institutional legal positivism He concludes with a general assessment and appends biographical information Written for American legal scholars and students who traditionally are exposed only to filtered versions of comparative legal traditions this volume introduces a new world of legal theory that resonates within the context of other contemporary disciplines and German intellectual history New Masculinities in Contemporary German Literature Frauke Matthes, 2023-05-13 The complex nexus between masculinity and national identity has long troubled but also fascinated the German cultural imagination This has become apparent again since the fall of the Iron Curtain and the turn of the millennium when transnational developments have noticeably shaped Germany's self perception as a nation This book examines the social and political impact of transnationalism with reference to current discourses of masculinity in novels by five contemporary male German language authors Specifically it analyses how conceptions of the masculine interact with those of nationality ethnicity and otherness in the selected texts and assesses the new masculinities that result from those interactions Exploring how local discourses of masculinity become part of transnational contexts in contemporary writing the book moves a consideration of masculinities from a native into a transnational sphere Ethical Approaches in Contemporary German-language Literature and Culture Emily Jeremiah, Frauke Matthes, 2013 Building on a long tradition in German language literature and culture this volume focuses on contemporary engagements with ethical concerns in literary texts essays and films There has been an ethical turn in the literature culture and theory of recent years Questions of morality are urgent at a time of increasing global insecurities Yet it is becoming ever more difficult to make ethical judgments in multicultural relativist societies The European economic meltdown has raised further ethical difficulties widening the gap between rich and poor Such divisions and difficulties heighten the widespread fear of the other in its various manifestations And in the German context especially the past and its representation offer ongoing moral challenges These ethical concerns have found their way into recent German language literature and culture in texts that deal with history and memory Timm Petzold Schoch Strubel materiality Krau Overath gender Berg Schneider age and generation Moster Pehnt Schalansky religion especially Islam Senocak Kermani Ruete and nomadism Tawada The relationship between self and other the connection between particular and general the personal and political consequences of individuals actions and the potential and danger of representation itself are issues that are vital to the shaping of our future ethical landscapes as this volume demonstrates Contributors Monika Albrecht Angelika Baier David N Coury Anna Ertel Tilmann K ppe Emily Jeremiah Alasdair King Frauke Matthes Aine McMurtry Gillian Pye Kate Roy Emily Jeremiah is Senior Lecturer in German at Royal Holloway University of London Frauke Matthes is Lecturer in German at the University of Edinburgh Ghetto Voices in Contemporary German Culture Maria Stehle,2012 Illuminates tensions and transformations in today s Germany by examining literary filmic and musical treatments of the ghetto metaphor Accounts of how Germany has changed since unification often portray the Berlin Republic as a new Germany that has left the Nazi past and Cold War division behind and entered the new millennium as a peaceful worldly and cautiously proud nation Closer inspection however reveals tensions between such views and the realities of a country that continues to struggle with racism provincialism and fear of the perceived Other Mainstream media foster such fears by describing violence in ghetto schools failed integration and the loss of society s core values The city emerges as a key site not only of ethnic and political tension but of social change Maria Stehle illuminates these tensions and transformations by following the metaphor of the ghetto in literary works from the 1990s by Feridun Zaimoglu in German ghettocentric films from the late 1990s and the early twenty first century and in hip hop and rap music of the same periods In their representations of ghettos authors filmmakers musicians and performers redefine and challenge provincialism and nationalism and employ transcultural frameworks for their diverging political agendas By contextualizing these discussions within social and political developments this study illuminates the complexities that define Germany today for scholars and students across the disciplines of German European cultural urban and media studies Maria Stehle is Assistant Professor of German at the University of Tennessee Knoxville the literature of totalitarian regimes Third Reich and German Democratic Republic and third the various creative strategies and evasions of the capitalist democratic multi medial cultures of the Weimar and Federal Republics The volume achieves a balance between textual analysis and cultural theory that gives it value as an introductory reference source and as an original study and as such will be essential reading for students and scholars alike
